

The Governor General.

From the Halifax Chronicle.

After presentation of the civic address to Lord Lorne on the 4th inst, at the City Hall, Ottawa, by the Mayor and corporation, His Excellency replied; He thanked the citizens of Ottawa most heartily and most sincerely for their kindness in inviting him here for the purpose they had on the eve of his departure, which would only be for a short time. He would convey to Her Majesty the Queen, who took a most lively and unceasing interest in everything touching the interests of Canada, the kind wishes expressed by its people. He would also have much pleasure in conveying to England the kind wishes expressed for the Princess Louise, who had been disappointed twice about returning to Canada, being obliged each time to put off her journey as she was on the eve of departure. She was not told that she could not return until spring. He hoped to be back shortly to assist in the task of making the capital of the Dominion a social and intellectual centre of the country during many months of the year. He wished to see here the leading political men whose duties brought them to the capital, but he also wished to see men of science in other branches of life, and also during the season, the beauty of the day. Not only did they wish this for their own sake, but because it had a national value, as it tended to make people from different parts of the Dominion better acquainted with each other, thereby promoting the interests of the Dominion at large. He was, in a sense, one of the original inhabitants of Ottawa—that is, he remembered it some 17 years ago, when Sparks streets only existed in name and when the people were talking about Confederation. It was a marvel to him with what great rapidity that Confederation has been perfected during the seventeen years. We had now a country thoroughly constructed and with advantages over the older countries in one respect—that is, that we have not to consider what we have to pull down but only what we have to construct. He said that we would be the freest people in all God's free earth. In touching points connected with the social life of the country, he referred to the success which had attended the Royal Canadian Academy of Art, an institution which gathered together all the artists of the country, and he hoped next year to see another institution of a somewhat similar nature, which would combine together the men of literature of the various Provinces, and which would be to Canada what the French Institute was to France and the British Institute was to Great Britain.

He again begged leave to thank the citizens of Ottawa for their address. He said that as he did not expect to be back until about two weeks after the New Year, he would now take this opportunity to wish them a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasoning prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, etc. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent, and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.

AN ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION, 54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 18, 1879
REPORT ON THE LODGE HIGHLAND WHISKY:
"We have visited the bottling stores of Greenless Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lodge Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
