 —Mrs. J. S. Perry presided over the opening meeting of the season of the W.M.S. of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon in the church parlor.
 Following the Call to Worship and prayer, the hymn "God of Mercy, God of Grace" was sung. The Scripture lesson in St. John 4 was read by Mrs. Cleve Whalen. An interesting meditation was presented by Mrs. Hilbert Johnston, after which Mrs. Donald Baker reported on the recent Presbyterial.
 Roll call was responded to with an appropriate harvest verse, and the offertory prayer given by Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie. The closing hymn "Sowing in the Morning" was followed by the Mizpah Benediction.—S

Grain

WINNIPEG, Sept. 12 — (CP) — Rye displayed the best tone at the close today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Oats and barley eased slightly in late trading. Flax remained firm.
 Domestic shipper demand came out early in the trade in oats and barley, while barley also received support from exporters in connection with some overnight business in this commodity to Denmark.
 American demand sent rye prices upward. Flax was mostly local trade. Hedging sales were prominent in the December contracts.
 There was no information available on export loadings of Canadian wheat, but reports said 3,000,000 bushels were being made available to Italy.
 Prices for class two wheat and I.W.A. were up one-eighth cent from yesterday.
