

Tennyson's New Poem.

The literary sensation of the week in London has been Tennyson's poem "Vastness," printed in Macmillan. It is a political and social movement. The following are the most striking verses:—

Vaccination.

At the present time, when vaccination numbers more disciples than it ever did in the past, Dr. Tyndall's explanation of its "philosophy" will be interesting to our readers. After pointing out that the mineral matter in the ashes of burnt wheat or barely straw is absolutely essential to the growth of the crop, and that in a soil lacking the necessary constituents, neither tree nor cereal can live. Professor Tyndall thus continues: "Now, contagia are living things, which demand certain elements of life just as inexorably as trees, or wheat or barely; and it is not difficult to see that a crop of a given parasite may so far use up a constituent existing in small quantities in the body, but essential to the growth of the parasite, as to render the body unfit for the production of a second crop. The soil is exhausted; and, until the lost constituent is restored, the body is protected from any further attack from the same disorder. Such an explanation of non-recurrent diseases naturally presents itself to a thorough believer in the germ theory; and such was the solution which, in reply to a question, I ventured to offer nearly fifteen years ago to an eminent physician. To exhaust a soil, however, a parasite less vigorous and destructive than the really virulent one may suffice; and if, after having, by means of a feeble organism, exhausted the soil without fatal results, the most highly virulent parasite be introduced into the system, it will prove powerless. This, in the language of the germ theory, is the whole secret of vaccination."

NOTES.

WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of this genuine Soap of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by Red and Yellow Wrappers, or any of the imitations of the WELCOME, as a pair of clasped hands is stamped on every bar. Made by CURTIS, DAVIS & Co.
