THE railway crossing at the east end of Grafton Street is disgraceful It is impossible for a team to pass it without incurring serious injury. It is the chief landing place for teams from all parts of the East River. We, therefore, hope the authorities will attend to it immediately, and making crossing easy.

THE brigantine "Erin," of Charlottetown, recently purchased by Black Bros. & Co., was chartered to load here with sleepers for the Newfoundland Railway, and after having shipped a crew has been obliged to abandon the voyage on account of ice off the Newfoundland coast. She is now discharging the sleepers at Richmond and will probably load for the West India Market.—Halifax. Herald.

CITIZENS of the lower part of the town complain because the street drains in the upper part of the town are opened out by the Corporation, while those in front of their residences are not. They are thus, they say, compelled to open the drains themselves, or let the water from the drains above flow into their cellars and houses. For the Corporation to keep men employed in shovelling away the snow and opening the drains on the upper part of Grafton Street (near the store of the Chairman of the Street Committee) while they do nothing towards letting the water flow past the corner of Grafton and Hillsborough streets is—to use a mild term—ridiculously unfair.

THE tournament, which was to take place in Citizens' Skating Rink to night, has been postponed until Saturday next the 12th instant. The postponement is necessitated because of a depredation committed in the Rink last night. Some vandal entered the building through a window during the night, pulled the plug from the tank and flooded the Rink with water three inches deep, thus leaving it impossible for contestants to skate. The Directors of the Rink are endeavoring to find out the person who committed the depredation. They have offered $20 reward for information which will lead to conviction of him. We hope they will succeed.
