CENTENNIAL Y'S MEN—The weekly supper meeting of Centennial Y's Men's Club was held last evening under the co-chairmanship of George A. de Rosa and George Burgess. Following the singing led by Les Alexander and John Stearns a panel was set up consisting of Harry Sears, Jr., Claude Whitenect, Ralph Carr and Bob Gagy to answer all questions. This panel, being posed some very difficult and argumentative questions, strove manfully to answer them. The questions embraced the home, Y.M.C.A., Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Better Business Bureau, should the rural beautification plan be applied to Charlottetown, and such like. After the panel discussion a lively business meeting was held to discuss any relevant matters pertaining to the Club. The meeting closed with the Queen.

HILLSBORO FRIE BRIGADE—On Monday, Oct. 31, a meeting was held at the home of David Murch to plan the formation of a fire brigade in Mt. Herbert and surrounding districts. Mr. Campbell, provincial fire chief, addressed the gathering at which David Murch was chairman. Mr. Allison Mutch acted as secretary. It was moved by Don Farquharson and seconded by Russell Matheson and a group be organized under the name of the Hillsboro Fire Brigade with one company to be formed in each district taking part. Ten men signed as volunteers at the meeting with the list to remain open for further signatures. David Murch and Allison Mutch were appointed to inquire into the cost of equipment. Mr. Campbell will show films on fire fighting at the next meeting which will be on Nov. 7 at 8 p. m. in Mermaid School.

Eaton Purebreds At Maritime Winter Fair

AMHERST, N. S. (CP)—Cyrus Eaton, recently named "farmer of the year" by the Cleveland Farmers' club, captured several awards at the Maritime Winter Fair here Tuesday. Mr. Eaton, a native of Pugwash, N. S. and now a Cleveland industrialist, owns and operates the 400-acre Acadia farms in Northfield, Ohio, the home of North America's most famous herds of purebred registered Scottish shorthorns, and Deep Cove farms in Nova Scotia. The farms are designed to produce the shorthorn breed of cattle. Tuesday his Deep Cove Scottish Monarch 11 took the grand and senior championships in the male classes and his Deep Cove Barrett was picked junior champion. The farm's Scotsdale Golden Highlight won the reserve senior and grand championships and Curran Diamond won the reserve junior title. Mr. Eaton's Kinellar Lavender D. was named the junior champion female.

"Islanders" Get Together In International Amity

Relations between Prince Edward Island and the Islands of St. Pierre-Miquelon were strengthened further last night when the Government of the Province along with the City of Charlottetown were hosts at a goodwill dinner for the Deputy Governor of the French Islands, the French Consul from Halifax, the Mayor of St. Pierre and several other state dignitaries.

Monsieur M. Clement, deputy Governor was presented with the key to the City of Charlottetown; His Worship Mayor Lehuenan of St. Pierre was the recipient of a gift from the City and Mr. Henry Gauthier who has been coming to Prince Edward Island for the past twenty-five years was also remembered by Mayor Stewart. Attending the dinner were Premier A. W. Matheson, Stewart, members of the City Council, Government officials and about forty Island businessmen who have been or are now doing business with the French Islands.

ADDRESS IN FRENCH
Mayor Stewart who during the summer has had the pleasure of welcoming many distinguished visitors to the City, surprised both the visitors and the others present when he addressed his remarks to the Deputy Governor in French. The applause he received was evidence of the visitors' warm appreciation of this gesture. His Worship recalled that the first settlers of this Province were from France and he was happy to note that these settlers and their offsprings had added greatly to the Island's heritage. Monsieur Clement in reply to the presentation said he was very touched both by the Mayor's speech and by the warm hospitality afforded him and his party during their stay in Charlottetown. He expressed a keen desire to return to Prince Edward Island at a future date and hoped that many of those present would avail themselves of an opportunity to visit the Islands in the Atlantic.

May Question Duchess Of Windsor In Shooting

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—An inquiry into the socially prominent including the duchess of Windsor face eventual questioning in the fatal shooting of millionaire William Woodward Jr. by his wife. Authorities said Wednesday they want to talk with every one of the 60 persons who attended a party with the Woodwards just hours before the slaying. The duchess was the guest of honor. Meanwhile, more than 1,000 persons prominent in society, finance, and sports attended funeral service in New York City for Woodward, 35, owner of the fabulous racehorse, Nashua.

Across his mahogany casket lay a blanket of red and white flowers—his racing colors—ordered by his bitterly weeping widow from her hospital bed. QUARRELS REPORTED Some sources have said the couple quarrelled violently in the past and had discussed divorce or separation. They have been described, however, as having been on good terms Saturday night. Mrs. Woodward's story of a prowler abroad in the lavish Long Island countryside around her estate was borne out Tuesday with the arrest of a 22-year-old German refugee bricklayer, Paul W. Wirths. Police said he admitted he broke into a swimming pool cabana and a six-car garage on the Woodward property on the Friday night before the shooting and tried to break into the main building. Gulletta said he has information that Wirths actually was on the Woodward property as late as 8 o'clock Saturday night, some six hours before the shooting. The youth is being held on burglary charges.

Encourage N.Z. Newsprint Sales To U.S.
AUCKLAND, N. Z. (CP)—A United States congressional mission has given strong encouragement to the idea that New Zealand should enter the American newsprint market. After inspecting the industry here, its members said the New Zealand product will sell well on the world market and the industry is capable of enormous expansion. The mission was headed by Don Hayworth, Michigan Democrat and John V. Beamer, Republican of Indiana, members of the House of Representatives in interstate and foreign commerce committee. The mission has been on a tour of Pacific countries inspecting newsprint sources.

GOOD SHOWING

Eric Hurry of Winsloe took a nice win in the final day of competition when his Patosie Dorraine Lassie came through with a red ribbon in the R. O. P. production class. Harold Palmer was second and Hurry's Patosie Patricia 2nd was third. The latter is a daughter of Patosie Patricia, one of the great all-time Guernsey producers in Canada. She was second in the all-time honor roll for many years and that was in competition against cows from all over Canada. Patricia 2nd has a butter fat production record in her own right of 608 lbs. Patosie Dorraine Lassie has a R. O. P. record of 636 lbs. of butter fat. Hurry wound up with two firsts one second, three thirds, three fifths and one fourth along with a reserve senior championship. Ernest F. Coles and Son did not show many animals in the final day of the fair. Neither did Alton Bell of Kensington, but they were in the money several times on the previous day. Mountain Way Dorinda won the grand female championship for Walter G. Coulter and Son, Norton, N. B. The reserve was Sunny Point Pandora, owned by the estate of Seymour Main and Son.

HOLSTEINS
Cyril Jones of Alexandra, P.E.I. scored a nice win with his cow Crown Point Colleen in the class for three-year-old Holstein cows in milk. His Crown Point Jill was third in the same class. Jill was the grand champion at Charlottetown and Colleen placed second in her class on the island. Jones came through with a second place in the progeny of dam class. All told he had one first, a second, three thirds, four fourths and two fifths. The grand championship in Holsteins was taken by Kenevald Mary Lee owned by Walter Lusby of Amherst. The reserve went to Courtney B. Lusby on Crestlane Vera.

E. I. Jay of Kensington took the class for roasters with his Jay's Abner. He was the only P. E. Island entry. Stanley Mayhew, Kinkora had a first and a fifth place with his draft horses. ROADSTER CLASSES
In horse judging "Watchim" owned by George Calbeck of Summerside took first place in the roadster class. "Lakeburn" owned by Dr. J.T. Akins of Fredericton, N.B. was second and "Pixie Girl" owned by R.S. Humphrey of Kensington took third place. Fourth place went to "Senator Craimyle" owned by H.T. Ramsay of Sackville and fifth to "G and C" owned by Mr. Calbeck. The Guy Rodd challenge trophy for the best junior Guernsey female at the show was won by the Estate of Seymour Main, Denismore Mills, N.S. and in the absence of Mr. Rodd was presented to the winner by Mr. Neil A. Matheson, M. P., a former secretary of the Guernsey Breeders Association of Prince Edward Island.

New Hope For Victims Of Coronary Ailments

CHICAGO (AP)—Within a year, muscle become clogged with fatty material. Part of the heart muscle is damaged or dies. "For the first time now there is hope that we can open up the heart to repair the artery, or substitute another artery for it," Dr. Lillehei said. A heart-lung machine would be used to put the person's heart on a temporary holiday for half an hour or so while repairs were made. And Minnesota researchers have developed a brand new heart-lung machine—the simplest one yet using a $2 plastic lung and a couple of pumps. Coronaries, such as felled President Eisenhower, come when arteries feeding blood to the heart
