Souris Home & School Assoc'n Meets

The November meeting of the Souris Home and School Association was held recently in the Souris High School with a good attendance. The president Mrs. Alex P. MacDonald presided, and called on the secretary, Mrs. John J. MacDonald at read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were adopted as read.

The President who is also the Souris librarian, spoke of its being "Children's week" at the library, invited the teachers to bring their pupils to the library and assist them in selecting reading material.

The Association's by-laws were then discussed and some slight changes made. It was decided to add a treasurer to the executive, and Mr. Francis Chevarie was appointed treasurer. It was also moved and seconded that Sister St. Aden and Miss Nellie Foley be appointed to the program committee.

After some discussion on the teaching of the lower grades, it was moved by Mr. Chevarie and seconded by Mrs. Roy White, that Miss Helen McIsaac bring her grade 111 pupils to the next meeting to give a demonstration on teaching that grade.

It was decided to hold future meetings on the third Wednesday of each month. It was moved by Mr. Bruce Stewart and seconded by Mr. J. J. MacDonald that a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Roy Crockett for his generosity in donating two beautiful light fixtures for the halls of the school.

Interesting talks were given by the principal, Mr. James Macdonald and the Vice-Principal Mr. James Horgan and others. Lively discussions followed. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Taylor-MacPherson Wedding

The Valleyfield United Church manse was the scene of a very lovely event on Thursday, November 16th, when Elizabeth Christine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric MacPherson, Heatherdale, was united in holy bonds of matrimony with James Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor of Stratheona. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Fraser.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Adele MacPherson, and the groom ably supported by his brother, Lawrence Taylor, of Dundas Centre. After the signing of the register, and felicitations having been extended, the party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held and wedding supper served to over fifty guests. Mr. Fraser proposed a toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom. Selections on the violin by Mr. Dan Matheson were well received. The bride, who is very popular and highly esteemed, received many lovely and useful gifts. Prior to her marriage she was tendered a shower by the people
