ounded slightly as they eked out a 59-58 win over Mount St. as Trevor Willock scored his final basket with 11 seconds to go being decisive. The tide really turned on Saturday night, however, as our team scored their biggest of the season triumphing nationally ranked (6) previously unbeaten, age-leading St. F.X. 5-75.

We led 40-35 at the half after resumption of play whittled away at our lead & finally evened it up at 49-49. The lead then passed back forth for a few minutes until Tejan Alleyne got a break of baskets from outside. We scored 12 points in a row to gain a 15 point advantage and eventually the 10 point win. Tejan was high on us with 24 while Tyrone Norman was close behind with 21.

We are uncertain as to our standing in the league — games with N.S. teams count points, we have a 4-4 record with two N.S. wins, and will play two more here with Dal and Acadia.

We are confident of making the playoffs and have made reservations for Halifax for the A.U.A.A. finals on March 2 and 3.

Between Xmas and New Year's we took advantage of an empty seat in the van and travelled with the team, to Ottawa to attend the Carleton Tournament and visit our daughter.

The team beat McGill and Guelph quite easily but lost to Carleton by 2 in the final.

On the return trip we were amazed at the treatment a new player must endure to be considered a real Panther. With impressive ceremony Tyrone Norman, assisted by Mike Morgan (and to a lesser degree, Coach Morrison) inducted Delroy Adams into the select group. We doubt that the Inquisition, the Spartans or the Iroquois devised more rigorous tortures than that which Delroy had to suffer!

In the final stages, Mike Morgan got caught in his own web and was forced to join Delroy in supplications for mercy. It all ended up with the two of them charging through the New Brunswick underbrush in a fashion unequalled since the Micmacs hunted deer and moose in the same setting!

We can't imagine that this is a method to be used in attracting new recruits but we do wish to attest ... Delroy Adams has paid his dues and should evermore be recognized as a real Panther!

Jobs ... jobs ... jobs ... jobs ... jobs

Regarding summer employment opportunities with the Federal Government, there are a few competitions I would like to summarize. The deadline is January 30.
