THE MURRAY CASE. GRAVENHURST HAS A GENUINE SENSATION.

THE STRANGE STORY OF A BRAKEMAN—GIVEN UP FOR LOST—THE TOWNSPEOPLE EXCITED—INTERVIEW WITH THE MAYOR.

(From Our Own Reporter.)

GRAVENHURST, Oct. 20.—The great fire that swept this town into ashes a few years ago did not create more of a sensation than the case of Sam Murray. A short sketch of the affair was given in The Mail on September 23, being copied from the local paper. The following day this letter was received at The Mail office:—

"Dear Sir,—In this morning's Mail there appears a lengthy article purporting to be copied from a Gravenhurst paper, in which one Sam Murray is said to have been snatched from the jaws of death through the wonderful merits of a quack medicine called Dodd's Kidney Pills.

I have been for years a regular reader of The Mail, and often noted your announcements. If you see it in The Mail it is so. I would like to ask does Sam Murray exist in the flesh or is he a myth existing only in the fertile imagination of some patent medicine man who would hesitate at no statement to carry out his designs of gulling the public?

In the interest of truth and science some member of your staff should personally investigate this case, and either prove it true or else stamp it as a fraud and a falsehood.

Yours, etc., M. D.

Such a letter could not go unchallenged, and to prove the truth or falsehood of the story as suggested, a member of The Mail staff was detailed to go to Gravenhurst and find out if such a man as Sam Murray lived there, and to thoroughly investigate his case.

In accordance with these instructions I arrived here this afternoon. The finger of autumn has already touched nature in this great summer resort. The trees are turning many colors and the rocks are looking bleak and uninviting. The wharves are deserted, except for a stray hunter or two with guns going north to chase the unfeeling partridge, for the new game law will not permit deer shooting till November. The saw mills are still running, and the dripping logs are rapidly being chewed up by the circular saws into piles of golden colored lumber. The streets of the town are rather deserted, for it is the off season between the rush of the summer tourists and the hunters and heavy lumbermen who start north into the great pine forests in a few weeks. In order to get a clue to Sam Murray I first found the mayor of the town, Mr. J. J. McNeill. Mr. McNeill is a middle-aged man, with a brown beard and a very pleasant manner. He has an air of business about him, and combines the push and energy of the lumberman with the savoir faire of the man of the world. He has political aspirations, if what they say is true, and a few years from now may see him sitting in some of our halls of legislation.

THE MAYOR OF GRAVENHURST

"Do you know if a man called Sam Murray lives in Gravenhurst?" he was asked.

"Yes, I guess you will find Sam Murray up there painting the Town hall. Murray is the man everybody is talking about, so I guess he's the man you want."

"Who is this Murray? Do you know anything about him?" Well, Murray has been living here six or seven years with his family. He worked in a mill for a time and then went to work on the Northern Railway. He was rather unfortunate as a brakeman, for he lost a portion of his hand. One night in summer he fell down on the sidewalk here for dead. He revived, and the same thing happened several times. Then he was laid up and we all thought he was going to die. We expected him to die every minute. One night I remember Mr. James Anderson and I called to see how he was getting along. The doctor was in at the time, and as we stood at his bedside the doctor said that "Sam was done up," and there was not much prospect of his ever recovering, that it was only a question of a few weeks at most."

"Did the doctor say what was the matter with him?"

"He called it some strange name, and when he said Sam's prospects were so slim, we rather felt sorry for his family. The general opinion was that he would only live a short time, as his case was considered incurable."

"Do you know what cured him?"

"Some kind of pills I believe. All I know is that he is all right again, working at the town hall, painting it. You had better go and see himself. Anybody in town will tell you about his case."

SAM MURRAY'S STORY.

Sam Murray was found busy painting at the town hall. He is a young man about twenty-eight or twenty-nine years of age, with bright blue eyes, brown hair and over the middle height. He is apparently in the best of health and spirits and does not look at all like a man who only a few short months ago was covered with sores, his limbs paralyzed, and his case given up as hopeless. He is as active and his skin and eyes as clear as those of an athlete in training.

He was shown the extract from The Gravenhurst banner published in The Mail and was asked if he was the man referred to. He said:—"Yes, I am the Sam Murray referred to, but I don't like to have my name put in the paper. I would like for the benefit of the public to tell how I was cured, but people will think that I am only anxious to get my name in the paper. You know how some people view these things."

"But we want to know all about this case. Your name has already been published, and some people are unkind enough to hint that your case is not genuine, and that no such man as Sam Murray exists."

"Well, if they do they say what is not true," said Sam, his blue eyes kindling savagely. "I have the documents to prove everything I say. The doctors gave me up. Everybody gave me up for dead. Now, I do not look like a dead man, do I? Ask anybody in Gravenhurst or any of the trainmen on the Northern railway system if they know me, and they will all vouch for what I say."

"Well, the public would like to hear your story right from your own lips."

"I'll tell you then, and you can publish it if you wish. About six years ago I came to Gravenhurst. My brother and I worked in a mill for some time. Then Mr. Torrey, the local manager of the Grand Trunk, got me a job as brakeman. After working at that for some time my fingers were caught while coupling cars and I lost three fingers (holding up a hand from which three fingers were missing). This was on Sept. 17, 1890. When I got this hand crushed gangrene set in and the flesh began to mortify. I went to the Toronto General Hospital and the doctors there took me before some two hundred students and lectured to them about my hand. They used a lot of big words and told me to come back in a week or so and then the line of "demarcation" between the dead and living flesh of my hand would be better defined. I did not go back but had the fingers taken off, but it took the hand five months to heal. Some of the poison must have got into my system, as I never felt as well after that. I felt miserable. I was braving for some time on the Montreal mail and then went on the Muskoka mixed, and later on I was changed to the train that runs between Gravenhurst and North Bay. I lost flesh, and so thought I was going into consumption. I went down from about 200 to 140 pounds. My back troubled me and I had a strange feeling about the small of the back and between my shoulder blades. I often felt a strange feeling of dizziness in my head. On the evening of June 19th last year I was walking down street with a lady after getting back from a run to North Bay. I did not feel very well that day. All of a sudden I fell as if I had been shot. I was carried into Dr. Cornell's. I had no power of my lower limbs. The doctor said that I was suffering from paralysis. He told me to take great care of myself. A few days later while rowing on the lake I took another spell. This time it was my arms that gave out. They took me ashore and I revived some. After that the spells came on with greater frequency. My back was constantly bothering me, and I seemed to lose the power of my limbs. My body began to come out in sores, pimples and boils. The doctors said my blood was diseased, and that I was as good as a dead man. For months I could not lay on my back or sides; I had to lay on my face. My limbs were so swollen that I did not wear boots for nearly two years. I belonged to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and to the insurance branch of the Grand Trunk Railway, and received sick benefits. The Grand Trunk had a number of doctors to look into my case. I was sent to Toronto a number of times at the expense of the Grand Trunk to consult specialists. A last four doctors gave sworn certificates that I could never recover so as to work on a train again. The Grand Trunk Railway paid me half my life insurance on account of total disability. One day a little book was thrown into my door. My wife picked it up and read it to me. The book was "Kidney Talk" and it said that diseased kidneys were the cause of a great many diseases that were ascribed to the liver and other organs. Diseased kidneys poisoned the blood, and the blood poisons the remainder of the system. As my back had been troubling me for a long time, it struck me that my kidneys must be affected. I had tried doctors' medicines and all the patent medicines in the market, but got no relief. It dawned on me that the pain and sore feeling in my back told of diseased kidneys, also that it was the poison from the kidneys in my blood that caused the eruptions on my body and poisoning my brain and nerves gave me the fainting and paralytic spells. The book said the kidneys were the sewers that cleaned the blood of impurities thrown off from the system. I thought I would try the pills called Dodd's Kidney Pills anyway, to see if my kidneys were affected, and in this way my constitution was being undermined. We got a box of the pills from Dr. Cornell's drug store, and I had only taken a few of them when I began to feel better. When I had taken about a dozen boxes I felt as well as I ever did. People were so surprised to see me on my pins again that they would hardly believe it. The newspapers here got a hold of my story and they published it as a marvellous cure. It is. If I had not taken these pills I would have been in my grave long before this. I am now hundreds of people are dying every year of disease brought on by diseased kidneys.

"But, Mr. Murray, this is your story. Have you any proof beyond this? Have you these doctors' certificates?"

"Yes, at my house. You can see Mr. Torrey, the station master here. He paid my disability claim for the Grand Trunk. Come down to my house and I will show you the certificates."

Upon arriving at Murray's house he got the doctor's certificates. One is from a prominent physician who is a member of parliament. It said that Murray's blood was poisoned, and that he would never recover. I said that I received my total disability claim from the Grand Trunk Railway. I am also a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. The supreme authorities are now considering my case. They have sworn certificates from the doctors to say that I will never recover. I have, however, sent the following letter to the Grand Secretary of the Brotherhood at Galesburg, Ill. Here it is:—

A copy of the letter was produced, and it read as follows:—

To the Grand Secretary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Galesburg, Ill.

"Where did you get these pills you speak of?"

"I got them from Dr. Cornell's drug store. They are called Dodd's Kidney Pills and they are worth their weight in gold. They are made in Toronto. Let me see, I'll give you the address. It is a little book out of my pocket. 'This book is Kidney Talk. I always carry a couple of copies to give to my friends. This little book saved my life and I prize it next to my Bible. Everybody should read this book. The medicine is made by Dr. L. A. Smith & Co., Toronto. You should call and see some of the people that make the pills and tell them about my case. I have recommended the pills to my friends and those who have tried them tell me they give good results. But you had better see Dr. Cornell, Mr. Torrey, and some other people in Gravenhurst. Don't take my word for it. Time will not permit this to be done for this issue so they will be interviewed to-morrow."

Physicians and Nerves BOTH FAILED! NERVOUS PROSTRATION Of Years' Standing CURED BY SKODA'S!

GENTS—Your President, Dr. G. C. Kilgore, will recall the fact that last June when in the City Drug Store in your City, I told him that on account of extreme NERVOUSNESS I had been unable to attend to business for several months, and that I was utterly failed in my case. At that time I was troubled with NERVOUSNESS so badly that I could not sleep an hour or so nights. I would have a crawling or creeping sensation in my limbs, that was more considerable than any pain. My head felt as if it were being crushed. I tried to think upon any subject for ten minutes, and I could not do so. I tried to read, but I could not do so. I tried to write, but I could not do so. I tried to talk, but I could not do so. I tried to eat, but I could not do so. I tried to sleep, but I could not do so. I tried to work, but I could not do so. I tried to live, but I could not do so.
