Intermediate C Softball Finals Commence Today
 The Island Intermediate "C" softball finals get underway this afternoon at Victoria Park when Dow's Sportsmen take an all-star team from the Prince County town of Borden. This Borden team won their county title quite handily by taking their opposition in consecutive games and are expected to give Dow's plenty of trouble. Dow's are currently riding in third place in the City Softball League and have high hope of taking their second straight Island title. Game time is slated for 2:30. The second and third game, if necessary, will be played in Borden over the weekend.

RIFLE SHOOT
 Cadet Ron Clark and Sgt. Perley Taylor fired identical rounds of 141 during a recent rifle shoot held at Squaw Point recently. Clark was awarded the first place position on the basis of his better performance at 600 yards. All shooters fired 15 rounds from 300 and 600 yards.
 A partner shoot will be sponsored by the Rifle Association tomorrow and on Labor Day the City of Charlottetown matches will be run off. This is comprised of the Jenkins Transfer and George Davies matches. The shooting will commence at 8.00 a.m. and dinner will be served at the club house by wives of the shooters. Shooters from Amherst and Sackville, N.B., are expected.
