

KILL PILES

Don't let sore, itching, burning piles make you miserable another day or night without making the most of the KILLAROID test. Feel it help heal and shrink sore, swollen tissue. Feel blessed comfort while you sleep, walk, rise or work. Get KILLAROID (ointment or suppositories) at drugstore today. Feel wonderful relief in 15 minutes. See how much better you feel tomorrow. Satisfaction or money back trial offer.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, goopy, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well and use DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS, DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS will help you rest better—and feel better.

Dodd's Kidney Pills

COLD MISERY

Why suffer days of CUT FROM DAYS TO HOURS! Capsules can bring you relief in minutes. DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. Not one, but FOUR, cold-fighting ingredients—balanced to put your temperature down and your spirits up—help fight cold symptoms F-A-S-T. 12 Capsules—35c. Family size—79c.

BUCKLEY'S

MUST GIVE FASTER COMFORT OR DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK

WHY HAVE SORE FEET?

JUST RUB IT MINARD'S LINIMENT

CFCY-TV CHANNEL 13 Sponsored by The Ross Burner & Electric Ltd. Oil and Electric Ranges—Oil or Coal Ranges—Refrigerators—Vacuum Cleaners—Washing Machines—Floor Oil Furnaces—Television—Radio—Refrigerators—Space Oil Heaters—Kerosene Oil Burners—Space Oil Heaters—Kerosene Oil Burners will burn coal, wood and garbage. Power (gas type) Furnace Burners guaranteed. Immediate delivery and installation. Cash, Terms or Reestablishment Credit and D. V. A. 141 Windsor St. Halifax, N. S. 16 St. Peter's Road, Charlottetown P. E. I. Dial 4633, Evening, Dial 1417

Suggests Dept. Of Oriental Studies For Can. University

VICTORIA (CP)—Swami Agnani, a Hindu monk, who has been visiting his mother here. He was ordained in Benares and studied ancient writing for two years. He was ordained in Benares and studied ancient writing for two years. He was ordained in Benares and studied ancient writing for two years.

Weighting 280 pounds, standing six feet seven inches, he joined the order eight years ago. He is a 33-year-old native of Vienna, who was christened Leonard Fisher. In Canada on a lecture tour, he said in an interview that he would like to start a department of Oriental studies in a Canadian university.

"Belief in the sect is a personal creed," he explained. "The basic tenet is relation of self to the cosmic soul." He joined the Saanyasi order after going to India following the

X-Ray Use In Head Injuries

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Association of Radiologists Wednesday studied reports on an x-ray procedure which eliminates the necessity for operations in many cases of head injuries.

The procedure involved injection of dye into blood vessels of the head as a means of detecting any displacement of blood supply to the brain.

The findings were reported by three Montreal specialists, Dr. J. L. Leger, Dr. Claude Bertrand and Dr. Maurice Dufresne. They reviewed 215 cases of head injury since 1948. The procedure, known as angiography, was used because the patients were unconscious although they were no localizing signs of hemorrhage.

In 101 cases the special x-ray showed there was no hemorrhage, so no operation was necessary. In the other cases the procedure pinpointed the site of the hemorrhage as a guide to the surgeon.

The study showed angiography is no more dangerous than other forms of investigating possible hemorrhage.

Seaway Engineer Reported Drowned

MONTREAL (CP)—A St. Lawrence Seaway Authority engineer was drowned Tuesday in the fast-rising waters of the St. Lawrence River.

Howard Roache, 29, was swept away from the top of his car when trapped by the rising water while riding along a dike at the seaway site. Denis Boulanger, 24, was rescued from the top of the car by fellow workers.

First reports said two men were drowned and a third rescued. Some witnesses said the dike was weakened by the flooding river and may have given way under the weight of Roache's car. Others said it appeared the car became trapped by the rising water and that it was covered completely before Roache could be rescued.

Sub-zero temperatures have caused ice jams along the river. In many places its depth is above the flood danger level.

BEDTIME STORIES

Blacky's Find

Suspect another if you will. But lacking proof your tongue keep still.

Blacky the Crow was in a bad temper. He really was. He had had no breakfast. These were hard times and to have no breakfast on a cold day was enough to make anyone lose their temper. It was the worse because for a number of mornings now he had had a good breakfast without having to hunt for it. Over in the Old Orchard in a certain apple tree an ear of corn had been fastened especially for him by Farmer Brown's boy. This morning there was nothing there.

Blacky was a puzzled Crow. Could some other Crow have found that ear of corn and brought it over to the Green Forest? Blacky doubted it. He had tried and tried to do that thing himself, and had never been able to get it free. But who else could have done it? "Whoever did it is a thief!" muttered Blacky, which really was so only in Blacky's mind.

Blacky was a puzzled Crow. Could some other Crow have found that ear of corn and brought it over to the Green Forest? Blacky doubted it. He had tried and tried to do that thing himself, and had never been able to get it free. But who else could have done it? "Whoever did it is a thief!" muttered Blacky, which really was so only in Blacky's mind.

Blacky quite forgot that there was no reason why he shouldn't go over to Farmer Brown's house where the other Birds got their breakfast. He had seen Ringneck the Pheasant and Mrs. Ringneck over there. He hadn't gone because he has a suspicious nature. He didn't yet quite trust Farmer Brown's boy, even though he knew that Farmer Brown's boy put that ear of corn especially for him.

He started to fly to another part of the Green Forest when he spied something white on an old stump. Blacky promptly flew down to see what it was. Blacky likes to collect things. Yes sir, Blacky is a collector. He loves things that are bright and shiny. He has even picked up shells and white pebbles to add to his collection. Now for the moment he forgot his troubles and flew down to see what that white thing was on the stump. Then he got a surprise. It was a very great surprise. What do you think it was he found lying on that old stump? It was the very last thing in the world that he expected to find there. It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Yes, Sir, that is just what it was.

Where had it come from? How did it get there? Blacky looked that cob all over. He hoped there might be a grain of corn on it but there wasn't. Could it be that it had been brought over to the Green Forest to the Old Orchard by someone? There were no crows around anywhere that he knew of.

It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Blacky was muttering to himself. "Why didn't I put that corn out for me?" he muttered. "I wonder if he has forgotten, or if he isn't going to put out anymore. I never could trust those two-legged folks. Everybody else over there has something to eat and I haven't a thing."

Blacky quite forgot that there was no reason why he shouldn't go over to Farmer Brown's house where the other Birds got their breakfast. He had seen Ringneck the Pheasant and Mrs. Ringneck over there. He hadn't gone because he has a suspicious nature. He didn't yet quite trust Farmer Brown's boy, even though he knew that Farmer Brown's boy put that ear of corn especially for him.

He started to fly to another part of the Green Forest when he spied something white on an old stump. Blacky promptly flew down to see what it was. Blacky likes to collect things. Yes sir, Blacky is a collector. He loves things that are bright and shiny. He has even picked up shells and white pebbles to add to his collection. Now for the moment he forgot his troubles and flew down to see what that white thing was on the stump. Then he got a surprise. It was a very great surprise. What do you think it was he found lying on that old stump? It was the very last thing in the world that he expected to find there. It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Yes, Sir, that is just what it was.

Where had it come from? How did it get there? Blacky looked that cob all over. He hoped there might be a grain of corn on it but there wasn't. Could it be that it had been brought over to the Green Forest to the Old Orchard by someone? There were no crows around anywhere that he knew of.

It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Blacky was muttering to himself. "Why didn't I put that corn out for me?" he muttered. "I wonder if he has forgotten, or if he isn't going to put out anymore. I never could trust those two-legged folks. Everybody else over there has something to eat and I haven't a thing."

Blacky quite forgot that there was no reason why he shouldn't go over to Farmer Brown's house where the other Birds got their breakfast. He had seen Ringneck the Pheasant and Mrs. Ringneck over there. He hadn't gone because he has a suspicious nature. He didn't yet quite trust Farmer Brown's boy, even though he knew that Farmer Brown's boy put that ear of corn especially for him.

He started to fly to another part of the Green Forest when he spied something white on an old stump. Blacky promptly flew down to see what it was. Blacky likes to collect things. Yes sir, Blacky is a collector. He loves things that are bright and shiny. He has even picked up shells and white pebbles to add to his collection. Now for the moment he forgot his troubles and flew down to see what that white thing was on the stump. Then he got a surprise. It was a very great surprise. What do you think it was he found lying on that old stump? It was the very last thing in the world that he expected to find there. It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Yes, Sir, that is just what it was.

Where had it come from? How did it get there? Blacky looked that cob all over. He hoped there might be a grain of corn on it but there wasn't. Could it be that it had been brought over to the Green Forest to the Old Orchard by someone? There were no crows around anywhere that he knew of.

It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Blacky was muttering to himself. "Why didn't I put that corn out for me?" he muttered. "I wonder if he has forgotten, or if he isn't going to put out anymore. I never could trust those two-legged folks. Everybody else over there has something to eat and I haven't a thing."

Blacky quite forgot that there was no reason why he shouldn't go over to Farmer Brown's house where the other Birds got their breakfast. He had seen Ringneck the Pheasant and Mrs. Ringneck over there. He hadn't gone because he has a suspicious nature. He didn't yet quite trust Farmer Brown's boy, even though he knew that Farmer Brown's boy put that ear of corn especially for him.

He started to fly to another part of the Green Forest when he spied something white on an old stump. Blacky promptly flew down to see what it was. Blacky likes to collect things. Yes sir, Blacky is a collector. He loves things that are bright and shiny. He has even picked up shells and white pebbles to add to his collection. Now for the moment he forgot his troubles and flew down to see what that white thing was on the stump. Then he got a surprise. It was a very great surprise. What do you think it was he found lying on that old stump? It was the very last thing in the world that he expected to find there. It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Yes, Sir, that is just what it was.

Where had it come from? How did it get there? Blacky looked that cob all over. He hoped there might be a grain of corn on it but there wasn't. Could it be that it had been brought over to the Green Forest to the Old Orchard by someone? There were no crows around anywhere that he knew of.

It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Blacky was muttering to himself. "Why didn't I put that corn out for me?" he muttered. "I wonder if he has forgotten, or if he isn't going to put out anymore. I never could trust those two-legged folks. Everybody else over there has something to eat and I haven't a thing."

Blacky quite forgot that there was no reason why he shouldn't go over to Farmer Brown's house where the other Birds got their breakfast. He had seen Ringneck the Pheasant and Mrs. Ringneck over there. He hadn't gone because he has a suspicious nature. He didn't yet quite trust Farmer Brown's boy, even though he knew that Farmer Brown's boy put that ear of corn especially for him.

He started to fly to another part of the Green Forest when he spied something white on an old stump. Blacky promptly flew down to see what it was. Blacky likes to collect things. Yes sir, Blacky is a collector. He loves things that are bright and shiny. He has even picked up shells and white pebbles to add to his collection. Now for the moment he forgot his troubles and flew down to see what that white thing was on the stump. Then he got a surprise. It was a very great surprise. What do you think it was he found lying on that old stump? It was the very last thing in the world that he expected to find there. It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Yes, Sir, that is just what it was.

Where had it come from? How did it get there? Blacky looked that cob all over. He hoped there might be a grain of corn on it but there wasn't. Could it be that it had been brought over to the Green Forest to the Old Orchard by someone? There were no crows around anywhere that he knew of.

It was the bare cob of an ear of corn. Blacky was muttering to himself. "Why didn't I put that corn out for me?" he muttered. "I wonder if he has forgotten, or if he isn't going to put out anymore. I never could trust those two-legged folks. Everybody else over there has something to eat and I haven't a thing."

Blacky quite forgot that there was no reason why he shouldn't go over to Farmer Brown's house where the other Birds got their breakfast. He had seen Ringneck the Pheasant and Mrs. Ringneck over there. He hadn't gone because he has a suspicious nature. He didn't yet quite trust Farmer Brown's boy, even though he knew that Farmer Brown's boy put that ear of corn especially for him.

SEVENTEEN FORESTRY STUDENTS ARRIVE FROM HUNGARY

HALIFAX (CP)—Seventeen forestry students from Hungary's Sopron University arrived here Tuesday on the liner Columbia with an assistant professor. They hoped to leave immediately for British Columbia and new classrooms.

But immigration officials said there may be a delay as 288 students, a professor and wives from the Hungarian university are still in Saint John, N.B., waiting for word from Ottawa that would send them across country to Powell River, B.C.

Professor Sebesten Laszlo led the student group off the ship here. He said another group—its number not known—will fly from Europe to Montreal to join the others later in British Columbia.

The main body of students arrived in Saint John Jan. 8 on the liner Empress of Britain. Since then they have been living in the immigration building there, expecting a month to pass before leaving for the west coast. Another group is expected next month.

After that the students, faculty, and dependents will likely go west at the same time.

Professor Laszlo was not aware of any delays Tuesday and he said all students and teachers will likely meet in Vancouver, where he expected to go direct.

It has been estimated that there is enough salt in the oceans to cover all land areas to a depth of 100 feet.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By R. JAY BECKER

South dealer. North-South vulnerable.

NORTH: ♠ A 7 3, ♥ A Q 6, ♦ K 7 2, ♣ Q 10 6 2

WEST: ♠ K 8 8 2, ♥ 10 5 3, ♦ Q 6 4, ♣ K 3

EAST: ♠ J 5, ♥ 9 7 4 3, ♦ 10 8 5 3, ♣ A 7 5

SOUTH: ♠ Q 10 4, ♥ K J 8, ♦ A J 9, ♣ J 9 8 4

The bidding: South West North East Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass 1 NT Pass 3 NT Pass

Opening lead—six of spades. South played a low spade from dummy and won East's jack with the Queen. Seven tricks were in view. There was no way to develop nine tricks without working on the club suit, so declarer led a heart to the queen and played a low club from dummy.

East made the excellent defensive play of going up immediately with the ace to return a spade. West's spade suit was established, the king of clubs serving as an entry to the good spades, and declarer went down two.

East was entitled to high praise for his alert club play, without which the contract would have been made, but South could have made the hand by a slight variation of play.

No defense can prevent declarer from making nine tricks if he permits East to win the opening spade lead with the Jack. With a spade continuation, declarer has the same double stopper as on the original line of play, but he has gained one advantage—east is out of Spades.

It now does not matter whether East wins the first club lead. If he does, he has no spade to return. And if West wins the first club lead he can, it is true, establish his spades, but he will then have no entry to them. In the meantime, though, declarer establishes two club tricks on either line of defense to bring in the contract.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

How does declarer know it is best to refuse the opening spade trick? Because the main threat to the contract is that West has a long spade suit and a club entry. By ducking the jack of spades he breaks the defenders, while at the same time his two spade tricks remain undisturbed.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

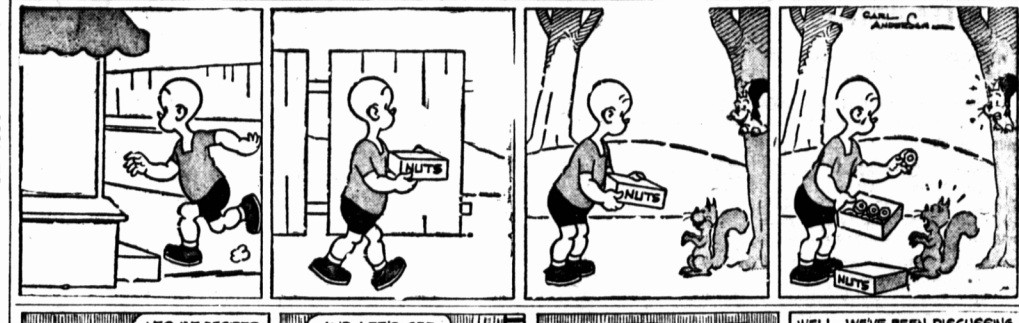

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

Obviously, West has the king of spades. Since nothing is lost by refusing the jack of spades, and something is gained whenever West has five spades and the club honors are split, the first spade trick should be conceded as a safety measure.

TUESDAY

- 3:45—Test Pattern
- 4:25—Sign On
- 4:30—Howdy Doodie
- 5:00—Battle Ship
- 5:30—Kiddies Cartoons
- 6:00—Open House
- 6:30—News & Weather
- 6:45—CBC News
- 6:55—Viewer's Guide
- 7:00—Great Sport Thrills
- 7:30—Don Messer
- 8:00—Big Town
- 8:30—The Brothers
- 9:00—Dragnet
- 9:30—Pick The Stars
- 10:00—Explorations
- 11:00—News & Weather
- 11:05—TBA
- 11:35—Sign Off

NEW TV SPECIAL

Delicious Tender Oven-Baked Island Chicken—85c

THE WINDMILL

Take-Out Service DIAL 7131

CKCW — Moncton

Television Programme

Schedule

Channel 2

TUESDAY

- 1:30 p.m.—F.M. Concert Hall
- 2:23 p.m.—News
- 2:30 p.m.—Coffee Chatter
- 3:00 p.m.—At Home With Helen Crocker
- 4:00 p.m.—Uncle Jack At The Piano
- 4:15 p.m.—People and Places
- 4:30 p.m.—Howdy Doodie
- 5:00 p.m.—CBC Children's Show
- 5:30 p.m.—Flash Gordon
- 6:00 p.m.—Barbie's Scrapbook
- 6:30 p.m.—Early Evening TV News
- 8:45 p.m.—Weather
- 9:50 p.m.—Sports
- 10:30 p.m.—Billie Holiday
- 11:00 p.m.—Robin Hood
- 11:30 p.m.—Big Town
- 12:00 p.m.—The Brothers
- 12:30 p.m.—Dragnet
- 1:00 p.m.—Pick The Stars
- 1:30 p.m.—Explorations
- 1:50 p.m.—CBC TV News
- 2:15 p.m.—CKCW TV News and Weather
- 2:30 p.m.—Adventures of Don Coyote

OUR BOARDING HOUSE MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY

THE LONE RANGER

11:30 p.m.—Adventures of Don Coyote