Miscellaneous Shower At Valleyfield

A jolly evening was spent at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Fraser, the manse, Valleyfield this week when about fifty friends from various sections of the congregation gathered for a miscellaneous shower for the newlyweds, Lloyd and Irene Fraser.

W.A. MacLeod acted as chairman and called the group to order. Then the bride was escorted to the seat of honor by Olive Finlayson, and the groom by Lawrence Van-Buskirk. A basket prettily decorated by Mrs. Angus Martin, and piled high with gifts was carried in by Florence Murray, Dot MacKenzie and Margaret MacLeod. Mrs. C. Rogers and Olive Finlayson unwrapped the gifts. Verses were read by Jean MacKenzie and gifts arranged by Blanche MacPhee.

The bride and groom, although taken by surprise, expressed their sincere appreciation of the kind thoughts of their friends and their generous gifts. All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows", which was followed by instrumental music supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacPherson, while lunch was served by a committee.

Rev. Mr. Fraser in well chosen words expressed his appreciation to the friends who had gathered in such a way to show their good will towards the "young couple". All joined hands and sang in closing, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."
