

Ministerial Espionage.

The true inwardness of the recent ministerial crisis in Prussia, which has been revealed since the death of the Emperor Frederick, sheds little credit on Prince Bismarck and his allies or tools, and discloses, in the most glaring manner, the martyrdom to which the invalid sovereign was subjected. It appears that the real cause of his late Majesty's objection to Herr Puttkamer was the despicable role that he had consented to play in the intrigues of the palace. He was, by all accounts, nothing more than a spy on the Imperial Prince—having held that post, under Prince Bismarck, for several years past. The arrangements for the carrying out of his detective system had been made so skilfully that the enemies of Frederick, both when Crown Prince and Sovereign, had access to his own letters and those of his wife. Their correspondence was regularly copied by under-spies, and no document, of however private a nature, escaped examination. The communications between the daughter of our Queen and her august mother, and the other members of her family in England, were the special objects of this espionage, the telegraphic service being forced to render up its secrets, and experts in the interpretation of cypher being employed to translate the messages into German. It may be imagined that the sick emperor and his faithful consort must have felt the deepest indignation against the crafty politicians who thus shamelessly intruded on their privacy and made their lives a constant torture of apprehension lest some unguarded expression should have compromised them with their watchful toes. The present emperor has a plain duty to perform in view of his father's known wishes or intentions as to the reform of Prussian administration and especially as to clearing its personnel of creatures like Von Puttkamer.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturer of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a cure of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acid; at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hoarseness or coughing to clear the throat, expectation of offensive matter, together with scabbing of the nose; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is more insidious, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony" from Catarrh.

Prof. W. HAPNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could hardly speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very bad. I used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her. It cured her. She is now thirteen years old and sound and hearty."
