

A Ballad of a Sad Bad Girl.

She was pretty, she was bright, She was brave as she was bonny. Her eyes were full of light, And her smile was bright and sunny.

Her cheek was like a rose, Her mouth was like a cherry, She'd a pretty, pert, snub nose, And her laugh was gay and merry.

Her locks were touched with gold, And a three-foot row would scrape her; She was only five years old, And her finger tips were taper.

For she wanted her own way, And you couldn't turn or twist her, She'd say y-a, or she'd say nay, Spite of mother, friend or sister.

But she's getting older now, And although they're almost frantic, Still they hope she's learning how To be gentle and less antic.

With the very sweetest flavour, She would pout and she'd frown, Till their brains were in a whirl, For she was—yes, she was Such a sad, bad girl!

A Single Fault.

"I think that young Mr Cutaway is just a perfect gentleman," remarked Mrs. Fussanfeather to her daughter a ter that young man had gone before the clock had made a ten-strike.

Wise Bits.

It is not what we earn, but what we save that makes us rich. It is not what we intend, but what we do that makes us useful.

More money and less credit will bring more happiness and less misery. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that makes us strong.

London Truth says:—"To those who can eat cats, there can be no more delicate or delicious way of cooking them than by following the accompanying recipe:—Buy your eel the day before you require to eat it, and have it cut in pieces about two inches long, and not skinned.

It is a wise and suggestive saying that Wilkie Collins puts in the mouth of one of his characters: that one may live comfortably on a certain income named, "provided that she does not owe duties to society!"

The Little Rock (Ark.) Gazette prints the following as a veritable letter of Andrew Jackson. It certainly has a characteristic flavour: "I was glad to hear from you and to know that the good Lord, in His divine mercy, has thus far spared you. May He ever bless you and damn our enemies.

a d—d scoundrel as John Q. Adams? I am pleased to hear that you have professed religion and joined the Church. This more effectually elevates you above the d—d Whig."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

UNEQUALLED. Dr. R. M. Alexander, Fannettsburgh, Pa., says: "I think Horsford's Acid Phosphate is not equalled in any other preparation of phosphorus."

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS. FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 26, 1882. Gentlemen: My father resides at Glenora, N. Y. He has been a great sufferer from Scrophulous, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrophulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I can easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case. Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrophulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sarsaparilla in April, and in less than a week it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. (Given by Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrophulous and all Scrophulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5. W. R. WATSON, CLERK, Wholesale Agent.
