Protection to Trout.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—In your issue of the 15th I noticed a communication headed "Protection to Trout," containing some false statements which, if you will kindly allow me space, I will expose. Your correspondent says on going to Emmore River on Tuesday, he found a net set across the stream. This statement is not true, there being no net set across the stream this summer; but having a net set on that day was perfectly in accordance with the law. His next statement is the stream was also thick with saw-dust. This is utterly untrue. Emmore River Mill is fitted up for catching the saw-dust as well as any mill on the Island, and there has not been any in this stream this summer. Sheep River Mill is also fitted up, and the sawdust carted away. Again, your correspondent asks whose duty it is to stop the netting and see that the sawdust does not go into the rivers? If he had asked that question while at Emmore River, any one could have told him; for we have a fishwarden here, and one that does his duty without fear or favor.

Now, Sir, when H. C. W. comes out like a man and lets the public know who he is, he will hear from me again.

Yours,
ARCH'D MURRAY.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—I notice in your paper of 15th inst., a communication from a correspondent signing himself "A supporter of the Government" wherein it is stated that "liquor is sold at Vernon, Orwell, and Mount Stewart, in Queen's County, in open contempt and defiance of the law."

Now, Sir, so far as Orwell is concerned, I believe your correspondent is misinformed.
There has been a sort of Vigilance Committee appointed here, whose duty it is to make known not only the names of vendors of intoxicating liquors, but also the names of those who drink it to excess; and from all that can be gleaned, there has been no liquor sold at Orwell during the past six months.

But Sir, I am sorry to state that there is a "rum hell" about eight miles south of Orwell, constantly open to those unfortunate, poverty-stricken individuals, on the fruits of whose former labor the rumseller is enabled to live.

Perhaps the Government do not deserve any encomiums for the manner in which they have handled the liquor laws of this Province; neither do they, in my humble opinion, merit much censure. I consider that if "A supporter of the Government" would attribute a goodly share of the illicit sale of rum in Queen's County to the timidity of some J. P.'s, the ignorance of others, and the drunkenness of a few, he would be much nearer the mark.

Hoping that if there is really any violations of the License Law at Orwell your correspondent will assist in giving the names of the guilty ones and bringing them to justice,

I remain, yours, etc.,
J. O. C.

An Appeal for Protection.

The Post directs attention to an article in the Quarterly Review intended to show from statistics that British manufactures are declining, and that foreigners are competing successfully even in the English markets, in consequence of the system of free trade. The Post says:
"These facts deserve the most considerate attention of every man having the future prosperity of the country at heart.
The United States, under a system of protection, paid during sixteen years over £150,000,000 debt, and £20,000,000 last year. Under it the United States have passed by leaps and bounds into a condition of prosperity which before long will enable them to cancel the enormous debt incurred on account of the civil war. England is by no means in the same hopeful condition. Free trade has done much to benefit the country, but we doubt whether it has not become imperative to resort to retaliatory duties."

Facts for Prohibitionists.

Nine-tenths of the crimes committed in Italy, according to Signor Selopis, the eminent statesman, have their origin in the drinking shops, while Mrs. Mario states that in Milan alone thirteen hundred individuals are yearly taken to the hospitals in various stages of delirium tremens—a pretty fair record for a "wine drinking" country, once so free from the grosser forms of intoxication, and a pretty strong argument against the members of the Senate who wish to "amend" the Scott Act on the ground that light liquors are a protection against drunkenness.

Out of about three hundred designs for Christmas cards submitted to the Royal Canadian Academy, the first prize and gold medal has been awarded by the Council at Halifax to Mr. F. M. Bell-Smith, of Hamilton. Mr. Bell-Smith has also sold to the Governor-General a water-color drawing of a boat race on Toronto Bay.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says it is expected that there will be a further increase in the Russian export duties,

MARKETS.

Prices of oats have again declined in England. The best sale which has been made since our last quotations has been a cargo of 2,000 bushels at 18s. 3d. per quarter of 304 lbs. Another cargo of 3,300 bushels was sold at 18s. 9d. for London.
Latest advices state that sellers who have been holding out for higher prices have been obliged to give in and now sell at from 18s. 6d. to 19s. per quarter.

Old potatoes have gone out of the United States market, and free supplies of new ones are selling at $2 to $2.25 per barrel.

EGGS.
Boston advices of the 16th inst., state that there has been a firmer feeling for fresh stock, which is rather scarce, and choice lots of Northern and Eastern eggs have been selling at 17 1/2 to 18 cents per dozen.
P. E. Island eggs command 17 to 17 1/2 cents per dozen.

FLOUR.
A Galt, Ont., circular of the 15th inst., states that the grain and flour trade for the week has been quiet, principally owing to the very small offerings, especially in flour, which were altogether insufficient for the demand. The weather is very favorable for the fall wheat harvest. There is little flour offering in Galt at present. A considerable export trade has been done during the week and a much improved tone prevails. Spring Extra is quoted in Galt, at $5.20 to $5.25; Extra $5.50 to $5.55; and Montreal Extra, at $5.60 to $5.65. The Montreal Flour Market was on Saturday last quiet, but prices remained firm. The stock of flour in store there, was reduced some 6,000 barrels during the past fortnight. The following are the quotations:—

Superior Extra..... $9 00 @ 5 95 Extra Superfine..... 5 85 @ 5 90 Spring Extra..... 5 80 @ 5 82 Superfine..... 5 40 @ 5 50 Strong Bakers'..... 5 85 @ 6 50 Fine..... 4 50 @ 4 60

Charlottetown market prices remain the same as last quoted.

COMMERCIAL NOTES.

HOG PACKING.—The packing of hogs in Chicago from March 1st to date is 1,458, 000 head, against 1,822,000 for the corresponding period last year, showing a decrease of 364,000 head.

TRADE WITH BRAZIL.—The Canadian and Brazilian shipping matter has, we are pleased to learn, at last been successfully arranged and definite arrangements are now under consideration in regard to freights, rates, etc. The company will be under French and Brazilian management—the negotiations having matured in France —and sailing under the French flag. The names of the company's vessels will be advertised in the course of a few days, together with information of exports and imports.—Montreal Gazette.

At St. John they had music after Mr.
Blake's speech. It had a dying fall. It will take a good deal of "music by the band" to seduce the people of the Lower Provinces to follow Mr. Blake in his crusade against all their best interests. As Mr.
Huntington aptly said, the little Liberal hen will have to "spread herself" considerably before she can cover all the Maritime eggs.—Toronto Mail.

The set of stereotype plates of the edition with the copyright of his memoir and notes brought £250. The furniture and effects in the late Earl's Curzon street house house will be sold in a fortnight hence.

"This is a sad commentary on our boasted civilization," a tramp despondingly observed when he discovered that the ham he had taken from the front of a shop was a wooden one.—American Queen.

Judge Breckenridge, in reprimanding a criminal was answered by him, "Sir, I am not such a scoundrel as your honor —takes me to be." "Put your words closer together," replied the judge.

What is the difference between a butcher and a gay young lady? The former kills to dress, while the latter dresses to kill.

It was Artemus Ward who said there are two things in this world for which no one is ever prepared—namely, twins.

Why is a lady engaged in netting like a ship in full sail? Because she is making so many knots an hour.

Whose best works are most trampled upon? A shoemaker's; because good shoes last longer than bad ones.

Why is your nose in the middle of your face? Because it's the centre "Did you know," said a cunning Yankee to a Jew, "that they hang Jews and donkeys together in Poland?" "Indeed! then it is well that you and I are not there," retorted the Jew.
