Intercollegiate Basketball

ST. Dunstan's Varsity Basketball squad will be seeking its third win in seven starts this season when Mount Allison comes visiting this afternoon at the local college gym.

Last weekend in Sackville, the Red and Whiters under Ed Hilton, managed to squeeze out a close decision over the Mount Allison students. Ed and his boys figure they can repeat the medicine this afternoon when they play the role of hosts.

Saints' other triumph came over St. Thomas College of Chatham. Their setbacks were suffered at the hands of University of New Brunswick, St. Francis Xavier University, Acadia University and St. Mary's University. However, Saints have improved greatly since several of these losses came about and coach Hilton feels his squad right now will cause any of the opposition plenty of trouble.

THERE'S no doubt about it, the team isn't as strong as a year ago when it scored the daylights out of St. FX before losing the Maritime crown. The two top scorers of last year, Len Sirois and John Heine, are not with the squad this season and what has made the going so much tougher. Despite the fact that the team lacks height, they are optimistic and are working hard at their task.

Members of the squad include Don DesRoches of football fame. It was Don who won The Evening Patriot plaque as the most valuable player to his squad throughout the football season. DesRoches is a good strong rebounder with a good jump shot. Last season he averaged 7 points per game. He's 6' 2" and weighs 200 lbs.

Other footballers on the team are Fred Ripley who starred at quarterback, Frank Garrity and Walter Buotte. Ripley is a 6' 170 lb. freshman. Garrity is a junior student who has outstanding defensive ability and Buotte is the smallest but fastest man on the squad.

The Rest Of The Boys

OTHER members of the Red and White hoopsters are Gene McLaughlin considered the outstanding rookie, Dan Eaton, a possible replacement for one of the 'big men', Martin Corcoran, biggest man on the squad, Phil Mullaly, a JV graduate and improving each time out, Pete Grant, Harry Callaghan, Larry Farrell, Joe Sassi and Robert Francour.

The last two named, Sassi and Francour, are Hilton's key men. Sassi is captain and should enjoy his best year. He is in great condition and improved each game.

Francour is the fellow who turned into the top scorer toward the end of last season. Hilton expects Bob will kep it up this basketball season.

So there you have a bit of a sketch of the boys who will entertain Mount Allison hoopsters here this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Take in the game.

NHL Activity

THE National Hockey League race has become even tighter and Montreal Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs now trail the league-leading Chicago Black Hawks by a mere two points. It could happen that Hawks find themselves in third place by Monday. No don't get excited you Chicago fans, we are merely stating that the possibility is there. It's not likely to happen.

Tonight Toronto Maple Leafs will be favorites to grab two more points when they entertain the Boston Bruins. The Montrealers had an easy time Thursday in Boston so the odds favor them beating Boston tonight. In Montreal the Habs host New York Rangers and here again the home team should definitely emerge the victor. The front-running Hawks are at Detroit and we figure the Wings are ready to throw the Pilous crew for a loss.

Sunday Leafs go into New York and their chances should be excellent to make it a perfect weekend. Canadiens visit Chicago and we're expecting the Habs to throw the Wirdy City crew for a loss. Detroit is at Boston and the Bruins should be ready for another Sunday night triumph.

It promises to be one of the most interesting weekends yet this season in the loop headed by lawyer Clarence Campbell.

Check with you the first of the week.

Eagles Host Rovals' Club

Sandy's Royals and RCAF Eagles will be going at each other Sunday afternoon in an Island Intermediate 'A' League contest at the air base rink.

These Royals - Eagles battle at the airport are always crowd pleasing affairs and Sunday's action promises to be a repetition of past performances.

Royals are out to widen their first place lead and Eagles want to creep closer the second place Prince County Combines.

Action goes at 3 o'clock sharp.

THESE curlers from Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown were among favorites to cop the Island Schoolboy curling championship and go to Guelph, Ont., for the Dominion finals next month. The Welshmen beat Montague and Summerside in their games yesterday. Left to right: Mark MacPherson, first stone, Rundell Seaman, second stone, Barry Willis, mate and Wayne Matheson, skip.

City Collegians Unbeaten; Favorites To Cop Crown

Prince of Wales College curlers have a stranglehold on the schoolboy curling championship of Prince Edward Island.

The Welshmen grabbed victories in both matches yesterday, downing Montague 16-7 in the morning and tripping Summerside 10-6 in the afternoon. In the other contest, Summerside edged Montague 11-9 to earn a 1-1 summary in the first day of the double round robin championship play.

The capital city collegians could end the affair in their first contest this morning with Summerside. Should the Welshmen come through with a triumph, it would give them three victories in as many starts. No other club in that case could match them.

Welshmen, coached by Bob LeClair, had a rather easy time of it in the morning match as they coasted to their lopsided 16-7 verdict. The Montague lads opening the affair with a big three ender but after that the collegians dominated the proceedings.

Skip Wayne Matheson found the going tougher against his former mates from Summerside. It was a 3-3 battle until Charlottetown broke it open with three in the fifth. Summerside managed single in the sixth, seventh and tenth but another big three for Charlottetown in the eighth sewed matters up for the Weymouth Street students.

Summerside survived a huge six ender by Montague in the nightcap. The westerners were enjoying a 6-2 lead when Roger Clair's Montague rink roared through with the six in the seventh end. However young Bob Keizer steadied his foursome and they rallied from behind to score a handsome four on the very next end. After that there was no catching the boys from Prince County.

Montague is idle this morning when Summerside lads try to stop the march of the Welshmen. This afternoon at 2.30 it's Montague vs Charlottetown and the championship concludes tonight with Summerside and Montague fighting it out.

This evening the annual dinner will be held at Charlottetown Club at 5.30.

DRESS ONLY SEVEN MEN

Gillis Scores Five Goals As Royals Cop 7-2 Win

SUMMERSIDE — Like the famous "Silver Seven" of Ottawa in the olden days, the Parkdale Royals dressed only seven men at Civic Stadium last night and soundly trounced the Prince County Combines by the score of 7-2.

With only one player taking a breather at a time, the Royals outmanoeuvred the home boys throughout the contest and did not slow up noticeably at any point. The Combines' passing was particularly bad, but they fought hard and were simply out-classed. Allan "Smelt" Gillis went on a scoring rampage firing five of the seven goals chalked up by the Royals.

The Parkdale crew scored the only two goals of the first period. The first one came after some "heads-up" passing by the McLeod-Whitlock-Gillis, trio, the last named finishing off the play. Gillis notched his second as he and Jim McLeod swooped in on Mann with no Combines in sight over the blue-line.

The first ten minutes of the second period was scoreless, with the Combines showing more hustle and having a margin on territorial play. They failed to solve the stout Royal Defence, however, and at 11.44 Gillis made it 3-0 carrying the puck from the blue-line to beat Mann with a rising shot. Vance Harris took a long forward pass over the red-line to give the Combines their first tally, but two minutes later Gillis was back again for his fourth tally. Whitlock and Angie Carroll helping out in the preliminaries.

Jim McLeod, set up by Angie Carroll, shot from directly in front of the cage to make the score 5-1 for Royals after 5 minutes of play in the third period. Gillis, after some smooth passing with the Carroll brothers found the mesh behind Mann for the fifth time 30 seconds later, and one minute after this goal, Ulric Gallant belted one past Ward from a scramble. Dick Carroll ended the night's scoring at 9.48 being beautifully set up by Whitlock.

Garth Harris received the only misconduct of the game. Referee Coyle gave Dick Carroll a double minor after a clash with Harris, and at the time only a single minor to Garth. He skated back later however to announce that Harris's was also a double minor, and remarks made by Garth at this time added a 10-minute misconduct, retro-active from the original minor penalties, the ref said.

Goaler Ward got a slashing penalty in the second period.

Referees Whelan and Coyle handed out 13 minors, the Royals getting 7. 368 paid admission to the game.

Souris Seeks Curling Club

SOURIS — A meeting was held at the Souris Legion Home Thursday night to promote the idea about erection and formation of the Curling Club in the town.

Despite the weather conditions about 40 people turned out for the meet and gave 100 per cent approval to the idea.

A finance committee was formed to find ways and means to raise the necessary funds to build the rink. Members of the committee are Bruce Stewart, Milton Fitzpatrick and Melvin McQuaid.

Four people from Montague, including H. M. Smith, president of the Montague club attended the meet. Mr. Smith gave a detailed report on the operation of the Montague Club and expressed his confidence that erection of a club in Souris would be feasible.

The idea was that the proposed structure would cost in the vicinity of $25,000 and a meeting was called for early next month when the finance committee will report their findings. It was decided that if the money could be raised the rink would be built and ready for this fall.

Engineers Visit Saints On Sunday

Saint Dunstan's Varsity hockey team does the entertaining in intercollegiate play this Sunday afternoon and playing the part as guests will be Nova Scotia Technical College.

Saints have done great in their five games to date. They own decisions over St. Mary's and Mount Allison squads and played the Mounties to a 5-5 tie at Allison Gardens last Wednesday night. The losses came at Antigonish, 7-5 to the Xaverians and at Charlottetown to the University of New Brunswick, 4-3.

Jack Kane, the freshman coach of the Red and Whiters, has done a remarkable job with his outfit and they are confident they can outlast the Tech boys Sunday afternoon and garner their third triumph.

George Trainor, outstanding St. Dunstan's athlete in the past several years at St. Dunstan's, will be performing against his former mates Sunday. George is one of the Tech's bruising defencemen and Saints will take no liberties with the same Mr. Trainor.

Coach Kane reports all his club is ready and anxious to do battle with the Nova Scotians and Jack figures his lads can grab a decision in this one.

Action commences at 2 o'clock sharp.

Bronco Horvath's Arrival Halts Leafs' Line Juggling

By BILL MacDOUGALL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

A week ago tonight, manager-coach Punch Imlach was confusing the opposition, the fans and maybe even his own Toronto Maple Leafs with a juggling game that left the goaltender alone sure of the position he'd play next.

Then Bronco Horvath arrived, Leafs started winning and the line-juggling stopped.

The three events are all related.

Horvath, a veteran centre who has seen ice time with every National Hockey League club except Detroit Red Wings, joined Leafs last Sunday in Detroit and took a regular job that night against the Wings.

His presence was felt. He assisted on the tying goal by Eddie Shack in a 2-2 draw.

By Wednesday night, the Toronto lines were as stable as Imlach lets them become and Horvath was flying. He picked up three assists in Toronto's 5-1 victory over Montreal Canadiens.

PREDICTS IMPROVEMENT

And, said Horvath after the game, "once we get to know each other better our performance will improve."

By "we" he meant newly-found linemates Shack and Bob Pulford, who before Horvath's arrival were playing on separate threesomes. Now they constitute Leafs' third line, replacing the combination of centre Billy Harris and wingers Ron Stewart and Pulford.

The result is an aggressive, tough-checking and fast combination. The flair is provided by Shack's colorful dashing to and fro.

Both Harris, who has been benched, and Stewart, who has injuries to his wrists, will have a tough time regaining permanent jobs.

Despite Imlach's experimenting—it happens every so often during the season—to overcome a two-game losing streak that ended with last Sunday's tie, Toronto's other two lines have emerged almost intact. Dave Keon remains as centre for Dick Duff and George Armstrong. Red Kelly takes the faceoffs for Frank Mahovlich and Bob Nevin, who has taken back his old job from Shack after recovering from a knee injury.

Horvath, who will be 33 March 12, has an added spur to keep hot. If he doesn't make it with Leafs, there's a spot in the minors awaiting him. He figures he'll make the grade.

"I've never felt better. There's nothing wrong with my style. I still operate on that hinge in front of a net and with any breaks they'll go in."

Up to last weekend they hadn't been going in often enough to suit New York Rangers, who put him on waivers, and that's how Leafs acquired him.

Prior to that, he had been owned by every other NHL team. Detroit was the only one to relegate him completely to the minors, although Montreal used him for only one game.

Horvath has seven goals and 19 assists this season, far off the pace he set in his prime as the pivot on Boston Bruins' famed Uke line. His best season was 1959-60 when he had 39 goals and 41 assists for 86 points, one point behind Bobby Hull of Chicago Black Hawks for the league scoring championship.

Ironically, in his three games with Leafs, only the Bruins have stopped him from getting any points. That was Thursday night when Toronto beat Boston 6-3.

He gets another crack at his old teammates tonight when the Bruins visit Toronto. Sunday night his opponents will be his most recent buddies, the Rangers.

Bucky Harris Joins Washington Senators

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bucky Harris, Washington's "boy wonder" manager when he led the old Senators to their only world series championship, returned Friday to help lift the new Senators out of 10th place.

General Manager George Selkirk said the 66-year-old Harris would be one of his top aides, handling special assignments and evaluating players at the major league level.

Harris, a youthful second-baseman when he was named manager in 1924 by the late Clark Griffith, responded by winning a pennant in his first year and whipping the New York Giants of John McGraw in the World Series.

The Harris-led Senators won the American League pennant again in 1925, but lost out to Pittsburgh in the World Series.

WON TITLE

Harris also won a world series title in 1947 as manager of New York Yankees.

He was a player for 15 years and a major league manager for 29 years. He managed Washington 18 years over three spans, bossed Detroit for seven years and the Yankees four years and spent one year each as manager of the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Phillies.

Harris was general manager of the Red Sox in 1959 and 1960 and has performed special assignment duties for Chicago White Sox the last two years.
