

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 31, 1888.

Editorial Notes.

The Legislature of Ontario has voted $100,000 for the construction of cottages for insane persons.

The Montreal Witness thinks the C. P. R. has a prosperous future in store for it.

The Patriot has returned to the subject of Mr. Davies' "personal explanation," making another explanation as follows:

The Patriot, which has not yet recovered from its chagrin on account of the defeat of its party in Belfast, vents its venom on Mr. A. Martin by an ill-natured attack, in a recent issue of that paper.

The Grits thought Mr. Paterson, of Crant, made a splendid point on Friday evening when he referred to a resolution passed at the Dominion Board of Trade meeting at the time the Brown-Fish reciprocity treaty was under discussion.

Dr. Anderson has called attention to the importance of having drawing taught in the public schools.

It is certainly a very great defect in the education provided in our common schools that drawing is not taught.

LEGISLATIVE.—The Provincial Legislature has been adjourned until after Easter.

The Quebec Legislature has been summoned to meet for the despatch of business, on 16th May.

The supplementary estimates were tabled in the Fredericton House of Assembly on the 27th.

The Town of Moncton Debenture bill has been agreed to at Fredericton. This bill empowers the town to borrow, as may be needed, any amount up to $10,000 for their retirement of bonds.

JAILED FOR OBLIGING A FRIEND.—The Bay Pilot says: D. Harrington, a resident of Milltown, is at present in the county jail, committed from St. Stephen, for a violation of the Scott Act.

ASSESSMENT.—The St. John city assessment shows a reduction of $5,000 from last year's figures.

Varia

The "great week" just closing has brought so many duties outside of those which are strictly business ones—yesterday especially being a day on which no secular work was allowable—that it has not been possible for me to examine the English papers and furnish my usual column.

In those dark hours of bitter woe, When depths of Agony Bound one to dust, I bade it flow— My Blood, in streams for thee:

They put on Me a Robe of scorn, Bade thorns My Crown to be; I gladly bore it, could have borne More still for love of thee;

Behold Me lifted up on high, Praying midst all My Woe, With parched Lip and closing Eye, My Father for each foe,

The Gentle's spear hath pierced My Side; Lo! from My Heart within Wa'er and Blood, a priceless Tide, Flow forth to cleanse from sin,

For then I was content to die, To shame and anguish moved; And now, upon My throne on high I love as then I loved;

Amid the triumphs and the joys of Easter one cannot but think of that solitary boy, chained to the floor of his cell, who will be brought out in ten short days only to be strangled.

Speak gently to the erring— Ye know not all the power With which the dark temptation came

Speak kindly of the erring— Oh! do not thou forget However darkly stained by sin

Speak gently to the erring— For is it not enough That innocence and peace are gone,

Speak kindly to the erring— Thou yet mayst lead him back, With holy words and tones of love,

Deal kindly with the erring one As God hath dealt with thee.

The Potato Difficulty.

FARMERS' CLUB ROOM. Margate, March 28, 1888. Whereas, It has been ascertained, in disposing of potatoes by farmers, that many merchants buy by tub measure, while others purchase by weight.

Therefore Resolved, that in the opinion of this Farmers' Club, the latter (purchasing by weight) is more satisfactory to buyer and seller.

Further Resolved, That we demand of the purchasers sixty pounds to the bushel, the complement required by law.

Wm. Browns, Secretary Farmers' Club.

A Correction.

SIR,—A party signing himself "Tourist," in your issue of yesterday, states that R. M. H. Salve is on sale at all the leading emporiums of business between Summerside and Alberton.

ADVISE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth.

ALBERTON, March 27, 1888.

Easter Carol.

We laid him down with sighs and tears, We had no words to tell our fears; In grief and darkness went our way To come again at break of day.

Our eyes, our hearts were weeping sore, We watched till we could watch no more; But angels watched for us all night To see Him rise ere morning light.

Go now and tell His brethren dear, The Lord is risen! He is not here! Our hearts o'erflowing with holy mirth, We go to tell to all the earth!

Sheriff's Sale. EDWARD JARVIS HODGSON, surviving Executor of the last will and testament of DANIEL HODGSON, Plaintiff, and LAWRENCE WHELAN, Defendant.

BY virtue of a Writ of Statute Execution to me directed, issued out of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at the suit of the said Edward Jarvis Hodgson, surviving Executor of the last will and testament of Daniel Hodgson, against the said Lawrence Whelan, I have taken and seized the property of the above-named Defendant, Lawrence Whelan, the following property, namely: All that tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 31, in Queen's County, in the Parish of St. John's, bounded and described as follows, that is to say: Commencing at the north-west angle of Plot No. 237, on the west side of a road leading to St. John's; thence west seventy-three chains, or until it meets the east boundary of a tract of land now or lately in possession of John Auld; thence north eighty chains, or until it meets the east boundary of a tract of land now or lately in possession of John Auld; thence following the course thereof south twenty chains to the place of commencement, containing one hundred and forty-six acres of land, a little more or less, being thus described in a certain Indenture of Lease, made the 10th day of November, 1849, between Sir Graham G. Montgomery, of the one part, and Neil McGinnis, of the other part.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 31 aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, that is to say, having a front of ten chains on the west side of the Preston Road, and running back west by parallel lines, bounded on the south by Hugh Connors' farm, on the north partly by John Auld's farm and partly by vacant land, and on the west partly by John Landers' farm and John Auld's farm, containing seventy-four (74) acres, a little more or less, being thus described in an Indenture of Lease, dated the 14th day of December, A. D. 1841, and made between Sir Graham G. Montgomery, of the one part, and John Ware, of the other part, the two tracts of land containing two hundred and twenty acres, a little more or less.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 4 aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, that is to say, by a line commencing on the west side of the Covehead Road, at a point ten chains south from the north boundary of a tract of one hundred and twenty-one and three-quarter acres of land, conveyed by the Commissioner of Public Lands to William Brown; it runs thence west fifty-eight chains and sixty links, or a tract of seven and three-quarter acres assigned by said Lawrence Whelan to William Brown aforesaid; thence south three chains and twelve links; thence east to the road; thence north along the road to the place of commencement, containing eighteen acres and one rod of land, a little more or less.

Also—All that other tract, piece and parcel of land, situate, lying and being on Lot 31 aforesaid, being thirty acres of land, more or less, part of a block of eighty-two acres of land devised by John Auld, deceased, to his son, Edward Auld, bounded on the south by land now or lately in the occupation of Michael Landagan's north division line, and running north by parallel lines to the lands now or lately in the possession of Benjamin Hughes; bounded on the west by lands now or lately in the possession of Richard Potts, and also by lands in the possession of the said Lawrence Whelan, and running east by parallel lines to the lands now or lately in possession of Edward Auld, a sufficient distance to include an area of thirty acres, as the same hath been for some time possessed by the said Lawrence Whelan, in Queen's County.

And I do hereby give Public Notice that I will, on WEDNESDAY, the twelfth day of September, A. D. 1888, at twelve o'clock, noon, at the Court House in Charlottetown, in the said County, set up and sell by Public Auction, all the above described properties, or as much thereof as will satisfy the levy made on the said Writ, being the sum of Three Hundred and Thirty Dollars and Eighteen Cents, with interest on Two Hundred and Fifty-nine Dollars and Fifty-five Cents, at seven and one-half per cent. from the eighth day of February, 1888, until paid, besides Sheriff's fees and all incidental expenses.

JAMES CURTIS, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Queen's County, March 27th, A. D. 1888. E. J. HODGSON, Plaintiff in person. mch31—21 law
