If You're Looking For An Opportunity Here It Is!

The man we want as assistant manager for Charlottetown is one of two different types of people. Firstly, he may be a young man, without any actual clothing experience. His main assets will be good character, initiative, energy—and above all a sincere desire to improve his position. Make no mistake, this position calls for hard work. Secondly, the man we seek may be an older person, with actual clothing experience behind him. This man is presently working at a similar position—but desires to improve himself and to aim for higher things. If you fit either one of these descriptions, act today; don't delay. Apply in writing to 868 St. Catherine's East Montreal, East. All replies strictly confidential.
