Early Opening Of Navigation

An early opening to the navigation season here will be made if conditions permit the arrival of the M. V. Carlisle Bay as planned for April 7. Officials of the Newfoundland Shipping Service stated last night it was not the earliest opening on record, but they did believe it was an early start for this port.

The day before Captain Angus Brown, official ice observer, said that while certain routes were still well choked with ice, mainly coming from the Cape Breton area, there was open water between here and Newfoundland. He stated there was a lake of open water off East Point, but that heavy ice had been seen northwestward of that.

Present plans call for the Carlisle Bay to stop at Souris for partial unloading and then sail to this port where she will complete the unloading of her cement cargo. Following this the ship will load a varied cargo of mixed Island produce for Newfoundland.

However, up until last night officials had not received final word from Cornerbrook, Newfoundland, that the ship had actually sailed from that port. She was expected to leave there yesterday.

City Playground Commission Meets

An order to the secretary to write to the various auxiliaries and organizations of the city asking that they have representatives attend future meetings was passed last night at the regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Playgrounds Commission. The meeting, presided over by chairman Mr. Harold MacLean, was held in the offices of the Workmen's Compensation Board.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted and it was also moved and seconded that a tag day be held at a later date which will be advertised. Mrs. Russell Roper was named convener of the committee to deal with this and will have authority to add other members.

The next meeting of the Commission is scheduled to be held at seven o'clock in the evening of April 26.

Annual Meeting Of Junior Board Of Trade

Robert E. Younker (above) was elected president of the Junior Board of Trade at their annual dinner meeting held last evening at the Rendezvous Restaurant, with the retiring president Walter B. LePage in the chair.

In his annual report, president LePage commented on the representation of the Board at Community Planning Association meetings and suggested to the incoming officers that their interest be continued. He was pleased with the activity of the Board in connection with last year's highway and traffic safety program.

The report stressed the interest taken by the Junior Board in cooperation with the Charlottetown Board of Trade in planning of the proposed tourist information centre in the Market building.

Dealing with the matter of expansion, Mr. LePage reported that the Kensington Chamber has graduated to the status of a Senior Board to better serve their community and age group, and wished them every success in their new venture. The establishment of a Junior Board at Montague is being confidently looked for in the near future.

In closing, Mr. LePage recommended, among other activities for the incoming officers, "That an all-out effort be made to obtain daylight saving for the Province of P. E. Island", and that "we press for an active and cooperative Retail Merchants Association in the City".

Following the singing of "The Queen" a period of silence was observed out of respect to the late Senator J. Walter Jones.

Variety Concert Presented At Church Hall

One of the finest variety concerts ever held under the auspices of the Akita Club was staged last night before a packed audience at the Central Christian Church hall. Master of ceremonies for the evening was the well known entertainer Dick Turpin who kept things moving all evening in his own inimitable manner. The show will be repeated tonight.

A star-studded cast gave the large audience almost everything in entertainment from broad humor to the finest singing. The show opened with the instrumental trio of Hickox, Kemp and Stewart who were followed by the vocal duet of Mary Vessey and Kathryn Beck. A vocal solo by John Owen preceded an instrumental duet by the Gay Sisters with a novelty duet by Kay and Elmer Gallant next. Kelvin Johnston amused the crowd with his "Impersonation and Interpretation" and another top skit by Dick Turpin and Jack Cameron. The first part of the show ended with a banjo selection by Duke Neilson.

After intermission the acts included the "I-H" Ranch Boys, Messrs. Spinney, Blackett, Burke and Santry; a duet by the Graham Sisters; club swinging by Wallie Scantlebury; a top quartette of Messrs. Archer, Beck, MacRae and Stewart; a piano solo by Alan Dunbar and an amusing reading by Mrs. Harry Davison. A solo by Margaret Dignan was followed by the Master of Ceremonies in a song to end the program.

year to year. He congratulated the directors of the show for their efforts which were manifest in the number of exhibits and the fine quality of the stock. Mr. Athol Roberts, President of the Shorthorn Breeders' Association, in making the show and sale such thanked all who had co-operated a success. He asked that those assembled observe a period of silence out of respect to the late Senator Jones who had done so much in the interests of agriculture in the Province.

Mr. W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, whose official retirement took place on March 31st, was pleasantly surprised when he became the receipient of a beautiful tri-lite lamp with a matching smoking stand. Mr. Shaw replied fittingly and expressed the hope that he would still continue to serve the interests of farming in the days that lie ahead.

Started Bidding

So spirited was the bidding that from the time that Auctioneer Claude Craswell started the sale of the show champion, until the 67th animal was knocked down to the highest bidder, less than two hours had elapsed. The following were the chief purchasers, T. Eaton Co., Canada Packers, Swift Canadian Co., The Charlottetown Co-op and Mr. Wellington MacNeill

Cattlemen generally throughout the Province were highly pleased with this splendid sale which would seem to give assurance that Charlottetown will be the centre of one of the finest shows in Canada.

four when he became Premier of Prince Edward Island he performed with youthful vigour and enthusiam the arduous duties of a ten year term in that office. Himself a noted agriculturalist he made outstanding contributions to the welfare of the farming industry of the Island and inaugurated many beneficial policies in other departments of his government. As an administrator he always had the advantage of being a fearless advocate of the policies which he espoused, and he was an energetic and successful supporter of provincial rights.

"The vigorous personality of the late Walter Jones will be greatly missed by the public, and specially by his immediate family to whom most sincere sympathy is extended."

Ottawa Tributes

OTTAWA, (CP)—Colleagues of Senator Walter Jones who died here Wednesday paid tribute to him Thursday in the Senate.

Solicitor-General Macdonald, government leader in the Upper Chamber, described Senator Jones former Premier of Prince Edward Island, as an outstanding Canadian and a loyal native son to his home province. His loss after only five months in the Senate was a matter of regret.

Senator John T. Haig, Opposition leader, said Senator Jones showed promise of being of as great value in the Senate as he had been in the life of his province.

Senator J. J. Kinley (L—Nova Scotia) said Senator Jones' 75 years of life were filled with service and achievement particularly in agriculture and public affairs. He was resolute in action, believed in plain living and practised high thinking.

Other tributes were paid by Senators J. P. McIntyre (L—Prince Edward Island) and Norman Lambert (L—Ontario).

Minister Reviews Work In Education Department

"While teacher training loans and grants have aided in inducing young people to enter the teacher training classes in our Normal School, yet we are still far short of the number we should be training and our schools continue to suffer," stated Hon. Keir Clark, Minister of Education, in speaking in the Budget debate in the Legislature on Wednesday night.

"Although this problem is common to other Provinces of Canada, nevertheless, we must decide how we shall remedy it in our own Province", he continued. "Consideration will be given to the possibility of associating normal training with the academic and giving additional normal training by an extended college year.

"Secondly we will continue with the present policy of teacher training summer refresher courses. Our teachers will be encouraged to improve their qualifications by taking, at least, a certain number of these courses, and grants will be continued to enable them to attend summer schools."

In his speech Mr. Clark spoke about the proposed expenditures for his Department during the coming year; discussed amalgamation of school districts, the assistance paid to schools for the deaf and dumb, the Physical Fitness Department, student aid and the problem of text books in the schools.

Teacher Training

Continuing his discussion of the teacher training situation he stated: "During the summer of 1953 there were 112 of our teachers in attendance at either our own summer school in Charlottetown or at one of the other schools held elsewhere in Eastern Canada.

"The amount allowed to a teacher taking the full six weeks course outside the Province was $80.00 and the amount allowed to teachers taking our own five weeks course was $50.00 for those from the rural areas who were obliged to live away from home.

"Our summer schools are an important part of our normal training work and especially important for any teacher who has been out of the profession for some time. Such teachers are encouraged to attend summer schools in order that their licenses be re-

Fine Showing Made By Island Ayrshires

Island bred Ayrshires topped five out of the 13 production classes and placed second in two more classes in the list of Ayrshire cows completing R.O.P. records released in March by the Canadian Ayrshire Breeders' Association. This is an outstanding achievement considering the small number of cattle on Prince Edward Island compared to the total in Canada.

The top record reported was in the Mature, 365-day class by Hollywood Red Rose, an 8-year-old cow bred and owned by Almon Wood & Sons of Marshfield. Red Rose produced 15,042 lbs. of milk, with a butterfat test of 4.78% for 719 lbs. of fat. This is 154% of qualification requirements for milk and 182% of requirement for fat.

Gartney Anne 2nd, bred by W F.A. Stewart of Strathgartney and now owned by the Experimental Station, St. John's, Nfld., topped the Mature 305-day class with 11,682 lbs. of milk testing 5.27% for 616 lbs. of fat. This is 173% of requirement for fat. It should be noted that requirementsf or qualification are the average of all Ayrshire records completed in each class during the past six years.

The other three cows which had top production in their class are owned by A. MacRae and Sons of Charlottetown. They were Fairvue Fashion Duchess in the junior 4-year-old class; Fairvue Lonely Rose in the junior 3-year-old class, and Fairvue Jeanette in the junior 2-year-old class. Jeanette's junior two-year-old record was 13,323 lbs. of milk testing 4.19% for 558 lbs. of fat produced in 365 days.

Loch Ehd Gladys, bred by W. A. MacLean of Clyde River and now owned by W. A. Trueman & Son, Aulac, N. B., was second in the senior 3-year-old, 365-day class and Columria Pansy bred by J. W. Lewis, Freetown, and now owned by J. H. MacPhail, New Haven, was second highest in the senior 4-year-old 305-day class.

It is interesting to note that all these high producing cows were sired by different sires and were bred and owned in many different herds. Such an excellent showing against all the Ayrshire herds across Canada, representing, as it does, such a divergence of blood lines and ownership, speaks well for Island Aryshire breeders and the calibre of cattle they have developed.

Still Combating Menace Of Ragweed In P.E. Island

"We lost ground in our fight against the menace of ragweed in Prince Edward Island last year," it was stated yesterday by Mr. George V. Fraser, director of the Tourist and Information Bureau.

"Results of our pollen stations show a higher count for 1953 in seven of the eight stations over 1952—the year the ragweed elimination program was launched by the Travel Bureau," Mr. Fraser said. "The only station to show a decrease last year was the one in Charlottetown which had the highest reading in 1952 and this was due to the fact that spraying and elimination activity was confined in 1953 to this city," the Travel Bureau director added. "This points up the fact that ragweed can be controlled and eliminated when the job is tackled in earnest," he said.

Dr. Elzear Campagna of the Federal Department of Agriculture, who established the pollen stations for the Travel Bureau and handles and compiles the results said in a letter to Mr. Fraser this week:

"I am enclosing the 1953 report for your eight stations. You will probably be quite surprised to note the considerable increase in the pollen counts. These increases are particularly noticeable at the P. E. I. National Park and at Cavendish. There are surely important colonies in the neighborhood that have not yet been located and which should be discovered as soon as possible so that they can be destroyed.

"We have noted a general increase at most of the stations of Eastern Canada in 1953. It is however comforting to note that the Charlottetown air index marked a fair decrease. This result should be credited to the excellent eradication work carried on there. If the ragweed had not been destroyed, I am sure that the air index would have reached 6.0 or 7.0 in 1953.

"If the survey is resumed, I am sure the air index will reach a mark as low as 1.0 in Charlottetown in the near future."

The ragweed air index for the Island stations for 1953 with the index for 1952 in brackets is as follows: Dalvay 5.7 (0.3); Charlottetown 2.0 (2.4); Summerside 2.1 (0.4); O'Leary 1.7 (0.2); Tignish 2.5 (0.5); Cavendish 4.6 (0.5); Souris 1.8 (0.4); Montague 0.9 (0.2).

Any community having an index above ten is not recommended for hay fever sufferers, between five and ten is fairly good, below five is good, below one is excellent.

"From the above figures it can be seen that, even though we lost ground last year, we are still an attractive place for hay fever sufferers and a proper program could rid us of the ragweed evil," Mr. Fraser said. "This could mean a lot of extra money to the tourist industry," he added.

Wins Third Prize For Polio Victim

One of the highlights of the Fat Stock Sale held yesterday at the Exhibition buildings was the showing of a 815 lb. steer by a former little polio victim Vera Jewell nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jewell of North River.

Vera's calf had won a third prize in the show and the courageous effort of this little girl was rewarded by very spirited bidding which resulted in the handsome price of 45 1-2 cents per lb. being paid by Canada Packers represented by the local manager, Mr. Gerry Hartlan. The little girl, only two years ago was very seriously afflicted and required hospitalization for a long period of time before she was able to walk again. This fine gesture on the part of Mr. Hartlan won the admiration of all present.
