

Local and Other Items

POLICE COURT—Two Scott Act cases made up the docket this forenoon. One was dismissed and the other adjourned.

NOTICE.—Engineers meet for drill this evening. A full attendance requested, as inspection takes place at an early date. Not in uniform.

FIRE.—The fire last night was in a barn in Hooper's lane owned by John Williams. It did not amount to much, and was extinguished with a few buckets of water.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Upper Prince Street Methodist Sunday School purpose holding their annual picnic on Monday July 14th. Full particulars shortly.

EARLY CLOSING.—The Merchant Tailors have agreed to close their stores at six o'clock each evening except Saturday, from the 30th June to the 3rd October, both dates inclusive.

SALVATION ARMY PICNIC.—The Salvation Army purpose having a picnic on the beautiful grounds at McEwen's Wharf, West River, on or about the 17th July. Advertisement, giving further particulars, in a few days.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The Moonlight Excursion to be held next Friday night promises to be a grand event. We would advise those who intend going to procure their tickets as soon as possible, as only a limited number have been issued, so as to guarantee comfort to all who attend.

SUICIDE.—Dr. Conroy, Coroner, held an inquest yesterday on the body of Margaret McArthur, of New Haven, a widow about 68 years of age. Mrs. McArthur had been melancholy for some months past, and is supposed to have committed suicide on Monday by throwing herself into West River. Her body was found yesterday, and Dr. Conroy summoned. The doctor, when he arrived, empanelled a jury, who returned the verdict, "Suicide by drowning, while temporarily insane."

I. O. A.—The Grand Orange Lodge of this Province will hold a tea and demonstration on the Exhibition and Trotting Park grounds, near the city, on Saturday the 12th July next. In addition to a well stocked tea table there will be saloons where refreshments of various kinds will be provided at reasonable rates. There will also be swings, dancing booths and other amusements provided, including a bicycle race. Special rates have been arranged for from all stations along the line of railway.

MUSICAL REVIEW.—A musical review of the scholars took place at Notre Dame Convent yesterday. Among those present were Mrs. Carvell (wife of Lieutenant-Governor Carvell), Miss Hanford, Revs. Chas. McDonald, J. C. McLean, John J. McDonald and Alex. McAulay, Prof. Caven, Judge Reddin, and parents and friends of the children. A song of welcome was sung to Mrs. Carvell, speeches complimenting the children were made by Rev. J. C. McLean, Rev. Chas. McDonald, Prof. Caven and others. Altogether it was a very enjoyable affair, the children singing exceptionally well.

BOY INJURED.—As the confectionery team of Mr. W. A. Hutchesson was being driven along Euston Street near the Salvation Army Barracks yesterday, one of the traces broke and the horse took fright and ran away. The two boys in charge did their best to stop the team, but without success. They held on for all they were worth until near Vatcher's Store on Kent Street, where the wagon collided with a bridge, and one of the lads, Joseph Hughes, was thrown off. The other lad held on until the horse was stopped near P. C. Connolly's, Grafton Street. Young Hughes has one wrist fractured, his knee and shoulder slightly injured, and forehead cut. Dr. Jenkins is giving him every attention. The horse escaped unhurt, and the wagon was not damaged.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

KING'S COLLEGE.

Matriculation Examinations.

Success of Pupils of St. Peter's Schools.

REV. MR. HUNT CONGRATULATED.

WINDSOR, N. S., June 25. The matriculation list posted at noon today shows that out of seventeen candidates Foster stands second, Andrew fourth, Godfrey fifth, and Cotton sixth. St. Peter's School boys head the whole list in Latin, Greek and English. The first and third places were taken by engineering candidates, the first of whom is a German, who speaks French, and gave a perfect paper on modern languages. Otherwise, Foster would have headed the list. Mr. Hunt received congratulations from the Faculty upon the splendid papers of his pupils.

CLOSING AND CENTENNIAL

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

WINDSOR, N. S., June 24. Windsor presented a lively appearance to-day. The occasion is the commencement of the annual closing exercises of King's College, and also proceedings in connection with the centennial of these the oldest collegiate institutions in the Maritime Provinces. To-night the centennial ball is to take place at the college, a very large and brilliant assemblage being present. The 78th Band is to furnish music for the dances. The college grounds are very prettily illuminated.

Minority Representation.

QUEBEC, June 24. El Electeur under the heading "a word to the English minority" says it does not understand why they still persist in fighting Colonel Rhodes by demanding a judicial recount. The paper hints that if a recount is persisted in and the result should be unfavorable to Rhodes, Mercer will regard the act as a proof that the minority do not want a representative in the cabinet and act accordingly.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, June 24. Hon. Mr. Tupper has received letters from the Maritime Provinces, thanking him on behalf of the fishermen for the prompt payment of the fishing bounty claims this year. Three Rivers' men are asking the Government to grant assistance to an agricultural college and experimental farm, to be started there by private enterprise. Sir John and Lady Thompson, with Douglas Stewart, the Minister's private secretary, left for England to-day.

Boston News.

BOSTON, June 24. Judge Jos. D. Fallon, member of the Boston School Board for twenty years, tendered his resignation to-night. He is a Catholic, and his resignation is the outcome of the recent adoption by the Board of Sheldon's History as a public School text book. The strike of the building laborers, in progress over a week, ended this afternoon. The Master Builders' Association voted to grant the advance demanded. This makes the pay 25 cents per hour. Counted Out.—MONTREAL, June 24. Joseph Tasse, of La Minerve, who was elected in Beauharois, by a majority of two, was counted out to-day before Judge Belanger. The Election resulted in a tie and the returning officer voted for Bisson, Government candidate.

Repairs in Dry Dock.

OTTAWA, June 24. H. M. S. Amphion has just been turned out of the Esquimaux dry dock, where she has been for the past six months undergoing the greatest piece of ship repairing ever attempted on the Pacific Coast. Everything worked well on her trial trip.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, June 25.—10 a. m. South-east to north-west winds; partly cloudy, with local showers, a little higher temperature.

Personal.

Captain John A. Longworth left this morning for Wimbledon, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law. Alexander Martin, Esq., Valleyfield, is registered at the Osborne. Judge Alley passed through St. John on his way to Quebec on the 23rd. Hon. John Yeo, Port Hill, was registered at the Hotel Davies yesterday. Hon. Senator Prowse, Murray Harbor, is in the city. He is registered at the Hotel Davies. Mr. Nicholson, the new Superintendent of Education arrived from Montreal last evening, and entered on the duties of his office to-day. RUNAWAY.—A horse owned by Mr. Pearson, baker, ran away yesterday afternoon, and during the course of its flight collided with a gate post near Houle's corner, Prince Street, where the driver, a young lad, was thrown from his seat on the bread-wagon, slightly injuring his ankle. Several baby carriages were being propelled along the sidewalk near Dr. Jenkins' residence at the time. Some of them had a very narrow escape from death. As it was one of the carriages was overturned, and the occupant was slightly hurt about the face.

MARRIED.

On Thursday, the 19th inst., at St. James' Church, Pictou, by the Rev. A. M. Harley, M. A., Rector, George E. Johnstone, Esq., of Her Majesty's Customs, eldest son of the late Dr. Geo. M.
