IN MEMORIAM

TIMMINS—In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. J. D. Timmins who passed away March 29th, 1949.

Treasured memories are all we have left, of one we loved and never forget.

Lovingly remembered by the family.

IN MEMORIAM

A. J. MCKINNON

It was with a feeling of deep loss that the people of Monticello and surrounding area heard of the sudden passing of Mr. Angus J. McKinnon. Although in failing health for the past few years, he was about his regular work until the morning of October 10th, when he suffered a heart attack and died within the matter of minutes.

He was born at Monticello, July 1882, son of the late John McKinnon and Catherine McEachern. It was here that he spent his entire lifetime where with his brother, he was successfully engaged in farming. In 1925 he opened a general store which he operated up until the time of his death.

Mr. McKinnon was a man of many outstanding qualities. He possessed a quiet disposition together with an air of reflection. His calm deliberation and sound judgement never allowed emotion to govern his decisions; his foresight and tenacity of spirit saw the fulfillment of his endeavours. Though never effusive, he had a kindly heart that went out to those in need.

His wide circle of acquaintances will mourn the passing of a good friend. In his years of service to the public he displayed his fine sense of integrity as well as his devotion to the interests of those whom he served. He was methodical in his work and realized his true dignity. He recognized his duty to God and to his fellow men.

He was administered the Last Rites of Holy Mother Church by Father Wendell McIntyre who was caring for the needs of the Parish in the absence of the Pastor, Father McLeod.

He leaves to mourn, two brothers, Pius, at home; Daniel of Los Angeles, Calif., four sisters, Minnie (Mrs. Creamer) of Belmont, Mass.; Margaret (Mrs. Patterson) Malden, Mass.; Laura, (Mrs. Angus MacDonald) Public Landing, N.B., and Alice, at home.

His funeral, under the direction of the Charlottetown Funeral Home, was held to St. Margaret's Church where a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Father McIntyre. Father George MacDonald, former Parish Priest was present in the Sanctuary. The pallbearers are R.D. McKinnon, William Hanning, John W. MacDonald, James C. MacDonald, Hugh B. MacDonald and Elmer O'Hanley. Services at the grave were conducted by Father McIntyre.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the Clergy, our neighbours, those who sent Mass Cards and messages of sympathy, and all those who, in so many ways, helped us in our recent sad bereavement.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Malcolm Putnam and the nurses of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, also my friends who sent cards and treats to me while I was a patient.

Mrs. Donald McLure, Bradalbane.
