

Local and Other Items.

HOCKEY.—There will be a rattling hockey match at the rink to-night. Admission 10 cents.

A. O. H.—A meeting of Charlottetown Division, A. O. H., will be held this (Friday) evening at half past seven.

THREE OF A KIND.—There are said to be in the neighborhood of Grand River, C. B., two women 100 years each and one 103 years of age.

THE JESUITS.—The Rev. D. J. G. Macdonald will deliver his lecture on "The Jesuits" in the Lyceum this (Friday) evening. Give him a full house.

LECTURE.—Remember Rev. D. J. Gregory Macdonald's lecture in the Lyceum this evening. Subject, "The Jesuits." A large audience is expected.

NEW HOTEL.—A company composed of American and Halifax capitalists is being formed to building a $380,000 hotel on Pleasant street, Halifax.

I. O. O. F.—The members of St. Lawrence Lodge are requested to meet at Oddfellows Hall on Saturday evening at half-past seven for practice of the third degree.

TIGHT LACING.—A Halifax servant girl named Duff died a few days ago from the effects of tight lacing. It may be added that she was shortly to become a mother.

THEATRICAL.—Harry Lindley and Jerry Cohan have applied for dates at the Lyceum, Halifax. Both are well known to Charlottetown theatre-goers. They will likely visit this place after their Halifax season.

NOTICE.—The Tryon Woolen Company have closed their store in the Cameron Block, and opened out in the Stevenson Building, Queen Street, opposite to Messrs. Norton & Fennell's. feb28 5i

SCARLET FEVER.—A good many cases of scarlet fever are reported in the vicinity of Moncton. There are, however, few cases in the town. The disease is said to be especially prevalent on the Shediac Road.

WORTH ATTENDING.—The hockey match at the Hillsborough Rink, this evening, will be well worth attending. Both teams are very evenly matched, and a lively series of games may be expected.

FIRE.—On Tuesday morning last the county court house and jail at Vancouver, B. C., were destroyed by fire, together with most of the county records. The building was valued at $55,000; insurance $25,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

THE STANLEY, which left Pictou at six o'clock this morning, arrived within six miles of Georgetown at half-past one, where she was stopped by the ice, and where she remained till about 4 o'clock, when she succeeded in making the wharf.

HARD ON THE INSPECTOR.—Liquor Inspector Lawrence, of Truro, by whom several liquor casks were taken during the existence of the Scott Act in Colchester county, has been compelled by an execution to pay all costs and damages for liquors seized. The total sum is $332.15.

METHODIST.—The quarterly official meeting of the Cornwall circuit was held on the 27th inst. The pastor, Rev. D. Davies Moore, A. M., received a cordial invitation to remain for a third year, but intimated that, having accepted a call to the foreign work in India, he would be unable to continue here further than June next. Mr. Moore will carry with him the love and esteem of all his people.

TEA AT MONTAGUE.—The tea given in the Montague Hall last evening by the Methodist congregation was a great success. The attendance was very large, the hall tastefully decorated, and the tables well patronized. The Georgetown Boys' Band furnished excellent music during the evening. We understand that the amount realized was in the neighborhood of $100.

MCGINTY CAPTURED.—A great many stories have been about the finding of McGinty, but we are credibly informed that it was only the other day he was really discovered between Mount Stewart and the city (in company with his twin brother) in a most peculiar situation. The Government official who extricated him deserves great credit for his pluck as Mr. McGinty was supplied with an abundance of explosives, and frantically declared that he needed no more commodities quarters than where he was.

Personal.

Richard Hunt, Esq., of Summerside, is at the Hotel Davies.

Hon. A. J. Macdonald, Georgetown, is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Rev. A. J. Macdonald, of Fort Augustus, was in the city to-day.

Mr. William F. Best, analytical chemist, St. John, N. B., is among the passengers in the Stanley which left Pictou for Georgetown this morning. It is understood that he is to give evidence in the poisoning case.

We are pleased to see that Mr. Charles R. Smallwood, of the firm of Warburton & Smallwood, has sufficiently recovered from his five weeks attack of rheumatic fever to be able to drive about.

Mr. Theo. L. Chappelle, returned from his very pleasant trip to Canada and the United States this afternoon.

Gladstone's vitality has asserted itself. He has shaken off the catarrhal trouble that afflicted him for several days and is rapidly mending.

It is said that Dom Pedro has written to Brazil resigning his sovereignty. He believes that he will now be allowed to return and spend his last days in the country and among the people he loves so well.

The Quebec papers speak very highly of Bishop Courtney, of Nova Scotia, who preached in the Quebec English Cathedral on Sunday last.

Mr. McInerney, the editor of the Limerick Leader, has been sentenced to imprisonment for one month for publishing a report received by cable of a league meeting.

Another of the old residents is gone at the ripe old age of 82 years. We refer to the death after an illness of two weeks, of Mr. James Hall, who has for many years resided near the village of Traveller's Rest. "An honest man" is the noble tribute to his memory given by those among whom he lived.

Mr. Hall some 50 or 60 years ago emigrated with his parents from Ireland to this Island. His remains were borne to the Baptist cemetery at Bedouque on Tuesday, followed by a large number of relatives and friends. He leaves behind him a widow and a number of sons and daughters with which we sympathize in their bereavement.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Summary of Proceedings.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.

In the House to-day, Mr. Brown moved the second reading of his anti-pigeon shooting bill, and Mr. Tisdale moved the six months' hoist, which was lost by 81 to 91, and the bill was read a second time.

Mr. Taylor moved the second reading of his bill to prohibit the importation of contract labor. He said this had become necessary in consequence of the harsh manner in which the United States had enforced a similar law against Canada.

Sir John Macdonald said he had no objection to the matter being discussed, but thought it better that the bill should not be discussed at present.

Mr. Laurier favored immediate decision, and blamed the government for not having hitherto made strong representations on the subject.

Sir John Thompson said that within the last few months strong representations had been made by two members of the Government to Secretary Blaine whose answer was that the law had been passed by Congress the administration had no power to prevent its enforcement. Its application to Canadians had not been made at the instance of the Washington Government, but at the instance of residents adjacent to Canada, who considered it in their interest to keep out Canadian workmen.

The Knights of Labor were interesting themselves to secure the rigid enforcement of this law, and in the present state of the labor movement there it was hopeless to expect that Canada could secure exemption.

After further discussion Sir John Macdonald moved the adjournment of the debate, and at 11.15 the House rose.

The Fisheries Question Again.

LONDON, Feb. 26.

Minister Paunceforte being found not quite sympathetic to Lord Salisbury on many important questions of policy will in future be assisted by a high official from here, probably Sir Charles Tupper, whose mission, however, will be very extemporary. He will probably sail this week. The difficulty arises through Lord Stanley, Salisbury and Paunceforte holding divergent opinions on the fisheries questions and the situation in Canada which caused the three to be slightly incoherent. It is urged in high quarters that Paunceforte will shortly be superseded.

Another Report.

LONDON, Feb. 27.

The report of the Marquis of Hartington's commission on the army and navy will appear next week. It is severe on the War Office system, which it finds extravagant, cumbersome and inefficient. It dwells with emphasis upon the fact that the responsibility of all heads of the bureau is only nominal, and proposes to abolish the position of Commander-in-Chief, now held by the Duke of Cambridge, and to substitute a military Chief of Staff, to be assisted by an Advisory Board, to whom all heads of departments shall be directly responsible. It declares the navy well organized and admirably managed.

Presentation to Sir John A. Macdonald.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.

Sir John Macdonald was this afternoon presented with a handsome portrait of himself in Windsor uniform, painted by Sandham, R. C. A. The portrait is an excellent likeness of the chief, and has been greatly admired. Senator Ogilvie read an address of congratulation on behalf of the Conservative Senators and M. P's. Sir John was much affected, and replied with deep emotion.

The Toronto University Matter.

MONTREAL, Feb. 27.

Le Canadien to-day expresses the hope that the government will not persist in asking the House to vote $10,000 for the Toronto University, arguing that Premier Mercier only wants to stand better in the opinion of the English element.

Not Settled Yet.

LONDON, Feb. 27.

Right Hon. Sir James Ferguson, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, denied in the House of Commons that the Behring Sea question was settled. Negotiations, he said, are still pending.

Lecture at Rollo Bay.

[SPECIAL BY TELEPHONE.]

REV. D. J. G. MACDONALD, of St. Margaret's, delivered a lecture in Rollo Bay Hall last night to a large and appreciative audience. The subject was "The Jesuits," which has been one of much interest to our Canadian people of late. It was dealt with in a masterly manner, and showed that the learned lecturer was thoroughly posted in all matters concerning the society since its conception. During the lecture Dr. Little's article on "The Jesuits," published in the Encyclopedia Britannica, received some crushing remarks. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the rev. lecturer, to which he made a brief reply.
