MRS. SAMUEL MACPHERSON

On the morning of May 13th, 1950, the spirit of Mrs. Samuel MacPherson (Marion Mellish) New Perth, returned to its Maker. Death came suddenly and unexpectedly.

Born at Union Road (Kings County) twenty-three years ago Mrs. MacPherson was a daughter of the late Albert Mellish and his wife Annie Campbell Mellish. In the year 1913 she married Mr. Samuel MacPherson of Martinvale and resided in that district for some years, later removing with her family to New Perth.

Kind and charitable always, she lived and exemplified the great commandment "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

There were few in the community who had not known her kindness in times of sickness and distress and friends and stranger alike will long remember her generous hospitality.

A lover of flowers her garden was a beauty spot in the community and the admiration of the travelling public.

She is survived by her husband and three daughters, Annie, Mrs. Homer Moar; Mary, Mrs. Roy MacKenzie, all of New Perth and Minnie, Mrs. William Megent, Toronto. Also by two brothers, Albert of Charlottetown, John of Boston, and one sister, Mary of Brookline, Mass. Six brothers and two sisters predeceased her.

The largely attended funeral service was conducted by her pastor Rev. F. N. Young of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Cardigan.

Numerous and beautiful floral offerings blanketed the casket and silent tributes from sorrowing relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the Interment Union Road Cemetery. Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.
