GEORGE LOWE

346 Spadina Avenue, Toronto.

HE FOUND THE NICKEL.

(From the Chicago Journal.)

I was the only passenger on the car. Midway of the block another came in.

"I guess I'm the doctored fool running loose in this town at the present time."

"So?" I said.

"Yes, sir. I ain't got sense enough to be let go without a guardian. See that car up ahead there?"

"I did. It was half a dozen blocks away."

"Was, sir, run like sixty for more'n a half a block that car?"

"Couldn't catch it, eh?"

"Yes, I could. That's the trouble. I did catch it, and I gin the conductor a dime on the hind platform, and he gin me a nickel change."

"I dropped the nickel overboard. I hollered to the conductor to stop the car, but he wouldn't do it, so I ups a jumps off back ways. Look at my clo'es. When I got up toward me and said:

"I did you find your nickel?"

"Oh, yes, found that right enough. Lost my car, but my clo'es and skin my back just for the gratuity privilege of picking up that doctored nickel an' givin' it to this conductor. I used to think that Bill Thompson was the dingiest fool a-goin' but I guess I'm close on him."

"What did Bill do?"

"Why, don't you know? Bill's got his head stuck in a pitcher, an' 'Bill cut of the head to save the pitcher, an' 'then broke the pitcher to get the head out."

THE LOVE THAT KILLS.

It is not enough that wives must feel that they have the love of their husbands, writes Edward W. Bok in the February Ladies Home Journal.

They should know it, and be told of it. Thoughtlessness and a misunderstanding of the nature of women are at the bottom of all this unexpressed love.

There is a plenty of love already in this world, and a great part of it lies in the hearts of our American husbands.

But it shouldn't be dormant. When it does, it is the love that kills. It should reach expression. It should be given voice, and as often and as warmly as the heart dictates.

A good wife can stand a tremendous quantity of love—all that any man can give her. The danger lies rather in not giving enough than in giving too much.

It is not an unmanly thing for a man to love his wife, although one might readily believe so from the way some men go about it.

Neither is it sickly, manly nor sentiment for him to love his wife. Who has a prior claim to a husband's love and who a better right to know it? What is it that men do for their wives that is at all an equivalent for what wives do for their husbands? Provide for them? Cook? Wash? Clean? Dress? No, no, no! It is a duty and nothing more. In some things it is well that we should go a little farther than the duty line.

The more husbands remain loyal the better it will be for our race. It is the expressed love of a husband that makes a wife radiant, happy, and nothing else can take its place.

USE POND'S EXTRACT

FOR PILES, BURNS, SORE EYES, WOUNDS, SORES, Headache AND ALL PAIN.

Have the early frosts or too late a lingering by the garden gate again aroused that RHEUMATISM so peacefully slumbering the summer long?

Well, if it's very bad you must change your diet and perhaps take some distasteful drug—the doctor will tell you what—but first rub thoroughly the part afflicted with POND'S EXTRACT, then wrap it warmly with flannel, and the rheumatism may wholly disappear.

It will certainly be much relieved. Now that you have the POND'S EXTRACT try it for any of the many things its buff wrapper mentions. It's a wonderful curative. But don't accept substitutes.
