New Glasgow And Vicinity

Mr Howard Wedlock, who is a student at Mt. Allison College, Sackville, N. B. spent the Easter Holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wedlock, Hunter River.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McLeod, Hunter River, on Wednesday evening, April 15th when the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chealey Wood, came in great numbers to surprise the young couple by giving them a miscellaneous shower. The gifts were opened by Miss Elsie Stead, Special mention may be made of a well-filled purse from the Boys, Hockey Club accompanied by a well-worked address read by Miss Florence Noy. Although taken entirely by surprise Mr. Wood on behalf of his wife thanked the donors, and assured them of their appreciation for the lovely gifts given them. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Messrs Andrew Gallant, and Stanley Ross.

The Young Peoples' Study Group of the New Glasgow Christian Church at the home of Miss Eunice Houston, on Wednesday evening. The Secretary's report of the previous meeting was heard and approved. The Devotional Period was led by Miss Ella Semple, after which Rev. W. G. Quigley, presided over the usual hour of Bible Study. A dainty lunch was passed by the hostess, assisted by Miss Ella Semple.

Miss Edna Doherty, Telephone operator at Hunter River, has returned to her duties after spending the Easter holidays at her home in New Haven.

On account of the storm, on Sunday last the gatherings were not as large as they would have been otherwise, at the services at the Christian Church, the pastor, Rev. W. G. Quigley, preached two forceful and inspiring sermons in the morning his subject being "The Proclamation of the Angelic Host," and in the evening "The Doctrine of the Resurrection, to a small but appreciative audience. At the evening service a vocal duet by Mrs. W. G. Quigley and Mr. George H. Stevenson was very pleasingly rendered, also a special selection by the choir "Lo, In The Grave He Lay," and other hymns which were in keeping with the occasion.—G.

Sanctions Effect Italian Trade

(By George Hambleton) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) (C.P. Cable By Guardian's Special Agent)

GENEVA, April 18.—Sanctions are squeezing Italian trade. The effect, according to the report of a committee of League of Nations experts issued today, is uneven. Some countries have cut down heavily in their trade with Italy, while others are affected lightly. No major country has been able apparently entirely to prohibit the entry of Italian goods. Yet the general tendency is to tighten rather than relax the squeeze. Austria and Hungary, the two League countries not applying sanctions, are improving the shipping hour. Their trade with Italy, both import and export, is well maintained.

At the outset sanctions affected Canada's trade with Italy curiously. Canada imported from that country $206,000 worth of goods in November, 1935, compared with $230,000 in the corresponding month of 1934. The figures for December, 1935 and 1934 respectively, were $131,000 and $98,000. But in January, 1936, they dropped to $39,000 against $100,000 in the first month of 1935. The February figures were $8,800 and $92,600. The effect on Canada's exports to Italy was more rapid after sanctions were voted in mid-November by the League. The November figure was $83,000 against $375,000 in November, 1934. In December they dropped to $44,700 against $257,000, in January the two figures were $42,000 against $227,000 and in February $36,000 against $248,000. Both Great Britain and France cut down heavily on their trade with Italy too. British imports from Italy were $70,000 last January compared with $2,789,000 in November, 1935. French imports in January were $159,000 against $2,183,000 two months previously. Exports from Britain to Italy dwindled to $155,000 in January last against $2,894,000 in January, 1936. French exports were $734,000 in January, 1936, compared with $1,328,000 in January, 1935. Austria's imports in February last were $490,000 against $464,000 in February, 1935. Her exports were $1,049,000 last February compared with $988,000 the same month of last year. Hungary's imports for February, 1936, were $606,000 against $544,000 in the same month of 1935. Her export figures for the two months were $982,000 and $666,000 respectively.

Mrs. MacDougall Is Laid To Rest

(Sydney Post-Record)
Despite inclement weather, hundreds assembled Sunday afternoon to pay final respects to the memory of Mrs. J. J. MacDougall, whose funeral was held from the family residence, 70 Park Street, to St. Anne's Cemetery, Glace Bay, where interment was made alongside her husband, well known Dosco official who predeceased her five years ago. At the Church of the Sacred Heart here, Rev. Fr. Ronald MacGillivray, pastor, conducted service in the presence of a large congregation of friends, relatives and acquaintances of the deceased, and prayers at the graveside were offered by Rev. Fr. Vincent MacDonald, curate of St. Anne's Parish. A lengthy concourse of automobiles followed the hearse to Glace Bay, and the countless spiritual offerings, and wealth of flowers, and messages of sympathy received bore striking evidence to the high esteem in which the late Mrs. MacDougall was held by all. The pall bearers were, Hon. Michael Dwyer, Minister of Mines and Labour for Nova Scotia, County Judge Neil R. MacArthur, H. J. Kelley, Vice-President and General Manager of Dosco, John R. MacIsaac, General Traffic Manager of Sydney and Louisburg Railway, T. L. MacCall, Chief Mining Engineer for Dosco, J. C. Nicholson, General Supt. of Mines for the Dominion Coal Company, W. L. Stuewa, Chief Mechanical Engineer of Dosco, and Fred Merchant. Here during the illness and subsequent death of Mrs. MacDougall, were the following principal mourners at the funeral, Mrs. D. H.

MacDougall, of Montreal, Mrs. A. A. Dysart, Fredericton, N.B., Mrs. (De) Croken, Charlottetown, sisters-in-law of the deceased, Thomas Keating, of Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal, brother, Mary MacDougall, Montreal, and Hugh MacDougall of Eastern Trust legal staff, Halifax, niece and nephew respectively of the deceased.

Haunted Houses

The majority of the people believe that there is no such thing as haunted houses and as far as I am concerned I do hardly credit it myself, but nevertheless when you hear my story you should be convinced. I want you to remember that the following is no fable but an actual fact. Well, in this particular district there are four houses that are supposed to be haunted. The first is one which is a very big house, where all the family here are gathered about the kitchen. A heavy tramping sound is heard. One particular night there were just two women in the house, one was in the parlor and this lady supposed that the other one was upstairs, because of the walking in the upper part of the house. But lo and behold you there was no woman up stairs—it was a weird walker. The second house is at present vacant. A certain morning about four years ago a man in this community got up at daybreak, dressed and decided to go to Charlottetown. When he was going to the station he passed this house and saw white sheets beating about the windows. This was about six o'clock in the morning. Another time when the owner of this house was asleep in bed he felt three heavy beats upon him. The clothes on the bed raised and several ghost-like things happened. The third one of the houses mentioned is only haunted once every year. Just as sure as 7 o'clock comes on Christmas eve night a noise is heard. It sounds as if someone let a log fall in a corner of this place. The peculiar thing about this is that the noise is heard at the same time in the same place every year. The fourth one is only haunted at times. One night the family heard steps coming down the stairs when they were in bed. It awakened them. This was about twelve o'clock at night.

I think that the above should convince some of us that there are weird or haunted houses.—P.

MT. BUCHANAN W. I.

The regular meeting of the Mt. Buchanan Women's Institute was held on April 14th at the home of Mrs. C. W. MacLeod with seven members and one visitor present. In the absence of the President the meeting was conducted by Mrs. John Morrison Vice-Pres. Meeting opened with "Ode" Roll call responded to with "Irish Jokes". Standing committees reported and new ones appointed: School — Mrs. Donald MacKinnon, Sick — Mrs. John Nicholson, Mrs. Docherty. Correspondence was read as follows: a letter of thanks for sick treat, Cheque of $6.00 from estate of Polle A. Murchison. A letter of fering bulbs for sale. Convenors are requested to have all questionnaires completed at next meeting. School is to be cleaned. Members were reminded of a decision made at a previous meeting to plant flowers on the grave of a member that is buried in the district. A committee was appointed to buy pansies and a white geranium and to set them out as soon as weather conditions permit. Next place of meeting "The School". Roll call "What I Like Best in the Institute" (refreshments excepted). Meeting closed with the National Anthem. When lunch was served.

Suitable Eyewear Improves Appearance

You will occasionally hear a person complain that she objects to wearing a correction of her error of vision because of the effect on her "looks." That argument no longer applies. The modern eye service considers appearance, which can now be correctly chosen eyewear be enhanced.
