IN MEMORIAM

MRS. PAUL DOIRON

The sudden death of Mrs. Paul Doiron, Duvar, P. E. I., occurred at her home on October 17th, 1951. Doctors Gilbert J. Gallant and F. Simpson of the Summeridge Hospital rushed to her bedside to put all their science and ability at the disposal of Dr. Shea, her local Doctor, who was also present, but a serious brain concussion proved fatal.

Before her marriage, Evelyn was Father Rooney's faithful housekeeper. Endowed with a keen sense of responsibility, she never left anything undone. Her continual smile magnetized many a friend. She was the kind one never heard coming but always noticed.

Her burial took place from St. Anthony's Church on November 20th, 1951, where Solemn High Mass was sung by her brother, the Rev. Pius Finnin of Sacred Heart Cathedral, Bathurst, N.B. Assisting him were the Rev. Leonard MacKenna, P.P., deacon, and Rev. W. D. MacDonald, P.P., sub-deacon.

Rev. M. J. Rooney was in charge of the service and said the last prayers at the grave. In the Sanctuary were the Rev. Martin Monaghan, Th.D.; Rev. J. A. MacDonald, P.P.; Rev. Patrick Walsh, P.P.; Rev. Louis Dooley, administrator; and Rev. Dennis Gallant, curate. Mr. P. A. Arsenault saw to the preparation of all the liturgical functions.

The choir was under the direction of the able leader Mr. J. Albert Noonan, and Mr. C. J. Gallant was at the organ. The undertaker was the proficient Claude Jelly of O'Leary's.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Anthony and Robert Doiron, Robert and Arthur Gallant, Anthony Finnin and Howard Arsenault.

Those bereaved wish to thank all those who helped so efficiently to comfort them in their trial, and to assure all spiritual help for the repose of the soul of the deceased.
