

WEATHER
Clear with a few snowflurries; west winds 30 with gusts to 45, diminishing in afternoon to 25. Low-high 5 and 15.

"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

Island Crops To Hold Top Quality as Be Boosted

Causeway Question Answered

CAPITAL BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
OTTAWA, Nuchterland Consultants Limited were engaged to assist in the planning of the Prince Edward Island causeway last December, the House of Commons was told Monday.

Boy Committed In Murder Case

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP) — Charged with capital murder of a 10-year-old girl, Robert Maxwell Lingard was committed Monday by Saint John County Magistrate J. C. G. MacNeil to a preliminary hearing that lasted two days.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

INSIDE TODAY

- Announcements, notices 10
- Births, deaths 10, 11
- Classified 10, 11
- Finance markets 10, 11
- Comics 9
- Editorials 9
- News 9
- Quebec 9
- Prince County 9
- Summerhouse 9
- Sport 9
- Women's 9

AUSTIN SCALES, Charlottetown (right) draws smiles from left to right, Keith Harrington, M.L.A., Kingston Riv't; Charlie Willis, O'Leary potato dealer and producer and Glen MacLaren, district inspector in charge of seed potato certification, Canada department of agriculture, at the potato meeting held in Summerside a Legion Hall yesterday.

Alberton Man On Yacht Grounded On U.S. Coast

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard said Monday a 62-foot yacht, grounded Sunday night on a reef off North Carolina's Outer Banks. The three men aboard escaped in a 16-foot skiff to Portsmouth island and walked to a resident's home today.

Island National Park Second With Visitors

CAPITAL BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
OTTAWA — Final 1962 attendance figures for Canada's national parks have been made available here. They show that from April 1 to December 31, the Prince Edward Island park had the second highest number of visitors of all Canadian parks. The total was 1,069,021, compared to 775,383 for 1961, an increase of 36.43 per cent.

PLANE FORCED DOWN ON LAKE

Dion, Seven Passengers Enjoyed life in Igloo

ST. JOVITE, Que. (CP) — The pilot and seven passengers of a Newmarket aircraft which crashed in the relative comforts of Fort Chimo, Que., Monday after two weeks of sub-Arctic country west of Ungava Bay.

LIST PASSENGERS

The plane had been chartered by the northern airlines department and among the Quebec City passengers were A. F. Flucke, 49, of Prince Albert, Sask., the deputy U.S. administrator at Fort Chimo.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

telephone to Mr. Stott in hospital. Mr. Stott said all three were okay but were in for check-up. He said the ship was still afloat but he expected it to be blown shortly. They grounded in a bog storm, he added.

The coast guard said Mrs. Marion Barb, of Portsmouth Island on the Outer Banks, called the O'Leary yacht at the station Monday reporting that three men had walked to her home and said they were shipwrecked on a reef off the island. They landed on the island by helicopter.

Parliament At A Glance

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
MONDAY, Jan. 28, 1963
The cabinet faced a barrage of opposition questions in the House of Commons today. Defence Minister Harkness issued a press release interpreting Prime Minister Diefenbaker's Friday defence speech.

PLANE FORCED DOWN ON LAKE

Dion, Seven Passengers Enjoyed life in Igloo

Saturday to cover the remaining 50 miles to Fort Chimo. The pilot, Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City and a 17-year-old Eskimo boy, Susy Kudluk, arrived in Fort Chimo Sunday night by dogteam in a 16-foot skiff. The other passengers were rescued and flown Monday to Fort Chimo, 800 miles north of Quebec City, by a Quebec government plane.

LIST PASSENGERS

The plane had been chartered by the northern airlines department and among the Quebec City passengers were A. F. Flucke, 49, of Prince Albert, Sask., the deputy U.S. administrator at Fort Chimo.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

FINE IN COINS IS VALUABLE

VANCOUVER (CP) — When coin collector C. A. Skinner heard that Dr. John Joseph Valdaris had paid $600 for a 1902 penny to set his car out of a police pound, Skinner offered to buy the pennies at face value. Skinner gleefully estimated their value later at about $300.

Thaw Lingers Over Britain

LONDON (CP) — Bizzards lashed Italy, Hungary and Poland Monday but a welcome thaw lingered on in Britain and over much of Western Europe. Snow plows were busy across the continent.

Gov't Announces Revision In Magazine Tax Measure

OTTAWA (CP) — The government announced new tax measures today, including a revision in the magazine tax measure. The new measure would exempt Time International of Canada from the new law.

Reader's Digest 'Encouraged'

MONTREAL (CP) — Paul Zimmerman, president of Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Limited, said Monday his magazine is "very much encouraged" by the government's announced policy on foreign publications.

Move Acceptable, Macleans Says

TORONTO (CP) — Floyd Chalmers, president of the Maclean-Hunter Publishing Company, said Monday a federal government tax measure on foreign publications is "entirely acceptable" to his firm.

Cold, Ate Whole Blubber, Pilot Says Of Survival

TORONTO (CP) — Pilot Paul Joseph Garon, 24, of Quebec City, who Sunday night walked into Fort Chimo, a lonely outpost 200 miles north of Quebec City, after being lost in the sub-Arctic wasteland for two weeks, said Monday there was no panic among the eight persons in his plane when it made a forced landing in a bog Monday Jan. 13.

Industry's Aspects Probed At Meeting

By NEIL MATHESON
Farm and Provincial Editor
Prince Edward Island potatoes will continue to hold a top spot on the best markets, they command a big premium over the premium product they have been able to produce up to the present. This was the general theme of speakers who dealt with potato production from British Columbia to P.E.I. at a meeting in Summerside Legion Hall yesterday.

Space Year Was Success, JFK Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first year was the most successful in United States space history, President Kennedy told Congress Monday.

Famed Balloonist Dies At Age 70

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Dr. Jean Felix Piccard, famed for his stratospheric balloon flights in 1931, died Monday at age 70. Piccard was born in 1894 in Basel, Switzerland, and was a Swiss citizen in 1931.

No Gains Made At EC Meeting

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—Dutch Foreign Minister Joos de Graaf told reporters after Monday night's crucial meeting in Britain's effort to join the European Common Market that "there is no progress" and he is "not at all optimistic."

NO RECONCILIATION

But West German sources said views between France and the five Common Market partners, who strongly support Britain's entry.

Shark Victim

Marcia Hatheway, 33, state actress, was mangled to death Monday by a shark while swimming with her fiancé, Frederick Knight, 31, in the harbor of Sydney, Australia.

Shark Victim

Marcia Hatheway, 33, state actress, was mangled to death Monday by a shark while swimming with her fiancé, Frederick Knight, 31, in the harbor of Sydney, Australia.

Shark Victim

Marcia Hatheway, 33, state actress, was mangled to death Monday by a shark while swimming with her fiancé, Frederick Knight, 31, in the harbor of Sydney, Australia.

Shark Victim

Marcia Hatheway, 33, state actress, was mangled to death Monday by a shark while swimming with her fiancé, Frederick Knight, 31, in the harbor of Sydney, Australia.