THE DAILY EXAMINER
NOVEMBER 11, 1899.
A MONTH'S WARFARE.

Just a month has elapsed since the Boers, in numbers supposed to be overwhelming, invaded Natal and Cape Colony. The comparatively small British force defending the position retired from Glencoe; and a misfortune, which seems to have been the result of a combined blunder and accident, gave two battalions into the hands of the Boers. But in all other respects the British have so far been successful. They were successful at Glencoe and Elandsлагate, at Dewdrop and at Colenso; they continue to hold Ladysmith and Kimberley and Mafeking,—all in the face of forces numerically larger. Even under conditions—as Lord Salisbury has pointed out—in which they are the stronger and the British the weaker power, they have failed to win the initial success that is essential if they are to protract the struggle after the conditions have been reversed and they become numerically the weaker power at the seat of war. Yet the strategic skill with which they have been led is the admiration of military critics. But that which is most admirable and most re-assuring in the operations of the past month is the courage and efficiency of the British soldiers. These have shone in every encounter; and the world has learned that the men behind the British guns now in South Africa are men of the same quality as those who fought at Acre and Sebastopol, at Waterloo and Balaclava. Every hour's delay now lessens the chances of the Boer's ability to gain possession of Ladysmith and Kimberley. If they hope to win these points, they will strike soon. We shall probably have interesting news in the course of the next week.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
—Sir Louis held a meeting at Clifton, yesterday, and delivered a speech. The speech is reported to have been "flat."
—Another question for Sir Louis: While oats are selling in Charlottetown for 27 cts a bushel and potatoes for 15 cts, what has become of the 60,000,000 market?
—The monthly report of Mr. Larke, trade commissioner of Australia, states that the harvest prospects of New South Wales are good, the area under crop being 1,800,000 acres.
—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's recent tour in Ontario is reported to have been "very disappointing" and to have "made Sir Wilfrid angry, bitter and tart." It appears that Sir Wilfrid descended at last to a personal attack upon his great adversary Sir Charles Tupper.
—The Boers have lowered themselves in the estimation of the world by their treachery in violating the terms of civilized warfare by firing on the British after having hoisted the white flag, and by taking advantage of mutual cessation of hostilities for the purpose of improving their position.
—A gentleman at Murray Harbor writes to say that the prospects of the Conservatives in the coming election "are very bright." To this cause is to be attributed the honor of a visit to Murray Harbor by Sir Louis Davies, K. C. M. G. But isn't it somewhat infra dig for Sir Louis to condescend to dabble in local politics?
—Referring to the growth of the exportation of cheese Mr. Johnson, Dominion statistician, says that Canada sent a little over $500,000 worth of cheese to Great Britain in 1898, and in 1899 sent $1,752,681 worth, thus far surpassing the exports of the United States, which last year, to the mother country, were only $3,267,607. Of the total exports of Canadian manufactures in 1898, cheese only formed 3 per cent., in value, while in 1899 it formed over 31 per cent. of the total exports of manufactures.

—Sir Louis Davies' recent visit to England seems to have had an extraordinary effect upon the honorable gentleman's health. Previously he was so unwell that it was a positive pain for him to meet his constituents and he avoided the common people as much as possible. But now he is in such capital good health that he advertizes in The Patriot his anxiety to meet the electors and goes out into the country to see and grasp them by the hand. After all, there's no medicine like a sea voyage and the prospect of an election,—even a Provincial election!

ESTEEMED EXCHANGES.
London Advertiser: The Boers are generally credited with being two centuries behind the times, but in the military operations they invariably conceal the fact.
Ottawa Journal: Every day which passes without a Boer victory is a British victory. The troop ships are arriving.
Washington Star: The Boers may at any rate be depended on to go back to farming after the war is over instead of flooding the market with magazine articles.

No Thought of Intervention.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The Russian Ambassador, Count Cassini, who is back from a long visit to Europe, was seen at the Russian Embassy at the European sentiment concerning the South African war. Count Cassini said:—
"Of course all Europe is watching this conflict with profound interest and concern. But it is the interest of observers, and there is no sign or thought of any intervention or move of any kind from outside quarters. The loss of life which is occurring is particularly regrettable, and it is to the interest of all that peace should be speedily restored."

Canada's Fattened Chickens.
OTTAWA, Nov. 10.—Prof. Robertson has just received a report from Liverpool on the arrival of the first lot of fattened chickens from Canada. The consignee says:—"The chickens arrived in splendid condition." The chickens met with a ready sale. Regular shipments have been forwarded every week since the first week of October.
On account of extra work Dr. C. V. McCready will remain in Georgetown until Thursday, 16th inst.

A PUBLIC PIT-FALL.
Shubenacadie Man has a Dangerous Experience.
Pooled by an Imitation of Dodd's Kidney Pills—Took two boxes of the spurious remedy—Found out his mistake in Time.
SHUBENACADIE, Nov. 10.—Alfred Miller, of this town, narrates an account of a dangerous experience of his own, which is liable to occur to anyone who doesn't keep the sharpest kind of a look out. The pit-fall into which he fell lies gaping open to be stumbled into by the public at large.
It is a well-known fact that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the first medicine that ever cured those formerly incurable maladies, Bright's Disease and Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills are likewise famous for curing Rheumatism. They have a marvellous reputation for curing Heart Disease, Dropsy, Bladder and Urinary Disorders, Female Complaints and Blood Diseases. That anyone could be deceived into taking another preparation for Dodd's Kidney Pills is on first sight incomprehensible, in view of the reputation they enjoy.
This reputation, however, is just the point. Unscrupulous imitators trade on that reputation to push their own nostrums on the public. Read what Mr. Alfred Miller, of Shubenacadie, Nova Scotia, writes about his experience with imitations of Dodd's Kidney Pills.
"Having been troubled with a weak back and suffering this long while with severe pains occasioned by some kidney trouble, I purchased two boxes of a pill similar in name to Dodd's. I had determined to get some Dodd's Kidney Pills, but when I asked for Dodd's I was persuaded to take this other remedy. I used them with absolutely no effect. I was about to give up in disgust when it struck me I'd better try the genuine article. I then got a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, refusing to take any others, and that first box cured me completely. So far the pain has not returned."
