

Aussies Suffer Setbacks In Plans For A Clean Sweep

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
CARDIFF (CP) — Judy Grimham, perky 19-year-old public relations officer from London, set a world record in the women's 110-yard backstroke Wednesday night as England put a large-sized crimp in Australia's headlong rush for a clean sweep of British Empire Games Swimming.

The Olympic 100-metre champion's victory climaxed a tremendous evening for England as her girl swimmers placed 1-2-3 in the 220-yard breaststroke and in two of the first three spots in the back.

Victory for Miss Grimham came shortly after 21-year-old Keith Collin, also of England, edged Calgary's Bill Patrick to win the men's springboard diving. Patrick's silver medal was the third for Canada since the swimming and diving started at Empire Pool Saturday night.

The speed-crazy Australians suffered another setback to their all-conquering plans when a 17-year-old Aberdeen schoolboy, Ian Black, broke up their formidable three-man team in the 440-yard freestyle to snatch second place behind Jon Konradts, their 16-year-old Latvian-born boy wonder.

The Aussies confidently expected to take all three places but the curly-haired Scotsman beat out 1700-pound Gary Winram, who finished third. The remaining Australian, defending champion Gary Chapman, had to settle for fifth place behind South Africa's Murray McLachlan.

WIDEN LEAD

England's triumphs in the swimming and other events sent her well out in front in the unofficial point standings—309 to 246 for Australia and 94 for third-place Canada.

Even before the swimming, and with the record-smashing track and field stars taking the day off, statisticians had little chance to straighten out the job the athletes are doing on the record books.

Soon after the events started, How Liang Tan of Singapore set a world lightweight weightlifting record for the jerk and gave his country its second gold medal. He lifted 347 pounds, 5½ more than the previous mark. Jules Sylvain of Quebec City was fourth in the tough competition.

There were Canadian disappointments in boxing, lawn bowling and cycling but her athletes picked up more silver with the runner-up finish of David Baillie of Westmount, Que., who repeated his 1953 games placing in the heavyweight weightlifting. Ken McDonald of England was the victor.

But the swimmers and divers held most of the spotlight.

BREAKS RECORD

Miss Grimham won her great victory in one minute, 11.9 seconds, breaking the unofficial record of 1:12.3 set Tuesday night by England's Margaret Edwards as well as Miss Edwards' listed mark of 1:12.4.

Empire Games swimming marks also fell in the men's 440-yard freestyle and the women's 220-yard breaststroke and the women's 200-yard breaststroke.

Young Konradts slashed nearly 15 seconds off the 440-yard freestyle record with 4:25.9. Terry Gathercole of Australia won the men's 220 breaststroke in 2:41.6, 11 seconds under the games mark. England's Anita Lonsborough set up the women's breaststroke record of 2:53.5.

Patrick, Canadian tower diving champion for the last four years, ended the 10-dive competition with 124.61 points against 128.78 for Collin.

The finish gave Canada her third silver medal in swimming and diving. The other two went to Irene MacDonald of Hamilton in the women's springboard diving and to the women's 440-yard team of Sara Barber, Brantford, Ont., Gladys Priestley, Verdun, Que., and Margaret Iwasaki and Susan Sangster, both of Vancouver.

Among other Canadian competitors in the swimming Wednesday, Bob Wheaton of Victoria qualified for the men's 110-yard breaststroke final and Irene Service of Vancouver finished fourth in the women's 220-yard breaststroke.

REACHES EPEE FINAL

Activity away from the pool saw Carl Schwende of Montreal reach the finals of the men's individual epee but the manager-coach of the Canadian fencers, a member of Tuesday's silver medal-winning epee team, was able to manage only a fifth place in the individual competition.

The last three of the nine boxers Canada sent to Cardiff were awarded bronze medals Wednesday night after being defeated in the semi-finals. The other six dropped out earlier.

Games officials decided to give the third-place medals to middleweight Robert Piau of Windsor Mills, Que., light-middleweight Jimmy Walters of Vancouver and light-welterweight Ray Galante of Hamilton to avoid a box-off for the final placements after each of the three were beaten by South Africans.

In lawn bowling, Vancouver's Alex Houston and George Dewar appeared to have lost their chance of winning a gold medal in the pairs.

They defeated Rhodesia 19:17

but went down 20-16 to a New Zealand team. The loss put them in a five-way tie for third place with three more rounds of the 12-round competition to play.

TWO MORE LOSSES

Jack Linford of Lachine, Que., had two more singles losses and the Edmonton rink of Sterling Shields ended the day still without winning a match.

On the eve of resumption of track and field events, Canadian coach Bob Adams of Saskatoon was pessimistic of his team's chances in the remaining 17 events of the 29-event track and field program.

"Mind you, our boys and girls are giving it everything they're not good enough against the rest of the Commonwealth."

Canadians are entered in most of the remaining field events but Adams, who has been keeping an eye on other competitors, said: "Frankly, I doubt if we will get more than a couple of bronze medals in the field."

"We have made vast improvements since the last Games. The trouble is other countries have made even bigger gains."

Fires Hole-In-One But Loses Match

TORONTO (CP)—Jack Penrose of Miami Beach, Fla., shot a hole in one at the 235-yard 14th Wednesday in the second round of the Canadian Amateur golf championship at Scarborough Golf Course.

Penrose, playing against Bob Shave of Willoughby, Ohio, fired the ace with a No. 3 iron.

Shave eventually won the match, one up.

Manager Fired Another Named As Phillies Stall

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Frank Yetter of the Philadelphia Bulletin sports staff telephoned Bob Carpenter, president of the Phillies Tuesday at about 1 p.m.

"Bob," he said, "when are you going to fire Mayo Smith? Almost everyone else has, so why not you?"

There was a moment of silence at the other end. Then Carpenter talked about other things.

"Milwaukee is in second place, do you think they should fire Fred Haney? From there he travelled conversationally to other things. Finally, Yetter interrupted to comment. "It seems to me that this isn't what we started to talk about."

Carpenter chuckled and said, "You know Frank, when we have any news, we'll see that you get in."

Within an hour, general manager Roy Hamey announced that Smith was fired and Eddie Sawyer rehired as manager of the club.

What Yetter didn't know was

Says Farewell To Motor Racing

MILAN, Italy (Reuters)—Juan Manuel Fangio, five-time world auto racing champion, Wednesday hung up his crash helmet and goggles.

"I have decided to say goodbye to motor racing," he announced. "At a certain age, one must take a definite decision — one cannot continue racing all one's life."

Fangio, 47, had been expected to retire at the end of this season.

POLIO GROUP EXPANDS

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced Tuesday it is expanding its program to attack major health problems of the nation. Until now, the foundation has been concerned with polio.

Paralytic polio has been virtually licked by Salk vaccine. Basil O'Connor, foundation president, said initial research will be in five areas: Polio, virus research, disorders of the nervous system, arthritis and birth defects.

CASHES IN ON CHEAP MARE

Alan Walker sings the praises of his mare, Bonnie Song as he drives the six-year-old to victory in the first heat of the Fort Erie Trot at Woodbine Raceway, Toronto, her fifth straight win.

Walker, from Owen Sound, Ont., bought Bonnie Song for a mere $385 four years ago. She gave him a tidy profit for the first three years and this year has already earned $2,371 with the richest purses yet to come.

Little League In Action Yesterday

In the first little league baseball game yesterday the Yankees defeated the Dodgers 10-7. George Prizzell was credited for the win and Kenny Squarebriggs hurled for the losers. Freddy MacDonald was the leading batter of the day, lashing out 3 singles in 4 times at bat. Garry Cudmore of the Yankees drove in three runs in the last inning to give his team the win. Barry Taylor played good ball for the losers.

The Red Sox downed the Braves 11-5 in the second game of Little League. Jamie Kennedy pitched a 7-hitter to win the game with McQuaid taking the loss. Moffitt was top batter for the winners, scoring three runs, one a four-bagger. Des MacGuigan made an outstanding catch in the fourth inning.

Minor League action saw the White Sox blanking the Cardinals 2-0. Wayne Gallant being the winning pitcher. Kenny Foley took the loss. Gallant also had the longest hit of the game when he poked out a long double in the fourth inning.

The Cubs whupped the Indians 9-0 in Pony League play. George Lee hurled 1-hit ball to credit this win. John Lane hurled for the losers. McCabe was top batter hitting 2 for 3, and scoring two runs. Duke Neilson made two nice catches in the third and fifth innings.

Following is today's schedule for the Minor Leagues:

9:30 Minor League: White Sox vs Redlegs.

9:30 Little League: Braves vs Dodgers; Red Sox vs Tigers.

2:00 Pony League: Cubs vs Indians.
