

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MARCH 18, 1889.

A Patriotic Reform.

The Patriot is very anxious that Prince Edward Island should follow the example of Ontario, and abolish the military parade at the opening of the Legislature.

But to follow the example of Ontario with respect to the Legislature itself—that is, of course out of the question. That would involve a saving of $6,000 or $7,000 a year, and help to avoid the necessity of taxing the people.

When the taxes come to be laid on we shall probably hear a different cry. Our farmers, our property holders, will then probably, begin to wonder why they can't be represented by one Legislative Chamber as well as Ontario, and why the number of Legislators can't be reduced proportionately to the other provinces and be in closer accord with the dictates of common sense.

When the Grits held sway, the cost of Provincial legislation was upwards of $18,000 a year. Under the present Government, the cost of legislation has been reduced to $13,000.

When the Grits held sway, the cost of Provincial legislation was upwards of $18,000 a year. Under the present Government, the cost of legislation has been reduced to $13,000.

The above should have appeared on Saturday; but its insertion was postponed in order that room might be found for the news. We note—since it was written—that the Patriot has executed the movement of "right about face" in respect to the question.

The Examiner can, however, sincerely congratulate the Patriot, and express the hope that it will induce its friends in the Legislature to vote squarely in favor of the Government's policy.

Notes and Clippings.

The attempt of Mr. Donald Farquharson and the Patriot to divert attention from the misrepresentatives of Prince Edward Island in the House of Commons is too thin.

The Canadian Gazette publishes details regarding the mail subsidies, some of which are probably unknown publicly in Canada.

any part of the service. No guarantee of capital will be created for these purposes.

The Montreal Gazette says, editorially: "The extremely interesting paper on the works of Dr. Frechette, read a few nights ago by Mr. Leigh R. Gregor before the Society of Canadian Literature, helped to remove a reproach that has often been cast upon the English-speaking section of our community."

Varia.

Another French ministry has fallen. The fall was not unexpected; and now that it has come it seems to have introduced no new element into the situation.

There have now been twenty-five Cabinets since the Third Republic was established eighteen and a half years ago.

A. asks who is the "Plumed Knight?" The expression is an Americanism, and by it is intended a bitter foe of Canada and of English interests on this side of the Atlantic.

It will be observed that Ingersoll's similes border upon the ridiculous, for lances are not "thrown." Probably he confused the lance with the javelin, which is thrown; and then, during Blaine's march down the halls of Congress, in addition to the members, he would only find there "lobbyists" and "boodlers," endeavoring to have bills passed.

I give below a complete list of the Presidents of the United States. It will be noticed that some of the names occur more than once. This is because the President has held office more than one term:

- (George Washington, April 30th, 1789. George Washington, March 4th, 1793. John Adams, March 4th, 1797. Thomas Jefferson, March 4th, 1801. Thomas Jefferson, March 4th, 1805. James Madison, March 4th, 1809. James Madison, March 4th, 1813. James Monroe, March 4th, 1817. James Monroe, March 5th, 1821. John Quincy Adams, March 4th, 1825. Andrew Jackson, March 4th, 1829. Andrew Jackson, March 4th, 1833. Martin Van Buren, March 4th, 1837. William H. Harrison, March 4th, 1841. John Tyler, April 6th, 1841. James K. Polk, March 4th, 1845. Zachary Taylor, March 5th, 1849. Millard Fillmore, July 9th, 1850. Franklin Pierce, March 4th, 1853. James Buchanan, March 4th, 1857. Abraham Lincoln, March 4th, 1861. Abraham Lincoln, March 4th, 1865. Andrew Johnson, April 15th, 1865. Ulysses S. Grant, March 4th, 1869. Ulysses S. Grant, March 4th, 1873. Rutherford B. Hayes, March 4th, 1877. James A. Garfield, March 4th, 1881. Chester A. Arthur, September 20th, 1881. Grover Cleveland, March 4th, 1885. Benjamin Harrison, March 4th, 1889.)

A total of twenty-three Presidents, seven of whom—Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and Grant—were elected for a second term. Four Presidents—Harrison, Taylor, Lincoln and Garfield—died in office. Two Presidents—Lincoln and Garfield—were assassinated.

in office), Daniel D. Tompkins, (two terms); John C. Calhoun, (two terms, resigning during second term); Martin Van Buren, Richard M. Johnson, John Tyler, George Dallas, Millard Fillmore, William R. King, (died in office); John C. Breckenridge, (died in office); Hannibal Hamlin, Andrew Johnson, Schuyler Colfax, Henry Wilson, (died in office); William A. Wheeler, Chester A. Arthur, Thomas A. Hendricks, (died in office); and now Levi P. Morton. The Vice-Presidents who succeeded to the Presidency in consequence of the death of the President, were John Tyler, upon the death of President Harrison, in 1841; Millard Fillmore, upon the death of President Taylor, in 1850; Andrew Johnson, upon the death of President Lincoln, in 1865; and Chester A. Arthur, upon the death of President Garfield, in 1881.

I think that the following beautiful extract, from the Hon. Mrs. Norton, may be deemed worthy of a place in the Varia column:—

"A child's eyes! Those clear wells of undefiled thought; what on earth can be more beautiful! Full of love, hope and curiosity, they meet your own. In prayer, how earnest; in joy, how sparkling; in sympathy, how tender! The man who never tried the companionship of a little child, has carelessly passed by one of the great pleasures of life, as one passes a rare flower without plucking it, or knowing its value. A child cannot understand you, you think. Speak to it of the holy things of religion, of your grief for the loss of a friend; of your love for some one you fear will not love you in return; it will take it in true no measure or sounding of your thought; it will not judge how much you should believe; whether your grief is rational in proportion to your loss; whether you are worthy or fit to attract the love which you seek; but its whole soul will incline to yours, and ingraft itself as it were on the feeling which is your feeling for the hour."

I read the other day in a letter by one of the most popular preachers in Canada, a mis-quotation of Holy Scripture, and I have observed that nine times out of ten the same text is mis-quoted. It is:—"In the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread."

There is no such text in the Bible. In Gen. 3: 19, it is stated:—"In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread."

I cannot understand why people put the word "brow" for "face."

Parliamentary Notes.

MR. WELSH WANTS INFORMATION. Mr. Welsh has given notice that he will ask the Ministry:—

Is it the intention of the Government to repair and improve the New London Breakwater during the coming summer?

Is it the intention of the Government to send the steam dredge to dredge the channel of New London Harbor during the coming summer?

Is it the intention of the Government to rebuild or repair the pier at China Point, Prince Edward Island, during the coming summer?

Is it the intention of the Government to have surveys held on the harbor of Pinette and Wood Island during the coming summer; and if so, in what month?

Is it the intention of the Government to have the pier called "Hickey's Wharf" put in a good state of repair during the coming summer?

Is it the intention of the Government to build a pier at or near Mount Stewart, Prince Edward Island, as prayed for by the inhabitants of that section?

4th. B. f., 1 year old, sire, Westlawn 5038, dam by All Right 5817, 3rd dam by Saladin. This filly owing to his choice breeding, and being of a good size, ought to be valuable, either on the track, road, or as a brood mare (eligible to register, rule 7). In fact the above lot has sufficient blood in them to make them valuable as brood mares.
5th. Wine b. c. Graduate 1653, 3 years old in July next, sire, Principal 6229, dam Sappho, by Hernando 2891, 2nd dam by All Right 5817. This colt being very stylish and a good size, ought to make a valuable stock horse (rule 6).
