IN MEMORIAM

BANKS—In loving memory of our dear son and husband, George Banks, who passed away March 3rd 1958.

Each time we see your photo you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry I am sleeping. We will meet again some day."

Sadly missed by Parents, wife and daughter and brother, William and family.

WORTH—In loving memory of George Lemuel Worth who passed away March 1st 1945. Always remembered by sons and daughters and grand daughter, Eleanor.

GAMBLE—In loving memory of our son, Everett Heber Gamble, who passed away, March 3, 1957.

God lent him to us for a short sweet while. To us it seemed but a day. And then when he saw he needed him. He then took him away. Lovingly remembered by parents, sister, and brothers.

SILLIKER—In loving of our dear father, Pte. Ralph K. Silliker, killed in action in Germany, March 2, 1945.

Thoughts drift back to days gone past. Life moves on but memory lasts. Deep in our hearts his memory is kept. We who loved him will never forget.

Ever remembered by daughters, Sylvia and Opal.

BANKS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, George Banks, who passed away March 3, 1958.

One year has passed since that sad day. When one we loved was called away. He bade no one a last farewell. He said goodbye to none. The heavenly gates were opened wide.

A loving voice said "come." Always remembered by wife and daughter.

GILLIS—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John Gillis, who died Feb. 28, 1951.

The dearest mother and sweetest friend. One of the best God could lend. She was loving, gentle, thoughtful and true.

Always willing a kind act to do. It is not tears at the moment shed. That tell how beloved is the soul that has fled.

But tears through many a long night wept. And loving remembrance fondly kept.

Loving remembrance by husband and family.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late J. Collins MacNeill wish to thank Father Gillis, Fr. Murphy, also their kind friends and neighbours for their mass cards, enrolments and letters of sympathy and acts of kindness during their recent bereavement.

Costly Arrow Promises Lively Political Debate

By ALAN HARVEY

Canadian Press Staff Writer OTTAWA (CP)—The short, and costly story of the ill-starred Arrow interceptor promises to dominate the political news for months to come.

Though the Arrow is dead, killed by the federal government after months of careful consideration, the repercussions of Prime Minister Diefenbaker's reluctant decision will long be felt in many phases of national life.

Already, Opposition Leader Pearson has demanded a "complete and comprehensive" parliamentary examination of Canada's defence policy in the wake of Friday's announcement that the $400,000,000 Arrow program is being scrapped.

Both Mr. Pearson and CCF House Leader Hazen Argue carefully refrained from criticizing the Arrow decision but both made plain they will want a wide-ranging debate on its implications.

"Where are we going from now on?" asked Mr. Pearson.

FACING FACTS

In economic and political terms the switch from the Arrow to facing missiles means Canada is facing the fact that it cannot defend itself by itself.

Aid must be sought from the United States, with all that may mean in loss of national pride and power to act independently.

The painful post-war efforts to build up a base for Canadian defence production has been all but shattered. To a large extent, the government now must depend on U.S. goodwill, elaborated over ensuing years in "integration" of Canadian - U.S. defence production.

Military leaders have warned this will be a long, hard process.
