

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

FEBRUARY 6, 1895.

AN ORGAN AND ITS BOSSES.

The Patriot pleads not guilty to the Guardian's charge of being a mere "phonograph through which the party bosses talk."

In June last Senator Ferguson made a speech in the Senate regarding the claims of the Island in the matter of public works. That speech was published in full in THE EXAMINER at the time, and was favorably commented on by men of both political parties as a full and independent presentation of the claims of our Province.

"I must congratulate you sincerely on the care and ability with which everything is arranged, and the fairness which characterizes the case you present on behalf of your Province."

The organ treated this admission of the justice of our case as presented by the Senator by saying, "Compliments will not do. Why did not Sir John bring down a vote for public works in P. E. Island?"

Another step is taken. Acting on the case made by Senator Ferguson, and admitted by Sir John Thompson to be fair, and the Patriot's demand that deeds and not "compliments" were wanted, the people of Belfast and Murray Harbor humbly pray that a railway may be built through their part of the Province.

First we have the organ's jealous growl that Mr. Ferguson had exaggerated our case, and Sir John Thompson's answer, "so the case is a fair one."

It is a guilty conscience that makes the Patriot count the idea that it is a "mere phonograph through which the party bosses talk?"

THE W. C. T. U.

We have the report of the twelfth annual convention of the Maritime Women's Christian Temperance Union. From this it appears that the influence of the ladies has been systematically and continuously exerted in many different directions against drunkenness, and in favor of total abstinence.

The thoughtful letter of Dr. R. McNeill will repay perusal.

Our banks report the bills due on the 4th February "well paid up."

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of per manently benefited effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

PROTECTION VS. FREE TRADE.

Sir.—The people of this country are puzzled over these terms and political delayers and newspaper critics do not help the understanding of them, and very often prejudices and passions more frequently appeal to the conservative party, who introduced the policy of a protective tariff for the double purpose of raising revenue and helping the consumers.

The Liberal party on the opposite side contented that it operates against the consumer, makes goods dear and that the progress of the country is retarded by the protective tariff, and reasoning from their standpoint the consumers interests are solely the object of their policy.

The country must have a revenue, and a comparison of the record of the two parties is sufficient to answer to the people as to which of the two policies is the safest to follow.

It is surely a safe principle that the state should possess the right to discriminate between home and foreign industry, and the consumer alone must say that goods were never so cheap as they are now.

It is surely a safe principle that the state should possess the right to discriminate between home and foreign industry, and the consumer alone must say that goods were never so cheap as they are now.

Vote for this Free Trade policy and you will soon have reduced values, idle lands, and all the Liberal Conventions heart can wish for, with all the concomitants of hard times, etc.

THE TUNNEL QUESTION.

Sir.—The editor of the morning Grit organ continues to sneer at the tunnel scheme. Perhaps he knows more about tunnels than Sir Fox, but perhaps he does not.

COO! COO! HOO! HOO!

SO SAYS THE CUCKOOS.

The Cuckoo advertises in spread-eagle style 1/4, 1/3, 1/2 off. Goods for nothing. Goods have no value. Glad to have you take them at your own price. $5.00 goods for $2.00. $12.00 goods for $6.00, seeing it is you; next poor fellow that comes along will have to pay $12 for another of the same.

Remember, the Cuckoo always lays eggs in other birds' nests, but they are not golden eggs. There is only one way to do business successfully, and that's to do it right. Our goods are marked low—as low as the lowest legitimate price—all marked in plain figures and the price strictly adhered to.
