with himself. Yes, sir, he was rather pleased with himself.

Then, from far behind him, came a familiar sound. Reddy stopped abruptly and cocked his sharp black ears. Could it be? Yes, it was. It was the voice of Bowser, and Reddy knew that "bowser had found his trail, and the game wasn't over after all.

Reddy sighed. Then he grinned. "I knew Bowser was smart, but he is smarter than I thought he was. Now I've really got to fool him. It is getting too warm for comfort, though," Reddy said.

Meanwhile, Bowser was chuckling. He felt very good. It always makes one feel good to find he is right.

IRISHTOWN W. I.

The July meeting of the Irish-Town Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Archie Paynter. The meeting opened with the president in the chair, and the "Ode" and "Creed" repeated in unison. 24 members answered the roll call with a joke and a prize for the best joke went to Mrs. Clayton Stayer. Two visitors were present.

Minutes of previous meeting were read, approved and signed, and the June committee reported $8.00 cleared from Lad and Lassie Pipe Band. Several cases of cans were sold.

Mrs. Ellis Profit gave an account of the executive meeting held at her home and "Traffic Safety Week" pamphlets were distributed to members. Upon motion bills were accepted and paid; these amounted to $5.00.

Sick committee reported two treats taken to sick members, and Mrs. John E. MacLeod and Mrs. Cecil Campbell thanked members for treats. The new sick committee appointed was Mrs. James Simmons, Mrs. W.L. Campbell and Mrs. Halsey Profit. There was no school or Red Cross report.

Plans were discussed for a lawn party and band concert at the home of Lt. Col. E. W. Johnstone, and it was also decided to make candy for the evening of Film Board films at the hall. Collection was taken and amounted to $1.95.

The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Thomas Campbell. Meeting closed with "The Queen" and the program committee entertained. Lunch was served by the hostesses in charge.

ALEXANDRA W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Alexandra W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Wood for the month of July. The meeting opened by repeating "Creed" in unison followed by the roll call with 15 members responding. Minutes of the previous meeting were read, approved and signed.

Mrs. Sherran reported the play was not available at the present date. $15.00 was passed in as a contribution towards the Salvation Army fund by members of the district. The sick committee reported six sick calls made, and treats taken.

Verbal thanks were extended at this time, also a written vote of thanks for same. Mrs. John McMillan and Mrs. Clifford Sherran were appointed as delegates to the annual convention. Highway traffic rules were received and distributed to the members. The treasurer gave her usual monthly report and those present were pleased to welcome as new members to the Institute, Mrs. Vernon MacLennan and Mrs. William Cousins.

It was moved and seconded to hold an ice cream social in July and plans were made for same.

Mrs. John MacMillan kindly invited the members to her home for the August meeting with roll call to be answered with "The most desirable characteristic in my husband". Lunch committee will be Mrs. Nathaniel MacKinnon, Mrs. Ernest MacCabe and Mrs. Wallace Brehaut. Collection was $1.15.

Meeting adjourned after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge and a pleasant social hour enjoyed by all.
