The Cronin Murder.

SOME OF THE EVIDENCE AT THE INVESTIGATION—CLAN-NA-GAEL PRINCIPLES.

When the Cronin inquest was resumed on the 7th the name of John F. Beggs, chief officer of the Clan-na-Gael Camp, of which Dr. Cronin was a member, was called but did not respond. It was subsequently found that his office was closed and that there was a sign on his door which read that he was not at anybody's investigation.

THE FIRST WITNESS.

Dillon, of Philadelphia, told of the trial at Buffalo of the charges against Alexander Sullivan, Michael Boland and Dennis Feeley. These charges were made by John Devoy, and were of misappropriation of Clan-na-Gael funds. Witness said that when Sullivan learned that Cronin was to be a member of the trial committee he denounced him in unmeasured terms. After the trial it was voted to allow Sullivan to circulate with the finding of the trial committee a protest which he had prepared.

THE PROTEST AGAINST CRONIN.

Mr. Dillon read the protest. It was very long. It was dated New York, Sept. 15th, 1888. In it Sullivan protested against the presence of Cronin on the following grounds:

First—That Cronin was his personal enemy.

Second—That he had expressed an opinion in the case.

Third—That he was a perjurer and a scoundrel, unfit to be placed on any jury.

In support of his first objection Sullivan appealed to the members of the United Brotherhood in Chicago, from which Dr. Cronin was expelled, in a case where Sullivan conducted the prosecution. There was no question in Chicago of Cronin's hostility to him, or anyone who was present at the meeting of the National League Committee in 1886, when Dr. Cronin assailed him. As to the second objection, Sullivan said Cronin was a member of the executive body of the United Brotherhood who had formulated charges against him, that Cronin had expressed an opinion in the case and would not be accepted as a juror in any civil case which Sullivan had anything to do. In support of the third reason, Sullivan went into a long accusing him of being a perjurer and a British spy, who had taken the oath of allegiance to her Britannic majesty, and that he had sworn falsely in regard to the election of delegates from the Chicago district to the convention; that he had sworn falsely in regard to his American citizenship, his age, and various other matters. The witness continued: "In June, 1882, John Devoy said that $300,000 and over was in the hands of the 'Triangle,' and over $180,000 had been spent in violation of the constitution. The $300,000 does not include the $100,000 given to Sullivan by Patrick Egan. I know nothing about that. The funds of the organization were supposed to be used in case of England getting into difficulty and to assist Ireland in getting her liberty. There is nothing in the constitution requiring a man to sacrifice his life for the order."

HISTORY OF CRONIN'S CAREER,

Mr. Trude claims that Egan requested Sullivan to remove the $100,000 in question from Paris to America because of the unsettled condition of affairs in France at the time. When the danger was over the whole amount was transferred back to Egan, and Sullivan has Egan's receipt for it.

DILLON'S EVIDENCE.

Dillon said on the 8th that nothing in the Clan-na-Gael constitution interfered with a member's duty as an American citizen except that an occasion might arise when he would have to violate the neutrality laws. Witness also said Cronin and McCahey took notes of the Trial committee's proceedings and Cronin refused to turn in his notes. He boasted in Chicago that he would bring them out in the convention of the Clan. Witness advised him not to make such boasts as he believed they jeopardized his safety.

ETHICS OF REMOVAL.

John Moss, a member of Camp No. 21 of the Clan-na-Gael, was next put upon the stand. He refused to give the name of the presiding officer of the camp, and was ordered into custody. Pending the arrival of the sheriff's deputy, witness gave evidence of great mental distress, and finally signified his willingness to testify. He then said the name of the presiding officer of his camp was William H. Joyce.

"When you made your motion in the Cronin resolution did you believe that the executive had the power to order the 'removal' of anyone?" queried the coroner.

"I had not the faintest idea of the powers of the executive."

"If you had been ordered to remove anyone would you have done it?"

"No sir," said witness, after a long pause.

A GLIMPSE AT THE GOVERNMENT.

Peter McGeegan testified that he came to Chicago last February from Philadelphia. He did not say before he was leaving that he was going into 'dangerous business for the executive. He came because he had a row with a young fellow about a girl. Dr. Cronin came up to witness on the street and accused him of being in the city to murder him. Subsequently Cronin wrote witness, telling him to get out of the state or he would have him arrested. Witness declared he was in Pullman on the night Cronin was murdered.

Asked what number he took when he left Philadelphia, he replied that he had retained the number he previously had which was No. 1; No. 2 was John O'Neill; No 3 the witness did not know, Witness was taken into custody and the inquest was adjourned. At the chief's private office, where the Carlson's Dinan and Mrs. Conklin took a look at him, none of them identified him and he was allowed to go.

[The result of the inquiry has already appeared in THE EXAMINER.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

CURES ALL HUMORS,

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "CONSUMPTION CURE," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.
