because Mr. Van Bridge said not to worry about the weather. "This is the fourth time I've been to Charlottetown," he smiled, "and by far it's the best weather we've had yet."

The two day visit by Tony Van Bridge was a tremendous success with all who were lucky enough to see, or, better yet, meet him. The one-man show as Gilbert Keith Chesterton was a thoroughly enjoyable event, and the two informal sessions with him the following day were equally entertaining. As someone so aptly put it at the banquet, Charlottetown and UPEI were fortunate enough to have had two distinguished visitors on November 18th and 19th - G.K. Chesterton, and Tony Van Bridge.
