It is expected, by weather prophets, that the fine weather which has just set in will continue during the present week.

EIGHTY six immigrants arrived at Ottawa agency in November, the total number since the 1st of January being 1,366.

THE venerable Judge DeBarres has resigned his position on the Bench of Nova Scotia. Mr. Rigby, a prominent lawyer, is spoken of as his successor.

FRAGS and every kind of Christmas and New Year's Cards, in great abundance, awfully cheap, at Young's.

PHOSPHATE mining is quite booming in the Ottawa Valley this winter. A large number of men is engaged in the work at fair wages, and also many teams.

It appears to be understood, that Mr. S. G. Rigby, Q. C., is to be appointed Judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, in the place of Judge DeBarres resigned.

SIX cases of drunkenness were disposed of by the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon. The offenders were each fined $3 and costs—the Scott Act "to the contrary, notwithstanding."

LADIES, if you warm Soda Biscuit before using it very much improves their flavor. Get a 3 cent box at the Family Grocery and try it.—R. K. BRACE. [de 5

AN election for a candidate to fill the vacancy in West Northumberland, Ont., caused by the resignation of Mr. James Coburn, takes place on the 13th inst.

ALL hope has gone of the safety of the Schr. "Lord Bury" D'Escouss, N. S. besides the captain, there were three on board—his son-in-law and nephew. Three of them were married and leave families.

JUST RECEIVED another lot of Perforated Seat Chairs, and a large lot of Common Chairs. Don't forget the place. P. E. Island Furniture Warerooms.—M. BUTCHER.—Nov 30 1w

ON Sabbath, 11th inst., Rev. William R. Frame, will D. V., preach in Georgetown, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at Montague Bridge, at 6.30 p. m.—J. M. McLeod, Presbytery Clerk.

MONTREAL has succeeded in getting the Canada Pacific Railway workshops, which are to be located in that city. Ottawa bid high for the workshops, but not high enough.

THE Toronto papers contain full reports of a stormy meeting of the shareholders of the Ontario Bank, and Mr. Glass states that the shareholders intend to prosecute the directors for falsifying the reports.

THE Charlottetown Woolen Company will, on Tuesday, the 13th inst., open their Factory at Spring Park to the public, between the hours of 1 and 10 o'clock, p. m., when all those desirous of seeing the same in operation are invited to pay the Factory a visit.

A TELEGRAM received by Hon. John Longworth on Saturday evening, announced the death of Mrs. Robert Longworth. Mrs. Longworth has been for sometime unwell; but her death was unexpected, and the sad news was a sudden blow to her many relatives and friends.

THE Grit organs appear to be waking up to the fact that they have lost the sympathy of the young men of the country. If the organs had not been so sleepy they would have found that out long ago. The young of this country know on which side their bread is buttered, and have no idea of another five years of Grit rule and ruin.—Mail.

A PICTON correspondent of the St. John "Telegraph" says:—"Five young men from Summerside, P. E. Island, came over in the "St. Lawrence" to Picton, on Tuesday, on their way west. Three go to California—Messrs. Bell, Hall and Howard; the others—Messrs. Ramsay brothers—to Des Moines. These young men have no definite pursuit in prospect, but are merely seeking to better their fortune.

THE steamer "Prince Edward" has not yet been heard of, and much anxiety is felt for her safety. She has a crew of twenty-six persons including the captain. The passengers are: Patrick Blake, Esq., C. C., of this city, and Mr. John McGill, brother of Col. McGill. Those who have made trips in the "Prince Edward" say she is a splendid sea boat, and express the opinion that she is detained by heavy weather, or, perhaps, an accident to her machinery.

We regret to learn that at noon to-day William H. Findley, Esq., met with a very serious accident, under the following circumstances: He was in the act of lowering a barrel of apples into the cellar of his dwelling house. On the stairs leading into the cellar he slipped and fell to the bottom, his head striking a timber wall and the barrel of apples falling on his body. The injuries received were serious. They consisted of a severe scalp wound and internal injuries to his head and body. The effects of these caused him to bleed freely from mouth and ears. Dr. Taylor was called to attend him, and after examination expressed the opinion that although Mr. Findley was seriously hurt, he would soon recover.
