

Social Workers Meet

The N. B. - P. E. I. Branch of the Canadian Association of Social Workers met Saturday, January 15th at the Admiral Beauty Hotel in Saint John. During the business meeting reports were heard from various committees. Miss Kathleen C. Morrissey, Branch Representative, Fredericton, informed the membership that the National Office is awaiting the Report on Special Committee on Program Evaluation and Planning before suggesting any general change in National Policy. This National Committee chaired by Miss Florence Christie of Montreal (formerly of Saint John, N. B.) is attempting to reassess the aims and functions of the Association.

Miss Morrissey announced that Miss Joy Maines of Ottawa, National Executive Secretary will be in the Maritimes in June when she will meet with the members of the Association attending the Maritime Conference on Social Work being held from June 20-24 at Halifax. The President, Mr. W. A. Macdonald, was directed to send a congratulatory letter to Hon. Mr. West, Attorney-General on his announcement of proposed legislation concerning the development of a Central Prison Farm for New Brunswick.

Mrs. Lewis Miller (Fredericton) a new member of the N. B. - P. E. I. Branch was special speaker for this meeting. She is a graduate of the Maritime School of Social Work, Halifax, and recently returned from Scotland where she attended the University of Edinburgh. According to Mrs. Miller the National Assistance Act and National Health Act form the legislative structure of Britain's Social Services. Although this is a contributory system every person in need in Britain is eligible to subsistence Maintenance which is made available to the recipient in cash. Non-contributory pensions are also paid to persons who had no opportunity to contribute prior to the National Assistance Act of 1948.

Dutch Family Welcomed to New Argyle

On the evening of January 7th the people of New Argyle gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacEachern to welcome Mr. and Mrs. John Havenga as new residents to the district. Mr. Arnold MacEachern acted as chairman. Mr. Ralph MacKinnon and Miss Stella MacEachern escorted Mr. and Mrs. Havenga to the chairs of honor. Miss Meredith MacLean was called on to read an address, and Miss Florence MacDougall presented Mr. and Mrs. Havenga with a well filled purse. Mr. Havenga thanked all for their kindness, and felt that they would feel at home in New Argyle. They are jolly good fellows, and were in music, singing, and games. Several Dutch selections were sung by Messrs. John and Henry Havenga. The organizers for the evening were Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie, Stella MacEachern, and John Havenga. A lunch was served by several ladies, after which a pleasant evening was brought to close by singing the Queen and wishing the young couple the best success in their new home.

BREADALBANE

Miss Louise Ramsay, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of January 23, with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Seaman, Breadalbane. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson J. Murray, Fredericton, were visitors to Breadalbane on January 22. The Breadalbane W. I. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William Graham, on January 10.

Friends of Mr. Lawrence Newson, Breadalbane, are sorry to hear of his illness and join in wishing him a speedy recovery. Mr. Newson underwent an appendectomy in the Prince County Hospital, on January 20. On January 21, an enthusiastic group of young people from Breadalbane and Fredericton, met at the home of Messrs. Robert and Franklin Hickox, Glen Valley, for their weekly meeting. A lively sing-song of Gospel Choruses was led by John Swyk with Mrs. Alvin Rowledge at the organ. The Bible discussion on the seventh chapter of Matthew was led by Alvin Rowledge and a poem on judging was read by Elmer Nicholson. "Blest be the Tie That Binds," followed with prayer by Alvin Rowledge brought the meeting to a close.

Miss Peggy MacNeill, teacher of Breadalbane Village School, spent the week-end of January 23rd, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clive MacNeill, North Rustico. Among those attending the funeral of Mr. Angus MacKinnon, Charlottetown, formerly of Rose Valley, were Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Woodside, Mr. Ivan Kennedy, and Mr. Elmer Wigmore. Mr. and Mrs. Reagh MacLeod, Breadalbane, visited friends in Murray River during the week-end of January 22.

Mrs. Allan Hickox was hostess to the "Crawford Memorial", W. M. S. on January 17. An appreciative letter of thanks from Miss Amy Stupp, Haifa, Israel, who had received clothing from a box forwarded by the W. M. S., was read by Mrs. F. E. Murray. Mrs. John Hickox invited the members to her home for the February meeting. Miss Juretta Murray, Breadalbane, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Macintosh, and other friends in Rose Valley.

Dies At 77

The funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Warwick-Kelvey of Fortune Bridge, Prince Edward Island was held on Friday, January 21st, 1935 from the MacLean Funeral Home. The late Mrs. Warwick-Kelvey was born Elsa Duncan in Stockholm, Sweden, on October 24th, 1857 and passed away at Beach Grove Inn on January 19th. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Canon J. T. Ibbott and at the Church of England Cemetery in Souris by Canon Ibbott and Rev. D. J. Sharpe. Mrs. Warwick-Kelvey, whose husband predeceased her several years ago, had no relatives in this country. Captain Neville Heber-Percy was an honorary pallbearer while the active pallbearers were Messrs. R. C. MacLean, Edwin Reid, Harry Burke, J. R. Underhay, L. E. Johnston, and M. W. Weeks.

HAMPTON

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Jas. D. Flood, will be pleased to learn that she is gradually progressing from sudden illness requiring immediate medical attention.

Deep sympathy goes out to the nearest-of-kin of the late Mr. Selwyn Clark, a progressive farmer, and for many years a widely known and highly respected resident of Augustine Cove, whose recent death has brought grief to those residing on the homestead, to others near residing, and a great loss to the community at large. A large concourse of relatives, neighbors and friends were present to pay final tributes of respect, at the funeral services for the late Major Carruthers, widely known and highly respected resident of Augustine Cove, on January 22. The late Mr. Carruthers has been a progressive farmer of that community for many years, had a wide circle of relatives and friends, to whom his death is keenly felt, and his passing a great loss to the community at large.

Our lads of the Navy, stationed at Halifax, arrived to spend the week-end at their respective homes, namely: G. R. Ferguson and Victor MacFadyen, on January 21. It was pleasing to see such a large representative gathering of our young people, with a nice percentage of adults, present to see and enjoy the pictures shown in Hampton Hall, on January 21, with Mr. Merrill operating the projector.

Quite a number of hockey fans of our district were present to cheer the Islanders as they defeated Moncton Hawks at the Forum on January 21. Crapaud Rink opened on January 22, with a large assembly of skaters.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Willis, and young daughter Susanne, were welcome visitors at Hampton, on January 23.

Mr. John H. Myers was a visitor among relatives and friends at Moncton during the past week. Mr. Myers relates the drastic loss of a farmer who is the owner of a not far distant island to which he transports his large herd of cattle, by scows, to pasture there during the summer months, and returns them to the mainland by driving them across the ice, when the ice is sufficiently strong to carry the large herd. Following the frost, previous to that of January 21, the cattle started across the precarious frozen waters of their own accord, resulting in the drowning of 30 of their number, before the rest of the herd could be rounded up and returned to the island.

Friends of Mrs. Joseph Dunsford, desire to express best wishes for an early restoration to good health, following a major operation in the P. E. I. Hospital, and return to her home at South Melville. Best wishes for an early restoration to health and duty are being extended to Mrs. Stewart, wife of the Hon. W. F. A. Stewart, Strathgartney, following an operation recently performed at the P. E. I. Hospital.

Miss Ruth Dunsford, South Melville, was among the P. W. C. students spending the week-end at the homes of their parents.

Miss Helen Cameron, Nurse in the P. E. I. Hospital, has returned to duty following the care of her father during a prolonged illness. Mr. Mark Cameron is visiting relatives and friends in the city, from whom Mr. Cameron is receiving a hearty welcome and congratulation upon return to health and duty following a long period of illness.

Favorable weather and roads greeted worshippers attending the services of public worship here on January 23. The message taken from the words: "What is man that Thou art mindful of him?", received an attentive hearing, the congregation also blending their voices with the choir in the hymns of the services. —CE.

NORTH RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. James Jewell of Kingston, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jewell.

The farmers of this community are very busy cutting and hauling home their winter supply of wood. Mr. George Grant was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Grace Yeo and family. The friends of Mrs. Donald Ramsay of North River, were very sorry to hear she had the misfortune of falling and breaking her leg, and she is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Many of the pupils of East Wiltshire School, were home for a few days through illness. Mr. John Jewell and Mr. Les Warren were in town on business, January 21. The card and crokinole party which was held in East Wiltshire new school on January 22, was very largely attended.

The many friends of Mrs. Owen Younker of Kingston, are very sorry to hear of her continued illness. The pupils of Warren Grove School are making wonderful progress under the skillful management of their teacher Mr. Mutch. Master Hollis Jewell spent last Thursday night visiting his cousins, Kenneth, Wendall and Clifford, Kenneth. —CE.

EAST BALDIC

Miss Helen Campbell returned by plane to Ottawa having spent the Christmas and New Year holidays with her mother, Mrs. John C. Campbell and brothers at Red Point. Miss Campbell has been with the Civil Service at Ottawa for the past 15 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Stewart have taken up residence in Moncton having spent some time with Mr. Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Stewart, Red Point. Eldon has been with the navy for several years and is now stationed in Moncton.

Mrs. Robert MacGregor, East Baltic, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Clinton Stewart, Kingsboro.

The government road scraper made a wonderful job of levelling off the main highways which were almost unfit to travel on. The machine was capably operated by Mr. Faunce Peters, Rollo Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose, Red Point, attended the meeting held in Summerside on January 11 in the interest of all up and doing turkey raisers in the province.

Many farmers are certainly taking advantage of the recent mild weather in getting clear of their cellar full of spuds and they are receiving not a bad price.

Mr. John Shaw, Montague, was a business visitor to Red Point, South Lake and East Point, January 12.

The many friends of Mrs. Albert Garrett are most pleased to learn that she is at present convalescing at the home of her daughter Mrs. Clarence Ching and Mrs. Ching, Black Pond, following her long illness in the Souris Hospital and all hope to see her out and about as usual again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Young and family Albion Cross were recent visitors to Red Point and Kingsboro.

Messrs. E. S. Rose, Clayton Rose, East Baltic, motored recently to Charlottetown and Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson, Kingsboro, spent New Years with Mrs. Robertson's sister, Mrs. Dell Gioner and family, Charlottetown.

Mrs. George Robertson is out and about again following her recent illness at her home in East Baltic.

Mrs. Gordon Ramsey, Elmira, was a visitor recently to Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Robertson have recently moved in to their new house in Kingsboro, and their many friends wish them much happiness in their new abode. Mr. Chester McNeill and Mr. William Jarvis did the complete work of this beautiful new house.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mooney, Elmira, Mrs. Alex McIntyre, Lora Valley, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McNeill, Red Point.

Mr. Elmer Fraser is confined to his home at South Lake with pleurisy and a speedy get well is cordially extended to him.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conway and family North Lake motored to Charlottetown on January 16th.

Mr. Frank Holland, North Lake had the misfortune of having his tractor upset while helping out his neighbour who had difficulty with his tractor at the shore while they were engaged in putting up gravel. Mr. Holland got pinned under his tractor and received a bad shaking up and four broken ribs. He is now resting as comfortably as can be expected in the Souris Hospital. Mr. Holland has only just returned to his home from the veterans wing of the P. E. I. Hospital where he had been a patient for quite some time.

Mrs. John Ryan, Lakeville, has taken up residence at the Sacred Heart Home, Charlottetown, for the winter months.

Mr. Beverly Morrow, Souris, is spending some time visiting with his grandparents, Rev. H. R. and Mrs. Bell, Red Point.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Robertson and Mr. Alvin Robertson, Kingsboro, were business visitors to Charlottetown on Jan. 13th.

Messrs. Edgar Rose, Alvin Rose and Lee Coffin returned to their homes in East Baltic and Kingsboro from Ashland, Maine, where they were employed in the lumber woods, recent heavy snow prevented further work.

Miss Feairie Stewart Bothwell spent January 9th with her aunt, Mrs. Jermiah Simpson who is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital as the result of a car accident, she was involved in, in early fall, and who is at present making a good recovery.

Mr. Neil A. McLellan, Red Point, received the word that his brother-in-law Mr. John McMillan of Canavoy had recently undergone a successful operation in the Charlottetown Hospital. His friends in this district wish him a speedy get well.

Sincere sympathy of many friends and associates goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Somers, Charlottetown on the tragic death of their baby boy who lost his life when their home was completely destroyed by fire on January 15th. Mr. Somers was well known in the North Lake district as he a few years ago, fished there with his father Mr. Art Somers, Charlottetown, and his sister Mrs. George Conway resides at North Lake.

North Lake School was opened on January 17, having been closed since the holidays due to illness of the teacher, Mrs. Floyd McLean, Kingsboro and her friends are happy to learn that she is fully recovered.

Mrs. James Dingwell, North Lake, visited with her grandson, Heath Dingwell, who is a patient in the Polio Clinic at the Provincial Sanatorium.

Mrs. Neil A. McLellan, Red Point, is out and about again following her recent illness at her home.

Mr. Walter Douglas, Souris, spent a pleasant evening at Red Point, January 13.

Mr. Edwin Fraser, Red Point, motored to Charlottetown on January 9th where he visited with friends and relatives.

The C. G. I. T. meeting was held in Kingsboro on January 14th. Miss Ruth McIntyre, student at st. Mary's Convent, Souris, spent the week-end at her home in East Point. Miss Ronelda McIsaac, Souris, is spending some time with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. McLellan, Red Point. Mr. Jack McDonald, well known potato inspector was on business to Elmira recently. Mr. Earle C. Johnson, Fortune, was in the eastern districts delivering trap material to his many fishermen. Mrs. Russell Dingwell, North Lake, visited with her son Master Heath at the polio ward in the Provincial Sanatorium on January 15th, it is most encouraging to learn that Heath has made a good recovery and will soon be able to return home. Mr. James McCormack, North Lake, has taken up residence for the winter months in Charlottetown. Mrs. Arthur Bruce, Red Point, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Kingsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson entertained the Ladies' Aid members for the January meeting at her home in Kingsboro, January 11, and was very largely attended. Mrs. Annie McVane, Bothwell, spent a few days guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ching, Basin Head. Mrs. Charles McMahon is teaching in the Elmira School for the remainder of the term. Mr. Fay McPhee and Mr. Pius McEachern, Souris, were Jan. 16th visitors in the eastern districts. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ching, Black Pond visited with Mrs. Ching's father, Mr. Elmer Fraser, who is ill at his residence in South Lake. Messrs. William Fraser and Robert Rose, North Lake, were business visitors to Charlottetown Jan. 11. The Elmira and North Lake residents are counting the days until they will be turning on the lights at present the men in charge are working on the road and getting everything in order to put power down. Mrs. Edward Lapierre returned to her home at Black Pond, having spent some time with friends and relatives at South Lake. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. George Conway, North Lake, on the recent tragic death of her little nephew, Freddie Somers in Charlottetown, Jan. 15th. The friends and associates regret to learn that Mr. Garfield Johnson of Peter's Road is at present receiving medical treatment in Boston. Mr. Johnson has for the past several years been an up and doing lobster fisherman at East Point and North Lake and a speedy recovery is extended to him from his friends in this part of the Island. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Massey, Bothwell, attended the McCormack and Chaston wedding reception in Souris on January 12th. Mr. Luland Dixon, Bothwell, was a recent visitor to Red Point and Souris.

ANGLO RUSTICO W. I. The regular monthly meeting of Anglo Rustico W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Stewart Parkman on Jan. 4. The meeting opened with the Ode followed by the Creed. Roll call was answered by 7 members telling about their favorite Christmas gift. A bill of $3.93 for school treat was paid also a bill for cards. A receipt for $5.00 was received from the T. B. League. There was no correspondence to attend to at this meeting. Reports were given by the committees and new committees were appointed as follows: sick, Mrs. D. Anderson and Mrs. E. Rollings; program, Miss Jean Chandler and Mrs. E. Rollings; school, Mrs. C. Toombs; lunch, Mrs. N. Hooper and Mrs. D. Anderson. Mrs. Reid Stevenson invited the next meeting to her home. Roll call is to be answered with ways women can save money. The meeting closed by singing the Queen and lunch was served by the committee in charge.

CAVDENISH W. I. The Avonlea W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Olaf Stevenson. Meeting opened by singing the Ode and repeating the Creed in unison. There were thirteen members present. It was decided that the teachers of the two schools would purchase the health and native series. New committees were: Cavadenish sick, Mrs. John MacNeill and Mrs. Alfred Moore; Cavadenish sick, Miss Blanche Wyand and Miss Kaye Buchanan; Rustico School, Mrs. Wm. Stevenson and Mrs. Wm. Toombs; Rustico sick, Mrs. Earl Simpson and Mrs. Robert Woolmer. It was moved and seconded to bring a Valentine parcel to be auctioned. It was decided to send for remnant to Simpson Sears and Eatons. Roll call to be answered by a Valentine verse. The programme consisted of a group discussion on a typical rural community. Lunch was then served. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

INTERNATIONAL leads the field

new models...new features

It's Canada's Most Up-to-Date, Most Complete Truck Line

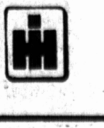

INTERNATIONAL continually brings you great new truck features, new truck models, plus new value for your truck dollar. International follows this policy to give you right now the new developments that will help you do your hauling jobs better, cut your costs and boost your profits. Before you invest in another truck, check all the new developments shown here—then let your International Dealer or Branch give you all the reasons why International is Canada's best truck buy.

International Trucks

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY OF CANADA LTD., 225 Thorne Avenue, Saint John, N. B.

W. R. JENKINS Charlottetown, P. E. I. New Models Expected Daily

PETER G. CLARK Summerside, P. E. I.

E. C. GAUDETTE Tignish, P. E. I.

NEW increased power now available in all International truck engines.

NEW light duty optional features include tubeless tires and automatic transmission.

NEW multi-stop models (RM150) with METRO bodies—14,000 to 16,000 lbs. GVW. Ten Metro and Metrolite Models. METRO-Matic transmission available.

NEW Cab-over-engine models—3 series. 15' models from 11,000 to 30,000 lbs. GVW—50,000 to 65,000 lbs. GCW.

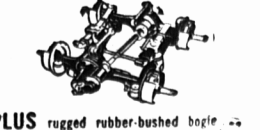

NEW 201 by Royal Red Diamond 501 engine standard in R220 and RF230 series models.

PLUS 10 diesel engines for 30 models. The INTERNATIONAL line of 185 basic models offers widest choice of power—30 engine gasoline, LPG and diesel.

NEW RF-230 60,000 lbs. GVW six-wheeler added to line of 24 six-wheeler models. International six-wheeler offer everything you need in a "tough job" heavy-duty truck.

PLUS rugged rubber-bushed bogie that eliminates 10 lubrication points and reduces road shock. Exclusive torque arm design straddle mounted on axle and frame for greatly increased strength.

PLUS four-wheel drive models of 11,000 and 15,000 lbs. GVW—built for lowest cost operation in roughest, toughest terrain.

CANADIAN GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION