Outstanding Entertainment At Montague

One of the season's outstanding entertainments was presented in the A. D. MacKenzie Hall, Montague, last evening by the Young Adults Club of Trinity United Church. The hall was filled to capacity and each member received the hearty applause of the large, appreciative audience.

The program included a one-act play, "She Married Well", a chorus "The Bells of St. Mary's", a vocal number and instrumental selections. Special attractions included the Charlotteville octette and a mixed quartet from Vernon River. The play, a one-act comedy directed by Mrs. C. A. Shaw, was thoroughly enjoyed and featured in the cast were Mrs. C. A. Shaw, Mrs. S. C. MacLean, Miss Shirley Jenkins, L. A. Johnston, John White and Archie Hilchey. Dr. A. D. MacKenzie very capably acted as master of ceremonies and extended a cordial welcome to everyone.

The following is the program:
Duet: "Blueberry Hill" and "A Penny A Kiss"—Dianne and Irene Webster.
Solo: "When I Grow Too Old To Dream" and "Pagan Love Song"—Miss Anita Thompson.
Octette: "Blow, Bugles, Blow" and "A Song of Peace."
Duet: "Hillbilly Selections"—Misses Janet Rupert and Irene Giddings, Charlottetown.
Mixed quartet from Vernon River: "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton" and "She Sleeps, My Lady Fair."
Solo: "Peter Cottontail" and "So Long"—Robert Ross, Lower Montague.
Reading: Mrs. Harry Davison, Charlottetown.
Solo and chorus: "The Bells of St. Mary's"—Mrs. Doug Coffin (soloist), Mrs. Archie Hilchey, Mrs. Charles Fraser, Miss Joyce Wigginton, Miss Shirley Jenkins, Lorne Wigginton, Spencer Llewellyn, Gilbert Clements, David Mabon and Robert Mosher.
Piano accompanists during the evening were Mrs. D. M. MacDonald, Mrs. Charles Fraser, Miss Jane Giddings and Mr. Lloyd MacLeod.
The singing of "God Save the King" brought to a close a most enjoyable entertainment.

*VISITING MONTAGUE — Dr. Rupert Kendall and Mrs. Kendall of Boston, Mass., are at present spending some time in Montague at Poole's Tourist Home, owing to the illness of Mrs. Kendall's aunt, Mrs. Roderick MacMillan, Little Sands, who is a patient in the King's County Hospital. Also in Montague are Mrs. Alex Gillis, Belle River and Mrs. John A. MacKenzie, North River Road, Charlottetown, who are also nieces of Mrs. MacMillan.

* LADIES AID MEETING — The Ladies Aid Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, met in the church vestry Tuesday evening. The president, Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie, presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by eleven members and there was one visitor present. The treasurer, Mrs. A. C. MacKay, read the financial report, and also reported on the success of the pantry sale held during the month in wood. Extensive plans were discussed for redecorating the Manse interior, and a committee was appointed to attend to arrangements.

*BOY SCOUTS MEETING — The regular meeting of the First Montague Boy Scout Troop was held in the Legion Hall last night under the direction of the Scoutmaster, Mr. Eric Duvall. After the opening ceremonies, the boys spent the evening in their patrol corners learning the knowledge of scouting to pass their tests. A games session followed the study period, after which the scoutmaster gave a short talk on scouting work. It was proposed that a patrol hike be arranged for Saturday with the leaders giving the boys instruction in wood lore. Plans for the summer camp have not as yet been finalized, but are expected to be in the near future. The meeting closed with the horseshoe ceremony, during which the program for the next meeting was announced.

* W.M.S. MEETING — The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, was held in the church vestry Tuesday evening, May 8th, with Mrs. Emery MacNeil, presiding. The meeting opened with the call to worship, Isaiah 35: 1-4 was read by Mrs. Emery MacNeil. The hymn, "O Come Let Us Sing", was followed by a circle of prayer and the Lord's Prayer in unison. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Twelve members responded to roll call which was answered with the word of Scripture containing the word "faith". Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie was in charge of the study book, "Towards A New Dawn In Japan". She gave a very interesting resume of the final chapter, "Among the Koreans in Japan." A number of the members reported having made sick calls during the month. The annual meeting on June 12th will be held at the home of Mrs. MacNeil. The mite boxes will also be taken care of at that meeting. The closing hymn was "Arm Of The Lord", followed by the Mizpah benediction in unison.

TORONTO, May 8 —(CP)—The United Packinghouse Workers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) will not press for a "second round" of wage increases as their two-year contracts enter the second year. John Langstaff, union public relations officer, said last night that wage increases of 14 cents an hour during the year, plus boosts from cost-of-living clauses, have brought commensurate wage increases.

that better work could be accomplished by two separate clubs.

The first Swine Club of the year was reorganized at Mayfield on Tuesday, May 8th. Morris Deacon, Provincial Fieldman, and James Mundy, Dominion Livestock Fieldman, were present and outlined the policies of Swine Clubs. A newcomer to the club was elected president, Stanley (Buddy) Gallant. Other officers elected were: Vice-President, Shirley Arsenault; secretary-treasurer, Pearl Nicholson. Fifteen members indicated their desire to join and a very successful year is expected of this club. Films borrowed from the National Film Board were shown which were appreciated by the large audience of parents and young people.

Selkirk Ayrshire Calf Club met for their regular meeting in the school on Tuesday afternoon, May 1st. Most of the members were present and the meeting was ably presided over by President Mike MacKinnon. Lesson III in the club study lessons was studied and discussed. The club members decided to hold summer meetings the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month.

Bear River Ayrshire Calf Club held their study meeting Tuesday evening, May 1st, at the home of club member, Leo Gallant. Eleven members were present. Lesson V was studied by the club members. This Club is planning to purchase sweaters for each member to be worn especially at the Club Achievement Day. Next meeting will be a Judging Class at the farm of Mr. Roach McLaugh.

Mt. Hope - Farmington Junior Farmers have won the Patriot Publishing Company trophy for the second year. This trophy presented last year for the first time is given to the Junior Farmers group in the Province which makes the most progress during the year. Mr. Gaudet, Managing Editor of the Patriot, made the presentation to president Hubert MacLeod of the Mt. Hope-Farmington group at a well attended meeting in the St. Charles School on Thursday evening, May 3rd. Mr. Cameron, also of the Patriot staff, took a couple of photos of the happy and well deserving group following the trophy presentation.

Films of National Film Board were shown in the North Wiltshire Hall on Monday evening, May 7th. This film show was sponsored by the North Wiltshire Jersey Calf Club and a large crowd was in attendance.

"Kem-Tone transformed our dull, dingy parlor into a 'storybook' room. I was really surprised it took only one gallon to do such a beautiful job."

Mrs. N. C. Turner 1029 King St., Sackville, N.S.
"Just a dip of the brush and presto — one wall was finished — or at least it seemed that way to me. I have never covered a wall so easily in my life before."

Mr. Burton L. Johnson Sydney, N.S.
"I was pleased, too, to find how our Kem-Tone walls are washed clean with just plain soap and water."

Mr. Donald D. Allan 1622 Mulross Ave., Verdun, P.Q.
"I painted my room with Kem-Tone, then had something to eat. When I looked at the room after lunch it was perfectly dry. Kem-Tone is really amazing."
