

A Christmas Thought.

The sweet Christ-month, the month that Love was borne, That ever was an alien until now, What though the blossoms hang not on the bough, What though the earth of beauty's place be shorn?

Lo! in the woods, beneath the frost-kissed hill, The holly lights the path—December's rose— And underneath the scarlet berry grows, As if to tell us Love is living still:

Living, albeit under ruder skies; Though the glad glory of the year be past, With frost and death Love lingers to the last, And in Love's breast her blossom never dies.

'Tis nursed with thoughts that come with Christmas chime— That "gracious time" when Love and Peace are crowned, When the world's woes in one great joy are drowned: The summer of the soul is Christmas-time.

Is it but fancy? On the midnight air Forever sound those wild harmonious bells: Through vacant vales and long-deserted dells Mysterious anthems echo everywhere.

In deepest solitude the Christian's soul Strives to a thrill of some strange touch divine; Apart from shrines, he heeds the sacred sign That holds the world in Love's sublime control.

—A. T. L., in Harper's Magazine for January.

The rumor current that the War Department had been asked for a military escort for the Vice-Royal party is categorically denied. The despatch probably had its origin in nothing more than the tendering on the part of the American Commandant at San Francisco of the usual guard of honor. His Excellency and the Princess are taking the newly opened southern route from San Francisco, and it appears that Her Royal Highness will spend some time in San Antonio, Texas. This is a noted health resort, reputed to have the best climate in the South. It is situated about 100 miles south-west of Austin, the State capital, and has a population of 20,000. It is the site of one of the American arsenals, and near it is Fort Alamo, the "Thermopylae of Texas," where, during the war of Texan independence, Col. Travers, with a small number of Americans, resisted an army of Mexicans outnumbering his force ten times over. It is to be hoped that the Princess will experience there the same beneficial effect upon her health that she is said to have enjoyed in the moist climate of British Columbia, and that she will find her way back to Ottawa in a fit state to enjoy the bracing climate of that city.

NOTICE.

THE Charlottetown Gas Light Company have imported a fresh supply of Bray's Patent Burner's, especially made to consume only three feet of Gas per hour with the tap turned full on. These Burners are intended for use in Halls, Bedrooms, Kitchens, and other places where a light from a small consumption of Gas only is required.

By regulating the tap, the Gas consumed can be reduced to any desired quantity less than three feet per hour.

These Burners are so scientifically made that they will give a light equal to about ten candles at a cost of three quarters of one cent per hour.

The price of these Burners to consumers of Gas will be ten cents each. [In 10 eod 1at]
