

Local and Other Items.

FOOTBALL.—On account of the regatta there will be no football on the Park to-morrow.

KING'S COUNTY EXHIBITION TO-MORROW.—A special train leaves Charlottetown at 8 a. m., standard time.

CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.—Mr. Heard's residence, and A. White & Sons' Foundry are now numbered on the Telephone Exchange.

BOSTON STEAMER.—The steamer Carroll arrived this morning. Mr. John Masservey and wife were among the passengers.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—A meeting of the Baptist congregation in the city will be held in Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening at half-past seven o'clock.

WARSHIPS.—There are now three warships on their way to Halifax, namely, the Ready and Wrangler from the West Indies, and the Pylades from Quebec.

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. 4m—m14

STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—This forenoon, Thomas Fennessy, caught in Mrs. H. Palmer's orchard, was fined $10; Thomas Cavanagh, drunk, $2 or 8 days; John Hughes, drunk and fighting on Queen Street, was fined $8 or 20 days.

CORNER LOAFING.—The criminality of allowing groups of young men and mere boys to loiter at various corners is becoming painfully evident. No doubt the youthful burglars who at present are plying their evil work, received their education at such resorts, which only beget sloth, drunkenness and wickedness of every kind.

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION NOTES.—Charlottetown exhibitors in the live stock classes are specially requested to enter their exhibits in these classes before Friday next, to avoid the rush on that day by County exhibitors. All live stock entries must be made on or before Friday next, the 28th September, at 6 p. m. See prize list, page 5, rule 8.—A. McNeill, Secretary.

GENIUS AND TALENT.—Genius is a dazzling thing, but it won't plod. Talent is forced to plod or get left, and so with the instinct of self-preservation it generally plods. Genius starts out a petted darling, and ends by dodging the balliffs and dying in the poorhouse, while talent raises a monument in its honor and pays the bill out of its well filled pocket.—Atlanta Constitution.

REGATTA NOTES.—The Vixen, Capt. Dunn, arrived this forenoon to take part in the regatta to-morrow.

Mr. Joy's new shell arrived from Halifax last evening.

Nova Scotians will arrive by boat this evening.

A Canoe Race will be one of the features of the regatta to-morrow.

NEW TIME LOCK.—A time lock, made by Messrs. A. Greenleaf, of Rochester, N. Y., has been placed upon the door of the safe of the Assistant Receiver General in this city by Mr. Thomas West, of J. & J. Taylor. By this lock the door is absolutely closed against everybody for such a period as is arranged by the chronometer attachment, at the discretion of the manager. It is a result of the attempted burglary last spring.

A BOISTEROUS PASSAGE.—The Halifax Chronicle reports: "After a boisterous passage of nearly sixty hours, the steamer Carroll arrived in port last evening from Boston. The weather experienced in the bay on Sunday, was about as bad as it could possibly be. The ship was tossed about considerably, but received no damage. Nearly all the passengers were made very sick."

GATHERED INN.—An Upper Queen Street Scott Act offender, who has for months past evaded the law, was captured this morning. About seven o'clock the whole posse of police surrounded the premises, and after striving to effect an entrance through the upper windows by the aid of ladders, without success, finally introduced "another plank" in their ceremonial and by a deal of ingenuity broke in the front door and found their prey at breakfast. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, the covered buggy, which was in readiness in the rear, was entered, and the transgressor, accompanied by a uniformed officer, was driven to the Hotel de Harvie, which will be his P. O. address for the next two months.

CHRISTENING AND WEDDING.—The South Boston Inquirer of the 15th inst., has the following, which will be interesting to many friends of the two principal figures in the auspicious events described. Both bride and groom have connections of the closest kind with persons in this Province. The groom is a son of Mr. Charles Smallwood, of Charlottetown, and the bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. William Pethick, of Cornwall.—

"A very interesting and impressive occasion was witnessed last Thursday morning at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Ashcroft, No. 18 Tuckerman Street. The nuptial rites of Miss Barbara E. Ashcroft and Dr. George W. Smallwood, of New York, were immediately preceded by the christening of the bride-elect and her cousin, Miss Florence G. Mills."

"Rev. James Salloway, formerly minister of Unity Chapel, and the respected pastor of the family, performed the symbolic service, using water which he took from the fountain and source of the river Jordan, Mr. Salloway having just returned from an extended journey abroad. The family present witnessed with deep emotion the sacredness of the scene of these two young women thus dedicating their lives to holiness."

"In the wedding ceremony, Rev. Mr. Salloway was assisted by Rev. William H. Savary, the present minister of Unity Chapel. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Mills, and beside the groom stood his brother, Mr. Irving C. Smallwood."

"There were numerous presents, flowers, warm congratulations and a wedding breakfast. The rites were in the very room in which the bride was born, but there were none present outside of the immediate families and those officiating."

"Of the bridegroom it is right to say that he went to New York from his home in Prince Edward Island to study his profession; and now, by personal merit he is already in possession of a rising young physician's practice. Dr. Smallwood immediately takes his bride with him to New York."

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Yellow Fever.

St. Jago De Cuba, Sept. 24.

Yellow fever reigns supreme both in the city and at the military hospital outside. A servant of the American Consulate has just been sent to the hospital with it. Of 94 men in the battalion of San Quentin, on duty in Sant Espirtu, 23 have fallen victims to yellow fever; 17 more have been attacked, and three are dangerously ill. Of a detachment of nine men at Parais, a spot noted for its salubrity and good sanitary condition, all were attacked and seven died. The mortality has been terrible in El Pais. In that city, in one day, there were reported 24 deaths. Both natives and foreigners have been swept away. The epidemic has been sweeping the island. Out of a full company of men, all but eight were swept away in this city. The Island of Nassau, knowing the danger, has declared 40 days' quarantine.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 25.

New cases are developing very rapidly. The type of the disease appears milder. The death rate continues low. For the 24 hours ending 6 p. m., there were 143 new cases and four deaths.

Winnipeg News.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 25.

The Hudson Bay Railroad promoters left for St. Paul today. They have apparently given up negotiations with the Manitoba Government for the present.

The Western Lumber Co., of which John McRae is President, has purchased from the Bank of Montreal, the mills and limits of the Rainy Lake Lumber Co., of which Hugh Sutherland was formerly President. The Company has been in financial difficulties for a considerable time past.

The Pitcher Case.

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.

At the Court of Queen's Bench, Chief Justice Dorion to-day gave his decision in the Pitcher case, and ordered that the gold mentioned in the indictment should be returned to the Union Bank of Providence from which it was stolen. In the case of the drafts on London and Paris, the Court decided that they must be recovered in the civil courts. The defence gave notice of applying for a writ of error.

Halifax News.

HALIFAX, Sept. 25.

The Nova Scotia Sugar Refinery to-day paid off the balance of the mortgage held by the Merchants Bank. It has paid off $200,000 debt within two years. The stock is now held at 200.
