He then called upon Mr. Millar Stevenson, who presented Mr. Richardson with an address and purse in appreciation of his services, to which Mr. Richardson responded with well chosen remarks and the promise to continue as supply minister. Following refreshments by the ladies and with more games and songs a happy Christmas fellowship was concluded.

Wins Baking Honors at Hants County Fair

A big hug for Mom! Her cooking not only keeps a fella running for his high chair—but it wins prizes at the fair as well! This winsome young winner at America's oldest agricultural fair is Mrs. Harold Curry, of Curry's Corner, N.S. An ex-teacher who takes farm and house work in her stride, Mrs. Curry knows the value of top-grade ingredients in baking, notably Fleischmann's Yeast. "I can compare Fleischmann's with no other yeast," says Mrs. Curry. "When I started baking breads, I started with Fleischmann's. I found it so reliable that I have never used anything else... Convenient, too, is the Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast, for that extra baking of rolls for a surprise treat."

New Hospital For Children

TORONTO, Jan. 16 —(CP)—The new Hospital for Sick Children, a glittering 13-storey structure built at a cost of $12,500,000 from Government grants and the donation of thousands of citizens, was formally opened today by six small patients in a brief, impressive ceremony.

The youngsters, representative of the 3,000,000 children treated at the old "Sick Kids," cut ceremonial blue ribbons before a distinguished gathering of Federal, Provincial and Civic Government officials and medical men.

Some 2,000 citizens also were on hand for the opening. They later toured the 632-bed hospital whose motto since the first Hospital for Sick Children came into existence 70-years ago — in a rented, 10-room house — has been: "Where no child knooks in vain."

The new hospital is located on broad University Avenue, less than a quarter-mile from its present quarters on College Street and within sight of the Ontario Legislative buildings in Queen's Park.

The patients will not move until Feb. 4. The hospital, which has won world renown for its medical and surgical achievements, will be open every day this week for public inspection.

The visitors will see the latest in hospital equipment. Infant cubicles are guarded from germs by ultra-violet rays across the doorways. None of the wards has more than six beds. Kitchens will enable 2,000 feedings a day.

The building has facilities to handle 100,000 out-patients a year, compared to 70,000 in the old institution.

MRS. ROBERT T. BARLOW

On Monday, Dec. 4th, 1950, the people of Bradalbane and vicinity were saddened to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Robert T. Barlow in her 78th year.

Although she had been falling in health for years, she bore her illness with Christian patience and fortitude, her life characterized by the motto: "It's better to give than to receive."

Mrs. Barlow was the former Mary Elizabeth MacKenzie, daughter of the late Murdoch MacKenzie and Mary MacLeod of Harrisville, P.E.I.

On July 12, 1881 she was united in marriage with Robert T. Barlow of Wellington where they resided for fifty years, after which they retired from farm life and took up residence in Bradalbane.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn their loss two daughters (Mamie) Mrs. Norman Matheson of Bradalbane; (Flora) Mrs. H. W. Clay, Charlottetown, one son, Ira in Westwood, Mass. and one foster son, Donnie at home. One son James and one daughter (Hannah) Mrs. N. S. Schofield predeceased her. She is also survived by one sister Effie, Vermont, U. S. A. and three brothers, Alexander and Thomas in Leavenworth, Wash., and William in Warner, N. H. also nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The funeral service, which was largely attended, was held on Thursday, Dec. 7th, a short service at the house thence to Bradalbane United Church of which she was an active and faithful member.

The service was conducted by Rev. L. M. Murray assisted by Rev. J. A. MacGowan. Rev. Mr. Murray spoke words of courage and comfort to the bereaved family. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd and Safe In The Arms of Jesus, also a duet, "Nearer Still Nearer" by Rev. L. M. Murray and Mr. Russel MacKay of Kensington.

The pallbearers were, Joseph Matheson, Adam MacKenzie, Alex C. MacDonald, Alex J. MacDonald, L. S. Seaman and Elmer Wigmore.

Many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Bradalbane Cemetery "here to await the resurrection morn. Goodness and mercy were her virtues all her life and now she dwells in the house of the Lord."

Card Of Thanks

Mr. R. T. Barlow and family wish to thank all their many friends and neighbours who sent flowers, cards of sympathy and all others who helped in any way during their recent sad bereavement.

CANADA is a year bigger...

As a place in which to live and work, to earn money and enjoy it, Canada grew tremendously during 1950. It grew with new and bigger oilfields, factories, mines, homes, schools, stores and trade. In fact, Canada grew in practically every department of life and effort.

The Royal Bank of Canada shared in this growth—growing with the country, helping it to grow. For there is no field of Canadian expansion in which the Royal Bank has not shared.

Our loans to farmers, fishermen, industrialists, to firms large and small and to individuals, showed marked increase during the year just closed. Our deposits grew to $2,337,000,000; our assets to over $2,497,000,000—both new records in Canadian banking.

We improved our premises in many places to provide faster, more convenient service in congenial surroundings, and we opened a number of new branches to serve rapidly expanding communities in cities, towns and rural areas.

Looking forward, we shall continue our efforts to serve all Canadians efficiently and in a spirit of helpful friendliness.

As compared with 1935: Manufacturing was almost three times greater. Exports, in dollar value, were four times greater and imports five times greater. Iron and steel production was nearly four times greater. Oil production was twenty times greater. Construction last year was almost ten times greater.
