

STYLES IN STOLES

BY ALICE ALDEN

THE STOLE is stealing the spotlight in new fashion presentations. Stoles are fabric or fur, woven or knitted, of contrasting or matching material, for day or evening. From Paris and designed specifically for the American taste is this handsome stole costume, a two-tone jacquard knit for both stole and skirt. The generous stole is fringed with the lighter color of the background hue. The skirt is full with all-around box pleats. The combination is worn with a black silk sweater from the same house.

SOURIS WEST W.L.

Mrs. Frank Cairns was hostess to the Souris West Women's Institute for the December meeting. The president, Mrs. Reggie Peters opened the meeting and the Mary Stewart Collect was read in unison.

The roll call was answered with an exchange of Christmas gifts. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. New sick and school committees were appointed.

Expressions of regret were heard over the illness of two members and the sick committee was authorized to provide gifts for same.

The meeting voted towards treats for the school children at the Christmas closing. $16.40 was realized from the Turkey Raffle and the holder of the lucky ticket was Mrs. Lucy White.

The members volunteered to clean the school during the holidays. Mrs. Frank J. Deagle invited the members to her home for the January meeting. Roll call to be answered with a Hula-Hoop contest.

Refreshments were served, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the hostess.

THE BADGE OF FASHION

BY ALICE ALDEN

If ever fashion's silhouette called for accents, it is now. Necklaces draw attention to high or necklines of brief bodices. Pins—large, lavish pins—mark high waistlines or indicate that line if it is not defined. The big pin, to place where you will, certainly is the badge of fashion this fall. Worn high, front and center on an easy overblouse is a huge heraldic pin of gleaming gold touched with bright white and colored enamel. Varied heraldic charms clustered on a bracelet of golden links and button earrings repeat the pin's motif.

ceeds by disappointment in losing the show."

The Canadian singing star was to have had the lead role of Elizabeth Bennett in her first Broadway show, "First Impressions". This she cancelled because the baby is expected in July.

For the Christmas season Gisele plans to be in Montreal with her family. Robert Shuttleworth, her husband and manager said the baby will probably be born in Hollywood. Gisele married the former Toronto bandleader in 1957.

During her student days in Toronto Gisele made her home at Rosary Hall, Bloor Street, and was a most popular person.
