CAR HITS CANTEEN IN ALBERTON

Two persons were taken to the Western Hospital in Alberton early Sunday morning following an accident in which a 1953 Meteor driven by Wendell Frederick Harper, Tignish, went out of control at the railroad crossing on Church Street, Alberton. The vehicle crashed into a small canteen on the left side of the highway moving it several feet from its foundations. In hospital with minor injuries are Ray Keough and Bruce Phee of Tignish. The car was extensively damaged.

Mrs. Bridget Gaudet, Tignish Dies At Advanced Age Of 101

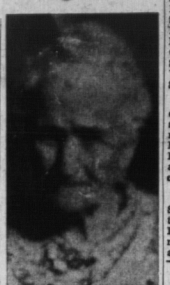
TIGNISH — Mrs. Bridget Gaudet, grand old lady of Tignish, and the oldest citizen of the parish passed away Saturday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Myers with whom she resided for many years at the age of 101.

Mrs. Gaudet who enjoyed good health all of her life and at her advanced age was interested in the affairs of her community, and the world in general was honored on her 101st birthday in October by the parishioners and clergy of St. Simon and St. Jude Church of which she was a devoted and faithful member.

Mrs. Gaudet was born in Palmer Road on Oct. 29, 1860, daughter of Mathias and Marie Arsenault. From her first marriage to Pierre Gaudin were four children, William, Peter, Marie-Aglene and Albina all living in the U.S.A. Her second marriage was to Sylvain Gaudet who predeceased her in 1929. To this marriage was born one daughter, Eva (Mrs. Leo Myers) with whom she resided.

There are also 20 grandchildren, 39 great- grandchildren, and two great- great- grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning at St. Simon and St. Jude Church, Tignish.



MRS. BRIDGET GAUDET

Working Women Claimed Political Parties' Need

By EDNA BLAKELY

ST. ANDREWS, N.B. (CP) — Political parties need more working women in their ranks —but not to make coffee and sandwiches — delegates to the 18th biennial convention of the Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs agreed here.

Nora J. Rowe of Calgary said most women now active in politics were not working women and "therefore perhaps were relegated to the social level."

Delegates attending a seminar on the role of women in government applauded Sylvia Lepine of Saskatoon who said, "I think we should join political parties and refuse to make coffee and sandwiches."

In one group discussion, members said women were reluctant to enter party politics because they can't stand the mud-slinging. Several other groups reached a similar conclusion — that women were more sensitive than men to criticism. One group said women should learn to think like men but Elsie Gregory MacGill of Toronto suggested that men learn to think like women.

AGREED ON STUDY

Every group agreed that women should study the mechanics of government, and that this includes women in the home.

A report given earlier in the convention by Toronto lawyer Margaret Hyndman for the federation's commission on aims and objectives said the commission felt the federation's objectives could not be achieved without using the machinery of politics where legislation was required.

The commission said backing of federation members in provincial and federal politics, irrespective of party, would strengthen the influence of the federation.

Cleopatra Producer Praises Liz Taylor

By GERALD MILLER

ROME (AP) — Producer Walter Wanger looked back over the tumultuous five years that went into the making of the Elizabeth Taylor film Cleopatra and said:

"I'd love to make another picture with her.

"She is the most underrated and most misunderstood woman in the world. She's bright, intelligent, thoughtful and well-read. She has a mind of her own. I have nothing but admiration for Miss Taylor."

Wanger, a veteran of 43 years in the rough and tumble of the film world, spoke as he relaxed in his Rome Hotel Saturday. He still faces 12 more days of desert battle scenes in Egypt, starting next week. But filming in Italy was completed today after 201 days on location. And Miss Taylor's work in the picture is finished. What are her plans now?

"I really don't know," said Wanger. "I don't know that she knows. I don't know that she has any plans."

PREDICTS SUCCESS

Wanger insisted the mammoth film spectacular will be a box office smash.

Delays, huge salaries and production expenses cost 20th Century Fox $30,000,000 in a gamble for financial survival. If the film flops it could mean death for the studio.

"The company needs about $45-50,000,000 to break even," Wanger said. "Personally I think the picture will make $100,000,000. Some people think more."

Wanger acknowledged there had been bad feeling between him and the studio front office, worried about the staggering production costs.

"The directors suddenly cut off my salary June 1," he commented. "I got a copy of a resolution telling me about it. My lawyers are still trying to find out what they can do about it."

Nick Takes Golf Crown

TORONTO (CP) — Nick Weslock, 44-year-old veteran from Toronto's Mississauga Club, won his fifth Ontario amateur golf championship Saturday, defeating Bill Gardner, 20, of Toronto Pine Valley, 7 and 5 in the 18-hole match play final.

Weslock's previous wins were in 1944, 1950, 1958 and 1961.

SOUTH VIET

Viet Nam then was divided into Ho's Communist north and the non-Communist south. A referendum in the south deposed Emperor Bao Dai and made Ngo Dinh Diem chief of state. He proclaimed a republic with himself president. And the Communists began the attempt to engulf the whole country through a patient, relentless guerrilla war.

Today,U.S. military advisers in South Viet Nam number about 8,000.

The Communists' offensive ties up about 170,000 regular South Vietnamese troops and possibly 130,000 irregulars. How many troops the Communist Viet Cong may have is anybody's guess. Numbers do not really count with them in this type of war. It takes dozens of regular troops to flush out one guerrilla.

RECRUIT BY TERROR

U.S. experts say hardcore Viet Cong troops number anywhere up to 30,000. The number may be much greater. Defence Secretary McNamara says it's possible 10,000 Communist North Vietnamese who advised pro-Communist forces in Laos now are with the Viet Cong. The Viet Cong recruits as it goes along, by terror and other methods.

The U.S. state department says that this year the Viet Cong have lost 7,200 dead in fighting, the anti - Communist troops 1,800. The tabulation of enemy dead is subject to question in this kind of war. And casualties do not stop the Viet Cong. It has a growing arsenal of weapons, some captured at bloody cost to the guerrillas in ambushes of South Viet Nam convoys. Some of its arsenal is believed to come from Communist China.

A big question: How effective is the U.S. aid and what are the prospects?

INTERVIEWS OFFICERS

Associated Press correspondent Bem Price recently interviewed a number of officers, from South Viet Nam.

Several painted a picture of a general foulup. They reflected worry and anger at how U.S. special forces—men trained for guerrilla war—have been used.

On the political side, some Americans say privately the Diem government is less than might be desired, but the only available answer.

On the other hand, the Diem government snipes at the United States. It is annoyed at the Laos settlement, feeling that weakened the anti-Communist front in Southeast Asia.

Some Americans on the scene are realizing that in Southeast Asia, war isn't according to military academy textbooks.

Rain Affects Tobacco Crop

It is expected that the wet weather of the past few weeks will have had a serious affect on the Island's tobacco crop.

It was learned last night that part of the crop showed signs early last week of rotting at the roots. It is hoped, however, that damage will only affect about three or four per cent of the crop. In some fields it may run higher, it was stated.

The exact amount of damage will not be learned until about the middle part of this week.

wan for temporary duty during the crisis. The head of the commission has not yet been named.

Dr. Gerhardt Beck of Jacksonville, Fla., left the province Friday, saying the Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons threatened to have him arrested for practising without a licence. He had been working as an interne at Leader, Sask.

Most of the doctors arriving in the province are from Britain.

The Medical Care Insurance Commission, which administers the medical plan started July 1, said it has signed 85 British doctors to temporary contracts. Of these, 43 were in Saskatchewan and the others are to arrive shortly. Another 200 British doctors are being interviewed.

CALL CONSULTANT

Dr. Thomas Ferrier of Pittsburgh was called in last week as a consultant to the medical care commission.

Meanwhile, the emergency services only program set up by the Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons in opposition to the plan was reported working smoothly. About 189 of the 700 doctors who were practising in Saskatchewan when the medical plan started were providing emergency service at 40 of about 200 hospitals in the province.

But with no sign of a break in the dispute, several communities were setting up their own co - operatively operated, non-profit clinics to provide medical treatment.

Weather Hits Tourist Trade In N.S. Valley, South Shore

HALIFAX CP) — Hotel and motel operators in Nova Scotia who already have suffered financially from rain and fog this summer are predicting worse business before the season ends.

Of 17 hotel and motel operators questioned Sunday, two reported major and four slight losses. Most foresaw a bleak future. Motels in the Annapolis Valley and south shore were feeling the heaviest strain. The northern section of the province reported business on a par or better than last year.

Although traffic figures indicated almost the same number of cars entered the province in June compared with the same period last year, many tourists were turning back as soon as they sampled the weather.

During June the sun shone only 38 per cent of the possible time, with the average temperature one degree below normal. July has had continuous wet weather.

Eric Gozna, manager of the Lakelawn Motel in Yarmouth said "many tourists who would ordinarily stay for a longer time are cutting their visits shorter" because of the weather.

Eric Balcom, manager of the Paramount Hotel in Wolfville, gives devaluation of the Canadian dollar equal credit with the weather for affecting his business.

"Many Americans told me of friends who stayed home hoping our money would decrease further in value," he said.

Sir Winston's Condition Unchanged

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill's personal physician reported Sunday night the wartime leader is holding his own in his recovery from a thigh fracture.

"All is well," said Lord Moran after a 15-minute medical check on his 87 - year - old patient at Middlesex Hospital. "He is the same as yesterday."

Churchill's wife emerged from a long afternoon visit at the hospital smiling and cheerful.

"I think he is really getting on very nicely," she said. "He seems in good spirits."

Churchill broke his thigh in a fall at a Monte Carlo Hotel June 28.

The hostesses were Mrs. Alton Gordon and Mrs. Robert Gordon. Gifts were presented in a decorated basket brought in by Mrs. Kaitlin Bowness and Mrs. Basil Matthews. Mrs. Keith Bowness and Mrs. George Bowness assisted in opening them and the verses were read by Mrs. Matthews. Music and dancing were enjoyed during the evening.

NEW SHIP

pany, Ltd., and Percy Crosbie, vice-president.

Mr. Smallwood referred to the Crosbies as a family perhaps unique in Canada. At one time they were the world's biggest merchants in salt, sun - dried cod, shipping it regularly to Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Brail, the West Indies—trading all over the world.

The premier said he hoped to see the restoration of the Newfoundland seal fishery which in recent years had been going to Norway and Russia and was all but extinct in Newfoundland.

"If I'm not mistaken, there will be other ships built here by the Crosbies," he said.

STARTED EARLY

Mr. Smallwood recalled how Sir John Crosbie, with C. A. Crosbie at his side, used to go down to the docks and put in two hours work before most of the other merchants and workers had arrived. He pictured Sir John on the wharf watching the sealing fleet sail home.

"I think that when the Sir John Crosbie docks maybe next spring, the spirit of Sir John will be on the dock when his ship comes in—and I hope to join him, to a certain sense of the word."

C. A. Crosbie was one of the negotiators of the terms of confederation which brought Newfoundland into Canada's federal union in 1949—one of the modern fathers of confederation.
