How About Yours?

Our quarterly accounts are now being rendered.

We would consider your prompt attention to yours a great favor just now.

Because we want a lot of money—in the course of a few days.

You see, if you pay us, we will be able to pay one or two of our own bills, and probably the man we pay will pass it on to you again.

Worth trying—anyway.

Shall we see you to-day?

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EXAMINER.

NO NEWS.

LONDON, Jan 10.—The world has been cut off from all information respecting General Buller's army since the reconnaissance of Saturday last.

The War Office was silent yesterday and the bulletin boards were empty.

In the clubs, well-informed men are confident that the army has been in motion. On Monday the officers lingered till midnight, expecting to receive tidings of some great stroke. The censorship is closer than at any time.

No fresh details of the Ladysmith victory have been received and General Buller's plan of campaign remains an inscrutable mystery.

A THEORY.

The theory has been advanced that Morrin's division has made a detour and will cross the Tugela 17 miles below Colenso. It is said that Morrin's headquarters have been established at Estcourt and the Weenan is occupied by British troops.

Rumor has it that the Free State troops are turning to the relief of Colesburg.

THE SEIZURES.

Neither the German nor the American

Embassy had received, at a late hour yesterday afternoon, any answer from the Foreign office respecting the important question raised by the seizures at Delago Bay.

It is evident that law officers of the Crown are making close study of the questions and are looking up the precedents in English, American and German law bearing upon them.

There is some reason to believe that the United States and German Embassies are trying to find a common basis upon which they can co-operate in pressing their respective demands against Great Britain respecting the Delago Bay seizures.

DUFFERIN'S SON.

LONDON, Jan 10.—The casualties sustained by General White in the defence of Ladysmith on Saturday, have not yet been announced by the war office.

Lord Dufferin, according to a Belfast telegram, has received official confirmation of the report that his eldest son, the Earl of Alva, was wounded during the engagement.

It is stated that the Queen telegraphed her congratulations to the garrison on the successful defence of the town.

The latest intelligence from Frere says, "All quiet at Ladysmith and Chieveley on Sunday."

SOME ONE BLUNDERED.

The Boer trenches at Magersfontein are said to be in progress of still further extension.

Accounts continue to be received of the Battle of Magersfontein from soldiers who took part in the fighting. It seems clear that some one blundered.

It is even said that General Wauchope remonstrated with Lord Methuen about the plans before leaving camp. But Lord Methuen only told him to obey orders. Under the circumstances, Wauchope, pathetic words when he fell, "Don't blame me my lads," have a painful interest.

The Mail understands that the supercession of another general commanding in South Africa will shortly be announced.

As a small appropriate New Year's gift you couldn't get anything nicer than one of those Transvaal souvenir booklets. Anyone will appreciate such a reminder of our boys now in South Africa. For sale at all the bookstores and at R. H. Mason's news stand. Price 10 cents.

KEYS LOST.—A bunch of keys was left in the Post Office, Lock Box, No 221, last evening. The finder will kindly leave them with Mr. Mason, Stamp Vender.

DEATH AT NORTH CARLETON

Fell asleep in Jesus, at North Carleton, on Dec. 18th, 1899, after an illness of only seven days, which she endured with patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Alice S. Schurman, second daughter of Alfred Schurman, aged forty-five years. She leaves a sorrowing father and mother, two sisters and a brother, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn; but they mourn not as those who have no hope. In her sickness she said she was not alone, she had her Saviour with her. She was ever a kind friend in sickness or distress, and was ever ready to help the poor. She died with a full assurance of a glorious immortality beyond death and the grave.
