COUPLE SPLIT

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Robert Preston and his wife have separated after almost 23 years of marriage, regarded as one of the entertainment world's most ideal—with never a hint of discord.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

West dealer.
North-South vulnerable with a part score of 60.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1♠	1♠	2♠	2♥
3♠	3♥	4♠	Dble
Pass	4♥	Pass	Pass
Dble	Redble	5♦	Pass
Pass	5♥	Pass	Pass
Pass

Opening lead — king of diamonds.

This hand comes from a rubber bridge game. The lengthy bidding sequence stemmed from the part score North-South were carrying from an earlier hand. North's redouble of four hearts was strategically unsound, since he should have been happy to settle for four hearts doubled and not done anything to disturb that contract.

South would almost surely have gone down in five hearts if East had not made a comment that led declarer to the winning line of play.

West opened the king of diamonds and South took it with the ace. At this point East said unhappily that he would probably have beaten the contract if he had been on lead.

Of course, such remarks are strictly forbidden during the play and should not be made. It became obvious to South that East could not have said this unless he had a singleton spade which he would have led if he had been the opening leader.

The proprieties allow declarer to take advantage of any information he obtains from his opponents, though he does so, of course, at his own risk.

So, armed with the knowledge that East had a singleton spade (which declarer hoped was the nine), South drew three rounds of trumps, ending in his hand. He had to draw all of East's trumps to prevent a spade ruff).

He then led the ten of spades, and when West followed with the four, played low from dummy. Another spade lead put West out of commission. He could take the ace of spades and ace of clubs, but no more. So South made five hearts.

But for East's comment, South would probably have gone down one or more tricks. He could not have made the hand without finessing the ten of spades — a play he would scarcely have thought of without the benefit of East's ill-chosen remark. East should have kept a stiff upper lip!

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is N Y O F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
