

David Jenkins Retains Men's Skating Ch'ship

PARIS (CP)—David Jenkins of Colorado Springs, Colo., pulled every trick out of the skating book and performed each one faultlessly Friday night to retain the men's world figure skating championship.

Jenkins gave a spectacular free skating exhibition to beat out Tim Brown of Carmichael, Calif., who had the advantage over the champion in Thursday's compulsory figures.

"It was the most difficult program I ever skated," Jenkins said. "There was a lot of pressure out there."

The pressure came mainly, judging by the crowd's reaction, from Don Jackson of Ottawa, 17-year-old runner-up in the Canadian senior championships for three years running, and Charles Snelling, 20, the Canadian champion who defeated Brown for second place at last year's North American tournament.

Final placings of the Canadian boys was not immediately available. Jenkins' victory marked the 11th straight year that the men's title has gone to the United States.

Jenkins' points total was 1745.5.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

A GREAT DRIVER A friend of this column writes us that he and horseman friends have been discussing the great drivers of the past, and the majority was in favor of Thomas W. Murphy, as being tops. They ruled out Ed Geers, Walter Cox, Henry Thomas and several others. He has asked to have a

HUNTERS CORNER

Our Stands Of Wood Are In Danger Of Destruction A question uppermost in the minds of many at the moment is: How much longer will our supply of pulpwood and lumber withstand the onslaughts of the power saw in the hands of unscrupulous wood cutters? The opinion has been expressed by those who claim to be in a position to know, that ten years will see the majority of pulp wood operators out of business so far as this province is concerned. The power saw in the hands of unscrupulous users is a menace to Nature and an arch enemy of our wildlife. Indiscriminate cutting has already resulted in a serious lowering of water levels and this is a situation that could adversely affect our economic stability. Systematized destruction is the order of the day. Trees unsuitable for pulp, including stately hardwoods, are ruthlessly felled and left in tangled mounds to rot. Bull-dozed roads, made to facilitate trucking operations, contribute to the destruction and accentuate the desolation of man's handiwork. There are thousands of cords of prime firewood rotting in our provincial woodlots while children in our towns and cities shiver with cold during the winter months. UGLY GASHES The present willful waste is in reality only a sideline compared to what the future holds and the effect this systematic rape of Nature will have on generations yet to be born. One has only to drive along our roads in scores

Canada Defeats Sweden 6-3 In Rain-Slowed Game

STOCKHOLM (CP)—A rainstorm helped slow Canada's powerhouse hockey team Friday night as Whitley defeated Sweden for the second time 6-3 in an exhibition game.

"In a way," said Manager Wren Blair, "we figured Sweden wouldn't be beaten with the same 13-0 score as Thursday. And we figured right."

The Canadians are undefeated in six exhibition games—two in England, two against an RCAF team in West Germany and two here. They play next at Galve, Sweden, Sunday.

Jack MacKenzie, named outstanding hockey player in the 1956 Olympic Games, collected two goals. MacKenzie led Thursday's slaughter with four goals.

The other goals came from Bob Attersey, Sid Smith, Ted O'Connor and George Samolenko. Sweden threw Sven (Tumba) Johansson into the attack and sent another forward to the defence line. It worked fine but wasn't enough. Johansson, who has played against other Canadian sides in world tournaments, recently returned from Canada where he practised with professional teams. He scored a goal. The other two came from Stoevein Oeberg.

Whitley's two wins against the Swedes on their home rink was an impressive start under the outdoor conditions which will confront the Canadians at the world championships at Oslo Feb. 28-March 9.

NEW EXPERIENCE "It was quite an experience to play in pouring rain," Blair said. "The rain-soaked ice hampered our play a little. It was quite a lesson for the boys, I think."

The game was harder than Thursday's. Bodychecking was frequent but only two Canadians and one Swede had to go to the penalty box.

The penalties came in the wide-open third period when Whitley put on more steam. They had to Sweden scored two of its goals in the final frame, Canada three. The teams were evenly matched in the scoreless second period.

The Kandahar is scheduled for March 1-2 on Mont Tremblant in the Laurentians.

Another member of the French team, Guy Perillat, who finished 11th in the giant slalom, will also compete. The men are due here next week.

Austrian ace Josl Reider, who set a course record winning the Kandahar last year, does not plan to compete this year.

MELBOURNE (AP)—Jon Konrads won his heat in the 220-yard freestyle swim Friday night in a leisurely—for him—two minutes, 5.9 seconds and said he hopes to make 2:02 in today's Australian championship final.

"I have been aiming at that time for a few weeks now," said the 16-year-old Latvian-born wonder swimmer.

Konrad's time was one of the fastest ever recorded for the distance in a long pool, but he never was extended in his heat. He set a mark of 2:04.3 for the 220 yards and 200 metres in the New South Wales championships last month.

That was the fastest time made since the international swimming federation (FINA) ruled last August that only records made in 55-yard or 50-metre pools would be considered for world recognition.

The old mark of 2:03.4, made by Britain's Jack Wardrop in a 25-yard pool, was dropped from the books and a record of 2:05.8 by Gary Chapman of Australia was substituted.

Chapman also bettered that mark last month when he trailed Konrads in 2:05.2.

The anticipated clash between Lisa Konrads, John's younger sister, Sandra Morgan, Lorraine Crapp and Dawn Fraser in the women's 440-yard freestyle failed to develop. Scratches reduced the field so that no heats were held. The final will be today.

Lineups: High School: Walsh 27, R. Gallant 8, L. Paquet 17, La-Breach 8, Lutz, Woodpeckers: O'Hanly 10, H. Paquet 2, Foster, B. Paquet 10, Cheverie, J. Clinton.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia Eagles Friday named Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw to coach the club out of last place in the National Football League.

Club President Frank McNamee announced the appointment of Shaw, former Air Force Academy and San Francisco 49ers coach, as head coach for "an extended term" at an estimated $20,000 a year. The job recently was turned down by Hamp Poole, coach of Toronto Argonauts in the Big Four.

Shaw, 60-year-old former Notre Dame star—who also coached at Santa Clara, Nevada and North Carolina State, succeeds Hugh Devore, first last year. Devore is being paid off on the third year of a three-year pact.

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (AP)—Roy Campanella remains cheerful and hopeful in hospital here although there is growing concern he will not regain use of his legs.

When the roly-poly Dodger baseball catcher was removed from a car wreck Jan. 28 there was hope of full recovery because no visible damage was done to his spinal cord. He suffered a broken neck and temporary paralysis.

After recovering sensation in the upper part of his body, Campanella's paralysis condition became stagnant. For days now he has had no sensation from the chest down. Passage of the paralysis seems to have stopped.

A physician told the New York Post Friday: "I cannot comment on the Campanella case specifically, but speaking generally, I have never heard of a case where a patient's progress stopped, then suddenly resumed in a spurt. The progress is invariably gradual."

Campanella has some sensation in his arms and can move his fingers a little. But he cannot move his legs.

If the fading of paralysis has stopped permanently, Campanella will be bed-ridden for life. If it resumes, he will walk again.

Campanella can talk. Doctors and nurses say he is cheerful but he doesn't chat and joke in his normal fashion.

Erskine Winds Up Training CARDIFF, Wales (AP)—Joe Erskine wound up training Friday for his European heavyweight title fight against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in Goteborg, Sweden next Friday.

The British champion boxed nine rounds against three sparring partners. At the end, he was hardly breathing heavily. "I'm feeling great," Erskine told a reporter.

"I know Johansson has a very good right, but I feel I am the better boxer and should pull it off."

Manager Benny Jacobs gave Erskine a better than 50-50 chance. "After all," he said, "Joe has fought much better class men than Johansson."

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Royals of the International Baseball League Friday announced the signing of Martin Stabiner, lefthanded pitcher.

Stabiner was with the Royals briefly last season and was optioned to Macon, Ga., of the Sally League where he had an earned-run average of 2.92. In 1956 with Hornell, N.Y., of the Pony League he had a 17-6 won-loss record and an earned-run average of 2.63.

Roberts Rink Wins In Ont.

Runner-up was the Toronto Granite rink, skipped by Dr. Bob Marshall, whose sole loss was to Unionville.

To Compete In Quebec Ski Race

MONTREAL (CP)—Francois Bonlieu, the Frenchman who took third place in giant slalom at the world ski championships last week in Austria, is to compete in the Quebec Kandahar race, it was learned Friday.

Kerwin Wins From Redl

NEW YORK (AP)—Gale Kerwin of Ottawa and Valley Stream N. Y., snapped Stefan Redl's 17-fight winning streak Friday night scoring a questionable knockdown and cutting his Hungarian-born opponent's right eye to take a split 10-round decision.

Durelle, rugged fisherman from Baie Ste. Anne, N. B., is scheduled to meet Tony Anthony March 14 in New York.

Shaban said he has an offer for an Ottawa bout from promoters Lloyd Kenny and Bert Lesage. Durelle's opponent has not been named.

Davies Heads Queen's Rangers

TORONTO (CP)—Lt.-Col. John W. Davies, who started army life as a schoolboy cadet, has taken over as commanding officer of the Queen's York Rangers (militia), Canada's oldest unit. He succeeds Lt.-Col. J. A. McGinnis.

The regiment was founded in New Hampshire in 1756 by Robert Rogers, as Rogers Rangers. During the American Revolution it fought under loyalist colors.

The regiment came to Canada in 1791 and to York (Toronto) in 1793 as the Queen's Rangers. Its name was changed to the Queen's York Rangers in 1936 when it amalgamated with the First Battalion, York Rangers.

Bathgate Scores Twice As Rangers Defeat Chicago

CHICAGO (CP)—Andy Bathgate scored twice in the third period to give New York Rangers a 3-1 victory over Chicago Black Hawks Friday night and undisputed possession of second place in the National Hockey League.

By winning the Rangers moved two points ahead of the idle Boston Bruins.

Chicago moved into a 1-0 lead midway in the first frame when defenseman Gus Mortson beat Ranger goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley with a hard shot from left ice after having taken the puck through the Ranger defence from centre ice.

The Hawk lead was short-lived, however. Camille Henry beat Chicago goalie Glenn Hall from close in at 10:05 of the period when Chicago wing Billy Dea was in the penalty box.

Bathgate's first marker came after Henry had slid along from the Hawk in Chicago ice. Dave Creighton picked up the loose disc and fed it to Bathgate near the Chicago cage. Bathgate's second marker came with 52 seconds remaining.

The loss kept the Hawks in last place, two points behind the inactive Toronto Maple Leafs.

SUMMARY
First period: 1. New York, followed by breaking six world freestyle marks from 200 metres to 800 yards.

Only heats will be held today. The two Konrads are entered. Ilsa is competing in the 440-yard freestyle in a standstill field. All are expected to better five minutes in the final. Miss Crapp holds the 440-yard record of 4:48.6.

John swims in the 220-yard event against Olympians John Devitt and Kevin O'Hallorans, and Gary Chapman, Graham Hamilton and Brian Wilkinson. All are expected to break 2:06 in Saturday's final.

The field is headed by the record-breaking sister-brother team of Latvian-born Ilsa and John Konrads and Olympic champions, including Lorraine Crapp and Dawn Fraser.

One of the few missing from the Australian team which won eight of the 13 Olympic swimming gold medals in 1956 is Murray Rose. The 18-year-old triple-Olympic winner is a student at the University of Southern California.
