MAY MAGAZINES.

The May number of the Delineator is called the spring number, and its resume of up to date modes includes a lengthy illustrated article on the appropriate attire for this season's fair girl graduates. The lithographic plates show the summer styles in costume and millinery. The literary miscellany of the number is excellent, one of the most noticeable papers being the first of a series of "Metropolitan Types," by Jeannie Drake, author of the "Metropolitans," one of the cleverest novels of 1896. Lillian Whiting discusses the social life of Boston from a pleasantly personal standpoint. In "Van Camp's Choice," Frances Courtney Baylor tells the story of a courtship as persistent as it was unconventional. Isabel F. Haggood's account of some gifted and titled Russian Women is accompanied by photographic portraits of several of the Czars' fair subjects. Dr. Beckham-Murray's Talks on Health and Beauty is this month devoted to the care of the eyes. Ladies seeking a new occupation should read Sharlot M. Hall's paper, "How to Make Blue Print Souvenirs." "A Group of Entertainments" will especially interest young hostesses. In Seasonable Cookery the processes of French Kitchen are explained and commended. Mrs Witherspoon's Tea Table Chat is as interesting as usual, and Mr. Vick's Flower Garden has firmly established itself in his readers' good graces. And there are also new ideas in the various departments devoted to Fancy Needlework, Knitting, Crocheting, etc., and a review of the New Books. Order from the local agent for the Butterick Patterns, or address The Delineator Publishing Co., Ltd., 33 Richmond Street, West, Toronto. Subscription price of The Delineator, $1.00 per year, or 15 cents per single copy.

Man's Most Vulgar Habit.

"If men were compelled to wear skirts for a period I think they would insist more than they now do that their fellow-men should stop the nasty habit of spitting in public," writes Edward W. Bok in the May Ladies' Home Journal. "There is no practice of man which is more distressing to women than this disgusting habit. Women constantly complain of it, especially in our larger cities, where sometimes the sidewalks are scarcely fit for them to walk upon. They revolt at the practice, and they are right in so doing. Yet year in and year out the habit not only continues, but increases, and the protection of cleanliness, to which every woman walking upon our streets has a perfect right, is denied her. In New York City the Board of Health has taken the matter up on the grounds of public health, and the Police Department is lending its cooperation in the enforcement of an ordinance directed against the evil. No action taken in New York for years is so highly to be commended, and the ordinance should quickly extend to other cities and be put into force. It is an undertaking which public opinion will sustain in whatever part of the country it is attempted. Every community should be urged to try the experiment. . . . The time is ripe when every decent man should take some steps to see to it that the nastiest and most vulgar of all American habits should be entirely stopped. New York City has started the reform. Let the Boards of Health of a few of our other large cities take up the question, and the reform, which appeals to every clean-minded man and woman, will soon spread. It is a work in every way calling for the attention and action of Boards of Health and all bodies and citizens interested in the health of communities. The spitting habit is an absolute menace to the public health. . . . Smaller communities need not wait for the larger cities. The decent men of the smallest community can come together, awaken interest in the matter and see that a prohibitive ordinance is passed. And if the men are slow in seeing their duty, it is to be devoutly hoped that the women will take the question in hand and see to it that this disgusting habit receive that necessary public attention which it has lacked in the past."

BUTCHERED OR BURNED?

We read with horror of the cruelty and butcheries of Gen Wever in the fair Isle of Cuba, but little reck we of the ravages of that more direful King of Grave-Fillers, Kidney Disease here in our midst.

People of high and low degree drop into graves on all sides of us daily from Kidney Trouble. We incur it ourselves. We encourage it. We do everything but cure it.

Yet there is a cure, pleasant as a May morning. Sure as fate. Infallible as heredity. Before this wonderful remedy, the agonizing tortures of Kidney Ills vanish like a snowflake in a fiery furnace.

This cure, of which we sound the praises is DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. Yet not alone we, but every one who has tried them. One hundred per cent. of cures we record. Here are examples:—

W. F. Smith, 16 Carrol St., Toronto, says:—"I have taken eight boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills which have cured me of Heart Trouble, Pain in the Back and Dizziness, after other treatments had failed."

D. J. Kenny, Queen's Hotel, Mount Forest, says:—"Have suffered greatly from Nervousness, but information as to the effects of Dodd's Kidney Pills in such cases led me to use them, with the result that I am cured."

Louis H. Bounsell, 537 King East, Toronto, says:—"Had been troubled for several months with pain in my Back and Kidneys which prevented my entering in bicycle events, but am in the ring once more after using three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Mr. James Stokes, Deseronto, Ont., says:—"From the first box taken of Dodd's Kidney Pills I found relief, and hundreds here knowing me for the past fifteen years can vouch for my cure of long standing Kidney Trouble."

Mothers

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." Mrs. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

"I will say that my mother has not stated my case in as strong words as I would have done. Hood's Sarsaparilla has truly cured me and I am now well." CORA PECK, Amsterdam, N. Y.

Reflections of a Bachelor.
You can always judge a girl by the number of rings she doesn't wear.
A man is known by the company he keeps, and a woman by her relatives.
It is probable that none of the mansions in heaven will ever smell of soap-suds.
No man has any call to criticize his second wife for offering him a warmed over dinner.
There is only one thing worse than a man who whistles, and that is a woman who hums.
When the devil sneaked into the garden of Eden, he had the plans for a flat-house in his pocket.—New York Press.

The Unimportant Face.

The way a woman sees a woman.—Truth.

Knew Better Than the Doctor.
Among the good stories told of Dr. Mack, an army surgeon in Australia, is that in "Here and There Memories," illustrating the confidence in him of the pitmen under his care.

An explosion occurred one day in the mine, and the doctor was hastily summoned. As the men were raised from the mine depths he felt their pulse and sought for indications of life. As he rose from examining one poor fellow, saying, "Dead," the supposed dead man said distinctly:

"Nay, Oi bain't dead."
One of the miners standing by gave the speaker a kick with his boot and said: "Hand th' tongue, Rob. Dost think th' knows better than t' doctor, mon?"—Youth's Companion.

A Better Plan.
Mrs. Benham—Mother is coming to live with us, and she wants us to get a place to store her wheel until spring.
Benham—What's the matter with keeping the wheel and storing her?—New York Sunday Journal.

He Didn't Sulk.
Ethel—So you refused George?
Clara—Yes; but he acted nicely about it.
E.—How's that?
C.—He didn't leave without kissing me.—Town Topics.

A Crack at Himself.
Mr. Elwell—It's strange, but true, nevertheless, that the biggest fools always marry the prettiest girls.
Mrs. Elwell—Oh, now, go on, you flatterer!—Dublin World.

The Plain Spoken Person.
"There is one thing about me—I am not afraid to say just what I think."
"Of course you are not afraid, but you ought to be ashamed."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Not a Part.
"What part of speech is 'woman,' pa?"
"Woman isn't a part of speech, my son; she's the whole speech."—Town Topics.

His Trouble.
"Pushpen is a ready writer, isn't he?"
"Yes; he writes readily enough, but the trouble is he can't think."—Chicago Record.
