JURY AND CO

A Peculiar Feeling. The sensation of homesickness has been variously described, but never more graphically than by a little girl who, miles away from home and mamma, sat heavy eyed and silent at a hotel table. "Aren't you hungry, dear?" asked her aunt, with whom she was traveling. "No." "Does your head ache?" "No." "What is the matter?" The child's lip quivered, and she said in a tone to grieve the heart: "I'm seasick for home." - National Farmer.

Harbor Mistress Fuller. Miss Fuller, a newspaper woman, has lately been appointed harbor mistress of Tacoma, Wash. It is said that thus far she has done remarkably good work, keeping all records pertaining to the extensive shipping business of the city in perfect shape. Last month she made out the harbor master's report for the year, the first report of the kind ever made out by an American woman.

The Real Difficulty. "The trouble with you," said Mr. Ruffedge's wife, after a warm debate, "is that you are a confirmed dyspeptic." "No, my dear," was the answer. "That's not correct. The trouble with me is that I am a contradicted dyspeptic." - Washington Star.
