—I. O. D. E. PICTURE—The Absewell Chapter of the I. O. D. E. at Summerside are to be congratulated on the selection of their picture, the proceeds of which were to go towards the milk fund, National Health and other activities. The picture was shown at the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday nights and was well patronized. The picture chosen was "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," the leading role being taken by Gary Cooper. The scenes were taken from the North-west frontier of India and the story gave a very graphic description of military life in India and especially showing the loyalty of the native troops, and particularly that famous regiment of Bengal Lancers, to the British soldiers. The picture was most instructive and interesting.—S

U-HALLORAN - NOONIAN WEDDING

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Tuesday morning, May 12th at Seven Mile Bay when Miss Georgina Myrtle Noonian became the bride of John Arnold U-Halloran. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Monaghan, following the Nuptial Mass. The bride was attired in fawn with matching accessories. She was attended by Miss Kathleen Connolly, who was attired in green with matching accessories, while the groom was supported by Mr. Emmet Noonian, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the bride's home where a dainty breakfast was served to the immediate friends. A reception followed in the evening, attended by a large number of relatives and friends. A pre-nuptial shower was held in her home. The bride received many lovely and useful gifts. The young couple will reside in Augustine Cove, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. The Guardian joins in wishing them many years of happy wedded bliss.

Kensington Loses Worthy Resident

In the passing of Sidney Webster whose death occurred at his home in Kensington on Friday, the district has lost a worthy resident. Mr. Webster was 70 years of age and was the son of the late Joseph Webster of Kensington. He was a blacksmith by trade and in his younger days went out to Creepie Creek, Col., where he carried on his trade for 40 years. He returned to the Island some few years ago and continued his work as a smithy. He was very highly esteemed and will be much missed by a large circle of friends. He leaves to mourn one son, George and one daughter, Miss Sarah Webster of Kensington. His wife predeceased him some years ago. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon and was very largely attended. There was a short service at the house followed by a service in Kensington United Church. Rev. Mr. Saker conducted both services. Mr. Robert Walker sang very effectively "Face to Face".

The pallbearers were Messrs. Gordon Glover, Charles Cook, Wm. Johnson, W. B. MacArthur, James Sheen and Heath Bowness.

Interment was in the Kensington Cemetery.—S

Shield Awarded Freetown For Best Play

Freetown Young People's Union won the shield donated by the executive of the Western Young Peoples Union of the United Church in Prince Edward Island. This shield was given for the best one-act play with a religious background.

Freetown's play was called "Bread" and was taken from the play of that name by Samuel French. The judges were Mr. Berton Robinson, Miss Sue Meadows and Miss Alma Inman of Victoria. The judges based their decision on the fact that the Freetown play was nearer to things as they were in every day life. Cavendish Young People chose "A Burnt Offering" also by French and based on an historical Bible story from Judges 5th. Both plays were very well presented and the scenery well arranged.

The Freetown play was the simple story of a farmer and his family, their joys and sorrows. Freetown cast was: Louis Cairns, chairman, who took the part of John Curtis, Olivo Drummond, Martha Curtis, Dorothy Auld, Grandma Curtis, Barbara MacKenzie, Betty Curtis, Winnie Burns, Stella Curtis, Maurice Deacon, Jim Curtis.

Rev. W. A. Patterson was chairman of the Cavendish group. The Cavendish cast was: Judith, Anita Webb, Ruth, Annie Lowther, Martha, Dorothy Thomas, Jephthah, Elmore MacKay, Ashur Elmer Fyfe, a messenger Eric Simpson.

There were five groups in the contest. Freetown won from Bedouque and Tryon and Cavendish from Margate. The closing contest was held in Epworth Hall last night with a large attendance. Mr. Norman Linkletter president of the W. Y. P. U. acted as chairman. A vote of thanks was extended to the judges by Mr. Allison Profit of Freetown, seconded by Mr. Thomas and supported by Rev. Mr. Patterson. The performance closed with the doxology.

Last year Tryon won the shield.—S

C.M.A. OPPOSES 40 HOUR WEEK LEGISLATION

Stress Necessity of Satisfactory Steamship Services With Antipodes.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) QUEBEC, June 2.—Members of Canadian Manufacturers' Association lent opposition today to the suggestion by their President, W. S. Morden of Toronto, that Canada by application of "common sense and some old fashioned methods, should anticipate the coming years with confidence and satisfaction."

The President, in a comprehensive annual review of world economic conditions presented at the opening of the annual convention, noted improvement throughout the world generally during the past year. And he was optimistic of the future.

But with his optimism came a note of warning against too ready spending and loose borrowings by governments.

Mr. Doug's Bell and Miss Eva Stevenson returned home Tuesday from Annapolis Valley. While there they attended the apple blossom festival.

Mrs. Bessie Sherron and daughter Hazel motored to Summerside on Tuesday and purchased a new Ford V-8.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McPherson and family of Charlottetown spent the week end here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McPherson.

Quite a number attended the dance held in Arena Gardens, Borden on Tuesday night. The music was furnished by Olympia Orchestra.

Mrs. Russell Clark has returned home from Kentville, N.S., where she spent the past week the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Lawler.

Mr. Melville Bell, DeSable, was a visitor to Cape Traverse on Sunday.

Former S'side Resident Dies In Edmonton

Many old friends in Prince Edward Island will regret to learn of the death of Mr. John M. Clark, who passed away on Monday at noon at his home in Edmonton, Alberta. Mr. Clark's death was the result of an accident which occurred a week ago. Mr. Clark having fractured his hip when he slipped on the stairs at his home.

Mr. Clark was 82 years of age and was born at Clark's Mills near Summerside. As a young man he lived on the homestead and practiced farming. Later he obtained a position with John R. Calhoun, in his extensive mills at Summerside.

Leaving there he resided in Colorado for about five years. In 1890 he returned to the Island and started a lumber business at Kensington. Later on Mr. Clark with Major Schurman and Nathan MacFarlane bought the business in Summerside now run by M. F. Schurman & Co. He was associated with the business until 1907 when it was sold to the present owners M. F. Schurman and Company. He then carried on a general contracting business until 1916 when he went with his wife and family to Edmonton.

In Edmonton he held the position of Superintendent of the Department of Agriculture for Alberta, which position he held until a few years ago. Since then he has lived a retired life. During his business career in Summerside, he took a great interest in the affairs of the town. He represented the Fifth District of Prince County during the Hazard Government and was a member of the Government of that time. He was also prominent as a Mason and Forester taking a leading part in the affairs of these orders.

Mr. Clark will be very kindly remembered by the older citizens of Summerside, who extend sympathy to his family.

He leaves to mourn four sons and two daughters, namely: Miss Margaret Clark of Victoria, B. C.; Peter G. Clark and Horace Clark, Summerside; William Clark of Black Falls, Alberta; and (Annie) Mrs. George Bell, with whom he resided. The funeral is taking place today from his home in Edmonton, and the remains will be laid beside those of his wife who predeceased him five years ago.—S

CARLETON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE
The Carleton Women's Institute held their meeting Thursday evening, May 21st, at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) A. M. Bell, with an attendance of ten members and three visitors. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode followed by the Creed in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Letters of thanks were read from Mr. Elmer Roberts for spray sent at his brother's death, and from Mr. Herman Myers for fruit sent during his illness. The committee then gave their reports and the following new ones were appointed:

Sick Mrs. Harry Muttart, Mrs. W. E. Bell, Program, Mrs. Stan. Linkletter, Mrs. Nate Bell, School, Aneta Muttart, Doris Gillespie, Lunch, Mrs. Stewart McMicken, Mrs. (Dr.) A. M. Bell and Dorothy MacDonald.

A letter from Red Cross asking for funds was read and discussed and it was decided to contribute to this work.

Dr. A. M. Bell then delivered the second of his instructive talks on "Nutrition and Health." He discussed the minerals iron, iodine, magnesium, manganese, and sulphur as found in the human body, and the foods in which these are the most abundant, stressing the value of milk in the diet. Mrs. Frank Muttart then put on a very interesting contest.

A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Stan. Linkletter, Mrs. Norman Williams and Mrs. Harry Doull.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Stewart McMicken, roll call to be answered by "A Noted Canadian Woman."

BEGGAR PAYS $50 FINE
TORONTO, June 2.—Joseph Bevans, Toronto's most prosperous beggar, was fined $50 or six months in jail today when he appeared in court charged with begging. And he paid the same way he always has done—by cheque. Bevans, who has appeared dozens of times in police court on similar charges, is said to have a bank account of $2,000.

Cape Traverse on Friday were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Heath Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Perry, Mrs. W. J. McGowan and sons Messrs. Geo. Hogg, Hazen Phillips, Thos. Carruthers, Frank Gamble, J. H. B. Lea and Gordon Dawson.

The funeral of the late Mr. W. H. P. Irving of Cape Traverse last Friday was one of the largest ever seen in this vicinity, many friends and relatives from Charlottetown, Summerside and other parts of the Island being in attendance. After a brief but impressive service at the home, conducted by Rev. Arthur Organ, during which the hymn Abide With Me was sung, the remains were taken to the Church of Scotland where Rev. Ewen McDougall delivered a message of comfort to the mourners, basing his remarks on the fourteenth chapter of John and other parts of the Bible. Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Organ led in prayer. Many beautiful floral offerings testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The beautiful Masonic burial service was used at the grave, interment being in the Kirk Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Montague Campbell, Russell Clark, Chas. B. Doull, Leslie Campbell, Geo. Doull and Jas. H. Bell.—D
