Dr. Curtis of Charlottetown and Miss Smith, Public Health Nurse of Alberton, visited Alma School on Monday and vaccinated thirty children. They also visited Lauretta School the same day.

The farmers around here are almost all finished with the threshing and now potato digging is in full swing. The Green Mountains are reported a poor crop owing to blight and a lot of rot. Sebagoes are good and Katadins only fair.

The many friends of Mrs. William Gaudet are glad to know that she is much improved in health and able to leave the Western Hospital. She will spend some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John P. Wallace, before going to her own home in Pleasant View.

Mr. George Murray motored to his home from Streetsville, Ontario, accompanied by Mr. Marcel Gallant and Mr. Bob Brennan. Unfortunately they were the victims of an accident in Northern New Brunswick when their car was struck by a truck, sending George through the windshield, cutting his face and severing an artery. The other occupants were not hurt but Mr. Gallant's car was damaged somewhat.

Congratulations are extended to the Montrose-Alma Calf Club on their fine showing at the Central Calf Club, Charlottetown. They won first place with their Holsteins. Miss Martha Dunbar came first in the year's work. Besides having the best calf she came first in showmanship. Weldon Rennie came second. Mr. R. A. Profit of Freetown was the judge.
