MARY HAWORTH

Wise Counsel Does Help All

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL
Dear Mary Haworth: My husband and I often find truths, in reading your column, that help us to better understand ourselves and others.

We have sought several of the applications to which you have referred and, although we attend church regularly, we have found a new world of Christian concepts opening to us, as a result of sharing your thinking.

With PRESIDENT
Dear Mary Haworth: I am a busy middle-aged mother and have little time for reading. But I was impressed by your answer of October 22nd to the letter of a divorcee who thinks you need a vacation!

For a long time, I have wished that I might slip into the White House and commend our president for giving due consideration to God; and in seeking His guidance when pondering the needs and problems of our great nation.

I think it gives one reassurance to feel that there is a Christian man at the head of our government. And yet my husband, a social clerk, insists that President Eisenhower is only the friend of big business. Criticism upon criticism—but it doesn't change my gratitude. I am glad you have the outlook you do, Mary. "In quietness and confidence shall be your strength," as the Good Book says. God Bless you. Sincerely, R. G. C.

ALWAYS PERSONAL
Dear Mary Haworth: To my way of thinking, you, as a woman are much more effective in dealing with matters of emotional health than men could ever be. They just don't have the definitely personal responsiveness to individuals, that I distinguish one from others of his kind, that you manifest.

Your concern is detailed, exact, particular and specific, in suggesting how things should be done, or help supplied, in meeting individual health requirements of body, mind or affairs.

You seem to possess the dynamic power of new affection in serving others as you serve God—the one thing so needed today. Like Mary in the Bible, the sister of Martha, you have chosen "that better part." Good success to you. Sincerely, R. N.

CHRISTIANS SPEAK
Dear Mary Haworth: That boy of clowns who wrote to you recently, complaining that your religious sense shows in your writings, and that you aren't always as sympathetic or down-to-earth as they'd like you to be, really want advice—you or anybody's. They only want to be encouraged to think they are doing right, in whatever they do. As for your instruction to a discouraged mother, which they criticized, I read that too; and speaking from comparable experience, I'd say you gave a perfect answer—in challenging her to wake up and grow. As for counseling in a religious way, isn't that the only way, if one considers oneself a Christian? I am, for ALL your good advice; please keep it up. J. B.

TO OUR DEFENSE
Dear Mary Haworth: I am furious with those women who criticized you on October 22nd. I think you give remarkably sound advice. You consider each case on its own merits and prescribe accordingly—and do a darn good job of it. Perhaps those biddie-choletry themselves. Some thing seems to be gnawing at them—but I am sure it isn't you. Sincerely, A. A.

Dear Friends: Thanks for these kind words. It seems only fair to balance criticism of a giver aspect, with the other viewpoint as well. Also I think letters of pure opinion, pro or con, make interesting reading for all of us. A signed agreement—that point at least. M. H.

28th Annual W. I. Meeting Held At Millview

The 28th annual meeting of Millview Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Victor Grant with the president presiding.

Roll call was answered by 18 members paying annual fees. The minutes of last annual and regular meeting read, approved and signed.

The secretary treasurer reported a successful year's work done with receipts of $23.55 and expenditures $44.96; a total cash on hand $10.29. School committee reported purchasing toilet paper and holders for the school, bill of $1.09 was paid. Sick committee reported nine sick calls made and first treat-taken, bill of $3.50 paid. It was moved and seconded that the sick committee take a 50 cent treat to those sick in hospital and 25 cents treat to those sick at home who have had the doctor in attendance. It was decided that institute members will not be obliged to pay admittance to Institute dances.

OFFICERS
Mrs. Gordon Shelton and Mrs. Harold Dupuy were appointed scrutineers and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres. Mrs. Lorin Drake; vice pres. Mrs. Geo. McEACHERN; secretary treas. Mrs. Walter Crane; Auditors Mrs. Harold D. Dupuy and Mrs. Edson Drake; directors, Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Ralph Sanderson and Mrs. Leo Hyman; sick committee, Mrs. Ed Crane and Mrs. Ralph Sanderson; school, Mrs. Charles McKenzie and Miss Helen Martell.

Correspondence was read and disposed of and several members expressed appreciation and thank you for fruit received by their families during illness.

BANQUET
It was decided to have an Institute banquet at which, four members who have over 25 years membership would be presented with membership pins. Pownal W.I. to be asked to cater to this party. A guessing game was won by Mrs. Robert Drake.

FAREWELL
At the close of the business part of the meeting, Mrs. Charles MacKenzie was called upon to pay honour to Mrs. Gordon Shelton who is leaving our district, and an address was read expressing regrets in losing a member who is held in high esteem; joy in the knowledge that she is settling in a neighbouring district, and appreciation for the work she has done and the many kindly acts she has performed, not only in the institute but in the district of Millview. In conclusion she was asked to accept a small gift of remembrance from the members. Although taken by surprise "Flo" in her quiet and very capable way thanked the members sincerely for their gift and kind expressions.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ted Crane.
